GENERAL INFORMATION ON CONDOMINIUMS

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of Hawaii's "Horizontal Property Act" (Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes) must be followed.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

Common elements are the areas of the condominium other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominiums, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called limited common elements and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented or encumbered, and they may be disposed of by will or gift.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium. Study the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Operation of the Condominium

The Association of Apartment Owners is the means through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your control of the administration and operation of the condominium will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without a vote of the owners. Some of these actions may significantly impact the quality of life for all apartment owners.

Until there is a sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is vitally important to all apartment owners that the transition from developer to owner control be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

EXHIBIT "I"

The relevent provisions of the Deposit Receipt and Sales Contract ("Sales Contract") are as follows:

1. Financing. If a Purchaser requires financing, he must make a good faith application for the necessary mortgage loans within ten (10) days after the Seller's execution of the Sales Contract. If the loan is not approved within sixty (60) days after application, the Seller has the right to cancel the Sales Contract and refund all deposits paid by Purchaser, less certain escrow cancellation fees.

2. Condominium Documents. Purchasers acknowledge receipt of and approve all of the condominium documents including the Unit Deed, Declaration of Horizontal Property Regime, Bylaws, Developer's Disclosure Abstract, House Rules, and Escrow Agreement.

3. Subordination. Purchaser's rights under the sales contract are subordinated to the rights of the Lender under the construction mortgage obtained by the Seller. Purchasers further agree that if the property ever acquired by said Lender through foreclosure or otherwise, that the Lender may, at its option, require Purchasers to pay the purchase price and perform their obligations under the Sale's Contract.

4. Binding Effect. The Sales Contract shall only become binding on Purchaser and Seller after:

(i) A true copy of the Final Public Report has been delivered to Purchaser either personally or by registered or certified mail with return receipt requested, together with a true copy of all other public reports thereon, if any, issued prior to the date of such delivery and not previously delivered to Purchaser;

(ii) Purchaser has been given an opportunity to read the reports; and

(iii) Purchaser has executed the form of the receipt and notice required under Section 514A-62 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes, and waived his right to cancel; provided that if Purchaser does not execute and return the receipt and notice within thirty (30) days from the date of delivery of such reports, or if the apartment is conveyed to Purchaser prior to the expiration of such thirty (30) day period, Purchaser shall be deemed to have receipted for the reports and to have waived his right to cancel.

Until a Sales Contract becomes binding, as provided above, all funds paid by Purchaser shall be held in escrow and not disbursed for any purpose.

After a Sales Contract has become binding as provided above, Purchaser shall have the right to rescind the Contract if there is a material change in the Project which directly, substantially, and adversely affects the use of value of (i) Purchaser's Apartment or appurtenant limited common elements, or (ii) those amenities of the Project available for Purchaser's use.

Purchaser's right to rescission described above shall be waived upon (i) deliver to Purchaser either personally or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or by disclosure document which described the material change and contains a provision for the Purchaser's written approval or acceptance of such change, and (ii) Purchaser's written approval or acceptance of the material change or the lapse of ninety (90) days since Purchaser has accepted the Apartment, or the occupancy of the Apartment; provided that if the Purchaser does not rescind the Sales Contract or execute and return the written approval of acceptance of such change as provided in the disclosure document within thirty (30) days from the date of delivery of such disclosure document, Purchaser shall be deemed to have approved and accepted such change; provided, further, that the deemed approval and acceptance shall be effective only if at the time of delivery of the disclosure document, Purchaser is notified in writing of the fact that Purchaser will be deemed to have approved and accepted the change upon his failure to act within the thirty (30) day period.

In the event of any rescission pursuant to the foregoing provisions, Purchaser shall be entitled to a prompt and full refund of any money paid, less any escrow cancellation fees and other costs associated with the purchase, which fees and costs shall not exceed $250.00.

EXHIBIT "J"

The relevent provisions of the Escrow Agreement are as follows:

1. Payments to Escrow. All deposits and other sums received from Purchasers or from other persons on account of the Project shall be paid to the escrow agent and deposited in a federally insured banking or savings and loan institution.

2. Disbursement of Funds. No disbursements shall be made from the Escrow funds unless and until: (a) the Sales Contract has become binding in the manner provided in paragraph 3 of Exhibit D to this Final Report; (b) Seller's attorney shall have given escrow a written opinion that all of the requirements of Section 514A-39, 514A-62 and 514A-63 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes have been met; (c) Seller shall have waived all other options to cancel the Sales Contract; (d) Escrow has received a Unit Deed in recordable form in favor of Purchaser; and (e) Escrow has received releases of partial releases of any encumbrance affecting the apartment to be conveyed to Purchaser.

3. Return of Purchaser's Funds. A Purchaser shall be entitled to the return of his funds if Purchaser has requested such a refund and Escrow shall have received from Seller notice that any of the following has occurred:

(a) Seller shall have requested Escrow to refund said monies; or

(b) Seller shall have exercised any option in its favor to cancel the Sales Contract; or

(c) Purchaser is an owner-occupant and it entitled by law to cancel the Sales Contract.

In any of the foregoing events, Escrow shall refund all deposits to Purchaser, less a cancellation fee to Escrow of $25 per unit and any other cancellation charges.

4. Buyer's Default. If a Purchaser shall not make any payment required under the Sales Contract on or before the due date thereof, Escrow shall notify Purchaser and Seller of such fact. If Seller shall determine that Purchaser has committed an event of default under the Sales Contract, then Seller has the right to terminate the Sales Contract upon written notice to Escrow and Purchaser and Escrow shall, after the expiration of ten (10) days from receipt of such notification and upon written "request by seller", pay all deposits to Seller, less any Escrow cancellation fees and out of pocket expenses.
