GENERAL INFORMATION ON CONDOMINIUMS

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of Hawaii's "Horizontal Property Act" (Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes) must be followed.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

Common elements are the areas of the condominium other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominiums, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called limited common elements and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented or encumbered, and they may be disposed of by will or gift.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium. Study the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Operation of the Condominium

The Association of Apartment Owners is the means through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your control of the administration and operation of the condominium will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without a vote of the owners. Some of these actions may significantly impact the quality of life for all apartment owners.

Until there is a sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is vitally important to all apartment owners that the transition from developer to owner control be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

AMENDMENT OF DECLARATION.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration, the Declaration may be amended by vote of seventy-five percent (75%) of the Dwelling Owners, effective only upon the recording of an instrument setting forth such amendment and vote duly executed by such owners or by the proper officers of the Association. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, if (1) at any time prior to the first filing in the Bureau of Conveyances of the State of Hawaii of a conveyance of a Dwelling, the Developer may amend the Declaration (including all exhibits) and the By-Laws in any manner, without the consent of any Dwelling purchaser; and (2) at any time thereafter, the Developer may amend the Declaration (and when applicable, the Condominium Map) to file the "As Built" verified statement required by Section 514A-12 of the Act (i) so long as such statement is merely a verified statement of a registered architect or professional engineer certifying that the final plan thereto filed fully and accurately depicts layout, location, apartment numbers, and the dimensions of an improvement or change in a Dwelling as built; or (ii) so long as the plans filed therewith involve only immaterial changes to the layout, location, or dimensions of the apartments as built or any change in any apartment number.

(b) Developer retains the right to make any change in the Declaration prior to any conveyance of a Dwelling.

(c) The Declaration may also be amended in accordance with the provisions of Exhibit B.

PERMITTED ALTERATIONS TO APARTMENTS

Changes to Dwellings. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Declaration:

Each Dwelling Owner, with the consent of any holder of any mortgage affecting the Owner's Dwelling, shall have the right at his sole option at any time and from time to time without the consent of anyone other than the holders of all liens affecting his Dwelling, to improve, renovate, remodel, make additions to, enlarge, remove, replace or restore the improvements to or in his Dwelling or portions thereof or to make improvements upon the Dwelling Lot to which the Dwelling is appurtenant (collectively, the foregoing are referred to "changes") subject to the following conditions:

(ii) The value of the Dwelling after such changes shall not be less than the value before such changes.

(iii) Any change will be made within the Dwelling Lot to which the Dwelling is appurtenant, and no change will reduce the distance between improvements placed on each Dwelling to less than what it was originally as shown on the Condominium Map.

(iv) All such changes shall be at the expense of the Dwelling owner making the change and shall be expeditiously made and in a manner that will not unreasonably interfere with the other owners' use of his Dwelling Lot.

(v) During the entire course of such construction, the Dwelling owner making such change will cause to be maintained at his expense builder's all-risk insurance in an amount not less than the estimated cost of construction. The Association shall be named as an additional insured and evidence of such insurance shall be deposited with the Association or its Managing Agent, if any;

(vi) Prior to commencement of the construction of a change, and as a condition thereto, the Dwelling owner making such change shall give reasonable assurance to the Association of the owner's financial ability to complete and to pay for the change.

(vii) The owner of the changed Dwelling shall have the right to utilize, relocate and realign existing and/or to develop additional, central and appurtenant installations for services to the Dwelling affected by such change for electricity, sewer and other utilities and services and when applicable, to add, delete, relocate, realign, designate and grant easement and rights-of-way over, under and on the common elements as necessary or desirable in connection therewith; provided that the same shall not cause any interruption in the service of such utilities to any other part of the project;

(viii) The owner of any changed Dwelling shall have the right and duty without the consent or joinder of any other person to apply for a building permit and any other permit from Governmental Authorities and public utilities to effect any change and to amend this Declaration and the Condominium Map to reflect any such changes. If required by the Act, then promptly upon completion of such changes, the owner of the changed Dwelling shall duly record any amendment to this Declaration with the Bureau of Conveyances of the State of Hawaii, together with a complete set of the floor plans of the Project as so altered, certified as built by a registered architect or professional engineer. All existing Dwelling owners and all future Dwelling Owners and their mortgagees, by accepting an interest in a Dwelling, shall be deemed to have given each Dwelling owner a Power of Attorney to execute applications for a building or other permit as aforesaid and any amendment to the Declaration solely for the purpose of describing the changes to his respective Dwelling. Each Dwelling Owner shall hereafter have a Power of Attorney from all the other Dwelling owners to execute such amendment to the Declaration or to make applications as aforesaid. This Power of Attorney shall be deemed coupled with each Owner's interest in his Dwelling (including his common interest) and shall be irrevocable.

Because the Project was constructed several years earlier, the Seller is selling the improvements to premises in "as is" condition and the Seller is giving no warranties to Purchaser with respect to the construction, materials or workmanship of the Apartment of the Project. The Seller is transferring the appliances and the electrical and plumbing fixtures in normal working condition consistent with their age. The Seller will be disclaiming any warranties, either express or implied, including any implied warranties of habitability, merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, with respect to the project, the apartment or anything installed or contained therein. The apartment will be deemed to be sold "as is", and the Seller will not be liable to the Buyer for any construction or other defects, including any latent or hidden defects in the project, the apartment or anything installed or contained therein.
