Summary of Changes from Earlier Public Reports:

This summary contains a general description of the changes, if any, made by the developer since the last public report was issued. It is not necessarily all inclusive. Prospective buyers should compare this public report with the earlier reports if they wish to know the specific changes that have been made.

No prior reports have been issued by the Commission.

Changes made are as follows:

1. Because of the numerous amendments to Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, since issuance of the earlier Public Reports, the contents of the Declaration of Condominium Property Regimes and the By-Laws were amended in full. Since no sales had transpired earlier, the consents of individual apartment owners were not needed for purposes of the amendments.

2. This Supplemental Report supersedes in full all prior Public Reports. However, the Developer is aware that all prospective buyers, upon request, are entitled to copies of the Preliminary and Final Public Reports for the Project. Although these have expired, they serve as a basis for comparison of changes.

3. The Developer for the Project is now Maluhia Kona Limited Partnership, a Hawaii limited partnership. Its sole general partner is Maluhia Kona, Inc.

GENERAL INFORMATION ON CONDOMINIUMS

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of Hawaii's "Condominium Property Act" (Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes) must be followed.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

Common elements are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called limited common elements and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged, or encumbered, and they may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owner/tenant) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements. The leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without a vote of the owners. Some of these actions may significantly impact the quality of life for all apartment owners.

Until there is a sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is vitally important to all apartment owners that the transition from developer to owner control be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

II. CREATION OF THE CONDOMINIUM; CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS

A condominium is created by recording in the Bureau of Conveyances and/or filing with the Land Court a Declaration of Condominium Property Regime, a Condominium Map (File Plan), and the Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners.

- A. Declaration of Condominium Property Regime contains a description of the land, buildings, apartments, common elements, limited common elements, common interests, and other information relating to the condominium project.

The Declaration for this condominium is:

- Proposed
- Recorded - Bureau of Conveyances - Book 15775 Page 142
- Filed - Land Court - Document Number _____

Amendment date(s) and recording/filing information:

Amended Declaration of Condominium Property Regime dated August 9, 1990, recorded in the Bureau of Conveyances of the State of Hawaii as Document No. 90-126838, supersedes the originally recorded Declaration.

- B. Condominium Map (File Plan) shows the floor plan, elevation and layout of the condominium project. It also shows the floor plan, location, apartment number, and dimensions of each apartment.

The Condominium Map for this condominium project is:

- Proposed
- Recorded - Bureau of Conveyance Condo Map No. 820
- Filed - Land Court Condo Map No. _____

Amendment date(s) and recording/filing information:

- C. Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners govern the operation of the condominium project. They provide for the manner in which the Board of Directors of the Association of Apartment Owners is elected, the powers and duties of the Board, the way in which meetings will be conducted, and other matters which affect how the condominium project will be governed.

The Bylaws for this condominium are:

- Proposed
- Recorded - Bureau of Conveyances - Book 15775 Page 142
- Filed - Land Court - Document Number _____

Amendment date(s) and recording/filing information:

(Amended) By-Laws of the Association of Apartment Owners of Maluhia Kai dated August 9, 1990, recorded in the Bureau of Conveyances of the State of Hawaii as Document No. 90-126839, supersedes the By-Laws attached to the original Declaration.

The Condominium Statute (Chapter 514A, HRS), the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules control the rights and obligations of the apartment owners with respect to the common elements, to each other, and to their respective apartments. The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

D. House Rules. The Board of Directors may adopt house rules to govern the use and operation of the common elements and individual apartments. House rules may cover matters such as parking regulations, hours of operation for common facilities such as recreation areas, use of lanais, keeping of pets, and occupancy limits. These rules must be followed by owners, tenants, and guests. They do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective. The initial house rules are usually adopted by the developer.

The House Rules for this condominium are:

Proposed Adopted

Developer does not plan to adopt house rules.

E. Changes to Condominium Documents

Changes to the Declaration, Condominium Map, and Bylaws are effective only if they are duly adopted and recorded and/or filed. Changes to House Rules do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective.

1. Apartment Owners: Minimum percentage of common interest which must vote for or give written consent to changes:

	Minimum Set by Law	This Condominium
Declaration (and Condo Map)	75%	75%
Bylaws	65%	67%
House Rules	---	Action by Board of Directors

The percentages for individual condominium projects may be more than the minimum set by law.

2. Developer: The developer has reserved the following rights to change the Declaration, Condominium Map, Bylaws, or House Rules:

Developer has expressly reserved the right to successively amend the Declaration without the consent or joinder of persons then owning or leasing the apartments, (i) as may be necessary to redesignate any or all of the parking stalls as limited common elements appurtenant to certain apartments other than the apartment to which it is assigned as hereinbefore set forth, provided that no conveyance shall have previously been issued conveying such stall; or (ii) as may be required by law, the Real Estate Commission of the State of Hawaii, any title insurance company issuing a title insurance policy on the project, or any institutional lender lending funds on the security of the project or any of the apartments thereof; provided, however, that no such amendment (other than an amendment redesignating any or all of the parking stalls as limited common elements appurtenant to certain apartments) which would change the common interest appurtenant to an apartment or substantially change the design, location or size of an apartment shall be made without the consent to and joinder in such amendment by the owner of such apartment and all others, if any, having any interest therein.

Developer has expressly reserved the right to amend the By-Laws before the Association has been duly organized and before any apartment in the Project has been conveyed.

Each apartment includes the walls and partitions which are not load-bearing and which are within its perimeter walls; doors and door frames; windows and window frames; the inner decorated or finished surfaces of walls, floors and ceilings, adjoining and connected thereto; and all fixtures originally installed therein. The eighteen (18) apartments do not include the undecorated or unfinished surfaces of the perimeter walls or of the interior load-bearing walls, the floors and perimeter ceilings surrounding each apartment, or any pipes, wires, ducts, conduits, or other utility or service lines running through such apartments which are utilized for or serve more than one apartment, all of which are common elements of the Project.

b. Compliance With Building Code and Municipal Regulations; Cost to Cure Violations

10. Conformance to Present Zoning Code

a. No variances to zoning code have been granted.

Variance(s) to zoning code was/were granted as follows:

The project is in compliance with all ordinances, codes, rules, regulations or other requirements in force at the time of its construction. The land was zoned RM 1.5, but the project was developed and constructed under Special Management Area Use Permit No. 136 to allow the development of an 18-unit condominium project and related improvements and under Planned Development Permit No. 45 granted by the Planning Commission of the County of Hawaii on August 7, 1980. ANY CHANGE TO THE STRUCTURE IN THE FUTURE WOULD BE SUBJECT TO THE ZONING AND OTHER GOVERNMENTAL REQUIREMENTS AND REGULATIONS IN EFFECT AT THAT TIME.

b. Conforming/Non-Conforming Uses, Structures, Lot

In general, a non-conforming use, structure, or lot is a use, structure, or lot which was lawful at one time but which does not now conform to present zoning requirements.

		Conforming	Non-Conforming	Illegal
Uses	(See para.	_____	_____	_____
Structures	10.a, above)	_____	_____	_____
Lot		_____	_____	_____

If a variance has been granted or if uses, improvements or lot are either non-conforming or illegal, buyer should consult with county zoning authorities as to possible limitations which may apply.

Limitations may include restrictions on extending, enlarging, or continuing the non-conformity, and restrictions on altering and repairing structures. In some cases, a non-conforming structure that is destroyed or damaged cannot be reconstructed.

The buyer may not be able to obtain financing or insurance if the condominium project has a non-conforming or illegal use, structure, or lot.

D. Common Elements, Limited Common Elements, Common Interest:

1. Common Elements: Common Elements are those parts of the condominium project intended to be used by all apartment owners. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners.

Exhibit B describes the common elements.

As follows:

2. Limited Common Elements: Limited Common Elements are those common elements which are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments.

There are no limited common elements in this project.

The limited common elements and the apartments which may use them are:

described in Exhibit C

as follows:

3. Common Interest: Each apartment will have an undivided fractional interest in all of the common elements. This interest is called the "common interest." It is often used to determine each apartment's share of the maintenance fees and other common profits and expenses of the condominium. It may also be used for other purposes, including voting on matters requiring action by apartment owners.

Exhibit D describes the common interests for each apartment.

As follows:

E. Encumbrances Against Title: An encumbrance is a claim against or a liability on the property.

Exhibit E describes the encumbrances against the title contained in the title report dated August 16, 1990 and issued by Long & Melone, Ltd.

Blanket Liens:

A blanket lien is a mortgage on a condominium project that secures a construction loan. It is usually released on an apartment-by-apartment basis upon payment of specified sums so that individual apartments can be conveyed to buyers free and clear of the lien.

There are no blanket liens affecting title to the individual apartments.

There are blanket liens which may affect title to the individual apartments.

Blanket liens (except for improvement district or utility assessments) must be released before the developer conveys the apartment to a buyer. Buyer's interest will be affected only if the developer defaults prior to conveying the apartment to buyer.

Type of Lien	Effect on Buyer's Interest If Developer Defaults
Mortgage dated December 12, 1986	Buyer's interest may be terminated, but in such event, Buyer will be entitled to a return of all deposits, less a nominal escrow cancellation fee.
Mortgage dated January 6, 1988
Mortgage dated June 26, 1990

F. Management of the Common Elements: The Association of Apartment Owners is responsible for the management of the common elements and the overall operation of the condominium project. The Association may be permitted, and in some cases may be required, to employ or retain a managing agent to assist the Association in managing the condominium project.

Initial Managing Agent: When the developer or the developer's affiliate is the initial managing agent, the management contract must have a term of one year or less and the parties must be able to terminate the contract on notice of 60 days or less.

The initial managing agent for this condominium is:

Initial maintenance fees are difficult to estimate and tend to increase as the condominium ages. Maintenance fees may vary depending on the services provided to each apartment.

Exhibit F contains a schedule of maintenance fees and maintenance fee disbursements.

Each apartment will be billed separately for utilities except for the following checked utilities which are included in the maintenance fees:

- Electricity
