

*Do you miss being in the Islands with your 'ohana?
Want to find out how you can return to Hawaii and still fulfill your career goals?*

Then you must attend . . .

Kama'aina Come Home™ in San Diego

Thursday, June 19, 2008
5:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.*
Roy's, La Jolla
8670 Genesee Avenue

Program:

5:30 – 6:30 Registration & Networking
6:30 – 7:30 Presentations
7:30 – 8:00 Networking

Come enjoy some ono pupus and get the latest information about the job market in Hawaii. Meet representatives from the Kauai, Oahu, Maui and Hawaii Island economic development agencies who will talk specifically about what's happening on their islands. Hear from the head of the Hawaii Science & Technology Council about their website's job/internship and resume posting feature. Learn about the programs and services available through the High Technology Development Corporation. You will even have the opportunity to meet representatives from some of Hawaii's leading life sciences companies who will be in town for BIO 2008.

What industries are recruiting?

Science & Technology	Public Safety
Health Care	Hospitality
Education	And more . . .

Space is limited. RSVP immediately to service@dbedt.hawaii.gov or call (808) 587-2757. For more information, contact Jamie Lum at jlum@dbedt.hawaii.gov or call (808) 587-2753.

For those professionals in the life sciences sector, there will be a Hawaii Technology Showcase preceding this event which will feature presentations by several Hawaii life sciences companies. Ask for an invitation to the Hawaii Technology Showcase when you RSVP for the Kama'aina Come Home event.

Add your resume to the HISciTech Career and Internship website at www.HISciTech.org and check out the jobs posted by Hawaii's Science & Tech companies.
