GENERAL INFORMATION ON CONDOMINIUMS

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of Hawaii's "Condominium Property Act" (Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes) must be followed.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

Common elements are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called limited common elements and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged, or encumbered, and they may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owner/tenant) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements. The leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without a vote of the owners. Some of these actions may significantly impact the quality of life for all apartment owners.

Until there is a sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is vitally important to all apartment owners that the transition from developer to owner control be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

The Bylaws for this condominium are:

Proposed
 Recorded - Bureau of Conveyances - Book 22841 Page 668
 Filed - Land Court - Document Number _____

Amendment date(s) and recording/filing information:

The Condominium Statute (Chapter 514A, HRS), the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules control the rights and obligations of the apartment owners with respect to the common elements, to each other, and to their respective apartments. The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

- D. House Rules. The Board of Directors may adopt house rules to govern the use and operation of the common elements and individual apartments. House rules may cover matters such as parking regulations, hours of operation for common facilities such as recreation areas, use of lanais, keeping of pets, and occupancy limits. These rules must be followed by owners, tenants, and guests. They do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective. The initial house rules are usually adopted by the developer.

The House Rules for this condominium are:

- Proposed                       Adopted
- Developer does not plan to adopt house rules.

E. Changes to Condominium Documents

Changes to the Declaration, Condominium Map, and Bylaws are effective only if they are duly adopted and recorded and/or filed. Changes to House Rules do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective.

Developer has expressly reserved the right to successively amend the Declaration without the consent or joinder of persons then owning or leasing the apartments, (i) as may be necessary to redesignate any or all of the parking stalls as limited common elements appurtenant to certain apartments other than the apartment to which it is assigned as hereinbefore set forth, provided that no conveyance shall have previously been issued conveying such stall; or (ii) as may be required by law, the Real Estate Commission of the State of Hawaii, any title insurance company issuing a title insurance policy on the project, or any institutional lender lending funds on the security of the project or any of the apartments thereof; provided, however, that no such amendment (other than an amendment redesignating any or all of the parking stalls as limited common elements appurtenant to certain apartments) which would change the common interest appurtenant to an apartment or substantially change the design, location or size of an apartment shall be made without the consent to and joinder in such amendment by the owner of such apartment and all others, if any, having any interest therein.

Developer has expressly reserved the right to amend the By-Laws before the Association has been duly organized and before any apartment in the Project has been conveyed.

Limitations may include restrictions on extending, enlarging, or continuing the non-conformity, and restrictions on altering and repairing structures. In some cases, a non-conforming structure that is destroyed or damaged cannot be reconstructed.

The buyer may not be able to obtain financing or insurance if the condominium project has a non-conforming or illegal use, structure, or lot.

1. The Sales Contract identifies the apartment, the common interest, the Purchase Price, the method of payment, the initial maintenance fees.

2. The Sales Contract provides the following for sales not covered by Chapter 514A, Part VI, Hawaii Revised Statutes, relating to sales to owner-occupants:

a. If the Buyer wishes a mortgage loan on the Apartment for the payment of a portion of the purchase price, the Buyer shall, within five (5) working days after acceptance of the Sales Contract by Developer, apply to HonFed Savings Bank, a federal savings bank (the "Lender") for a loan and apply for eligibility and credit approval. Buyer must have the Lender inform Developer that application for loan has been made. After the application has been made, Buyer must, on request, promptly execute and deliver all documents and take all steps necessary to complete the loan. If Buyer does not make said loan application within said five (5) working day period, Buyer's deposit will be forfeited and the Sales Contract shall be cancelled.

b. Within five (5) working days after acceptance of the Sales Contract by Developer, Buyer shall apply to HonFed Savings Bank, a federal savings bank (the "Lender") for the loan and apply for eligibility and credit approval necessary for the loan. Buyer shall have the Lender inform Developer that application for the loan has been made. After the application has been made, Buyer will, on request, promptly execute and deliver all documents and take all steps necessary to complete the loan. If Buyer does not make the loan application within said five (5) working day period, Buyer shall forfeit Buyer's deposit and the Sales Contract shall be cancelled.

c. Within thirty (30) calendar days after acceptance of the Sales Contract by Developer, Buyer shall secure a preliminary approval from the Lender.

d. Within forty-five (45) calendar days after acceptance of the Sales Contract by Developer, Buyer shall secure an irrevocable loan commitment from the Lender.

e. Within ten (10) working days after the date of the irrevocable loan commitment, Buyer shall close the purchase of the Apartment.

f. If the application for such loan or eligibility and credit approval therefor is rejected by the Lender at any time, or not approved, or an irrevocable commitment is not issued by such Lender in a form satisfactory to Developer, within forty-five (45) calendar days after acceptance of this offer by Developer, Developer has the option to terminate the Sales Contract and cause Escrow Agent to refund to Buyer all monies previously paid without interest less the cost of any credit reports and all other costs including but not limited to escrow charges incurred by Developer. Developer shall give written notice of such termination, and a copy thereof shall be given to Escrow Agent.

3. The Sales Contract provides the following for sales covered by Chapter 514A, Part VI, Hawaii Revised Statutes, relating to sales to owner-occupants:

a. If the Buyer wishes a mortgage loan on the Apartment for the payment of a portion of the purchase price, Buyer shall apply to HonFed Savings Bank, a federal savings bank (the "Lender"), for such loan and for eligibility and credit approval necessary therefor. Buyer shall have the Lender inform Developer that application for loan has been made. After the application is made, Buyer will, upon the Lender's request, promptly execute and deliver all documents and take all steps necessary to complete such loan.

b. Developer agrees to cancel the Sales Contract and shall cause Escrow to refund to purchaser all moneys previously paid without interest less the cost of any credit reports and all other costs including but not limited to escrow charges incurred by Developer, upon the occurrence of the following events:

(1) Buyer shall not secure adequate financing, or a commitment for adequate financing by the later of (i) fifty-five (55) calendar days following the issuance of the first public report for the Project or forty-five (45) calendar days from the date of the Sales Contract; or

(2) Buyer desires to cancel the Sales Contract on account of hardship circumstances (such as serious illness of the Buyer or of a member of the Buyer's family, job or military transfer, unforeseeable change in marital status, or the birth of a child), occurring after Buyer's execution of the Sales Contract, causes the Buyer to be unable to occupy the Apartment; or

(3) Buyer indicates an intent not to become an owner-occupant of the Apartment.

Developer shall give written notice of such termination, and a copy thereof shall be given to Escrow Agent.

4. The Sales Contract provides that the Buyer has the right to cancel the Sales Contract at any time prior to the earlier of (1) the conveyance of the apartment to Buyer or (2) midnight of the thirtieth (30th) day following the date of execution of the Sales Contract unless Buyer waives Buyer's right to cancel in writing prior to such time. Should Buyer cancel the Sales Contract within such time, the amounts paid by Buyer will be returned to Buyer and all rights and liabilities of Buyer under the Sales Contract will cease and terminate. Upon expiration of the time upon which Buyer may cancel, the Sales Contract shall be binding upon Buyer.

5. The Sales Contract contains the following section:

ACCEPTANCE OF APARTMENT; BUILDING NOT NEW; NO WARRANTIES. Buyer acknowledges that the project was completed in 1968 and accepts said Apartment and the common elements in an "as is" condition. Buyer further acknowledges that Buyer has had an opportunity to inspect the Apartment and common elements and that the purchase price takes into consideration the fact that the buildings and fixtures are approximately 21 years old. SELLER MAKES NO WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, WITH RESPECT TO THE APARTMENT, COMMON ELEMENTS, APPLIANCES, FURNISHINGS OR OTHER PRODUCTS, OR ANYTHING INSTALLED IN OR UPON THE PREMISES OR USED IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROJECT IN ANY MANNER, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO, WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, HABITABILITY, WORKMANLIKE CONSTRUCTION OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE OF USE. The refrigerator, range and oven, microwave oven, disposal, washer, dryer and ceiling fan are new. Developer will assign to Buyer all manufacturer's warranties which are transferable.

TO BE IN COMPLIANCE WITH EPA REQUIREMENTS.

6. The Sales Contract provides that the Buyer shall pay, at the time of pre-closing, all closing fees and costs, including, but not limited to, the cost of preparing the Apartment Deed, all notary fees, the conveyance tax, recording fees, cost of credit report, cost of preparing note(s) and mortgage(s), if any, loan finance fees, the cost of a certificate of title, the cost of any title insurance required by the Lender, all of the escrow fee, and Buyer's share of maintenance fees payable to the Association of Apartment Owners (the "Association") including the first month's fee and start-up fee.

7. The Sales Contract provides that any interest payable on monies deposited with Escrow Agent shall belong to and be payable to Developer.

8. The Sales Contract provides that all of the Buyer's rights, title and interest in the Sales Contract are subject and subordinate to the lien of any mortgage or mortgages now or later made in acquiring the fee simple interest in the land and other associated costs of the Project and to all advances made thereon.
