GENERAL INFORMATION ON CONDOMINIUMS

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of Hawaii's "Condominium Property Act" (Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes) must be followed.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

Common elements are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called limited common elements and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged, or encumbered, and they may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owner/tenant) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements. The leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without a vote of the owners. Some of these actions may significantly impact the quality of life for all apartment owners.

Until there is a sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is vitally important to all apartment owners that the transition from developer to owner control be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

- D. House Rules. The Board of Directors may adopt house rules to govern the use and operation of the common elements and individual apartments. House rules may cover matters such as parking regulations, hours of operation for common facilities such as recreation areas, use of lanais, keeping of pets, and occupancy limits. These rules must be followed by owners, tenants, and guests. They do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective. The initial house rules are usually adopted by the developer.

9. Present Condition of Improvements

(For conversions of residential apartments in existence for at least five years):

a. Condition and Expected Useful Life of Structural Components, Mechanical, and Electrical Installations

Based on a report prepared by an independent professional engineer, it is the Developer's opinion that all structural components and mechanical and electrical installations material to the use and enjoyment of the individual condominium units appear to be sound and in satisfactory working condition. However, no representations of any kind are made as to the expected useful life, if any, of the structural components and mechanical and electrical installations material to the use and enjoyment of the condominium unit(s). See Exhibit "G" attached hereto.

b. Compliance With Building Code and Municipal Regulations; Cost to Cure Violations

The Project is a conversion of fully constructed and existing buildings to condominium status. Said buildings are in compliance with all ordinances, codes, rules, regulations or other requirements in force at the time of their construction. No variance has been granted from any ordinance, code, rule, regulation or other requirement in force at the time of their construction or from any other ordinance, code, rule, regulation or other requirement.

10. Conformance to Present Zoning Code

a.  No variances to zoning code have been granted.

Variance(s) to zoning code was/were granted as follows:

b. Conforming/Non-Conforming Uses, Structures, Lot

In general, a non-conforming use, structure, or lot is a use, structure, or lot which was lawful at one time but which does not now conform to present zoning requirements.

	Conforming	Non-Conforming	Illegal
Uses	  x  	          	          
Structures	  x  	          	          
Lot	  x  	          	          

If a variance has been granted or if uses, improvements or lot are either non-conforming or illegal, buyer should consult with county zoning authorities as to possible limitations which may apply.

Limitations may include restrictions on extending, enlarging, or continuing the non-conformity, and restrictions on altering and repairing structures. In some cases, a non-conforming structure that is destroyed or damaged cannot be reconstructed.

The buyer may not be able to obtain financing or insurance if the condominium project has a non-conforming or illegal use, structure, or lot.

D. Common Elements, Limited Common Elements, Common Interest:

1. Common Elements: Common Elements are those parts of the condominium project intended to be used by all apartment owners. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners.

Exhibit     B     describes the common elements.

As follows:

2. Limited Common Elements: Limited Common Elements are those common elements which are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments.

There are no limited common elements in this project.

The limited common elements and the apartments which may use them are:

described in Exhibit     C    

as follows:

3. Common Interest: Each apartment will have an undivided fractional interest in all of the common elements. This interest is called the "common interest." It is often used to determine each apartment's share of the maintenance fees and other common profits and expenses of the condominium. It may also be used for other purposes, including voting on matters requiring action by apartment owners.

Exhibit                      describes the common interests for each apartment.

As follows: Each unit and its owner(s) shall have appurtenant thereto a one-half (1/2) fractional interest (50.0 percentage interest) in the common elements of the Project, for all purposes including voting, said interest being referred to as the "common interest".

Exhibit D describes the encumbrances against the title contained in the title report dated June 18, 1990 and issued by Title Guaranty of Hawaii.

Blanket Liens:

A blanket lien is a mortgage on a condominium project that secures a construction loan. It is usually released on an apartment-by-apartment basis upon payment of specified sums so that individual apartments can be conveyed to buyers free and clear of the lien.

There are no blanket liens affecting title to the individual apartments.

There are blanket liens which may affect title to the individual apartments.

Blanket liens (except for improvement district or utility assessments) must be released before the developer conveys the apartment to a buyer. Buyer's interest will be affected only if the developer defaults prior to conveying the apartment to buyer.

Type of Lien	Effect on Buyer's Interest If Developer Defaults
Mortgage	Buyer's deposit will be returned if default and foreclosure occur before conveyance. The Buyer's contract may be cancelled and the Buyer may lose all rights to acquire the unit. Title to individual units will be free and clear at the time of conveyance to Buyer.

F. Management of the Common Elements: The Association of Apartment Owners is responsible for the management of the common elements and the overall operation of the condominium project. The Association may be permitted, and in some cases may be required, to employ or retain a managing agent to assist the Association in managing the condominium project.

Initial Managing Agent: When the developer or the developer's affiliate is the initial managing agent, the management contract must have a term of one year or less and the parties must be able to terminate the contract on notice of 60 days or less.

The initial managing agent for this condominium is:

not affiliated with the Developer.

the Developer or the Developer's affiliate.

self-managed by the Association of Apartment Owners.

other _____

G. Estimate of Initial Maintenance Fees:

The Association will make assessments against your apartment to provide funds for the operation and maintenance of the condominium project. If you are delinquent in paying the assessments, your apartment may be liened and sold through a foreclosure proceeding.

Initial maintenance fees are difficult to estimate and tend to increase as the condominium ages. Maintenance fees may vary depending on the services provided to each apartment.

Exhibit     G     contains a schedule of maintenance fees and maintenance fee disbursements.

H. Utility Charges for Apartments:

Each apartment will be billed separately for utilities except for the following checked utilities which are included in the maintenance fees:

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Electricity               | <input type="checkbox"/> Television Cable |

| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Not applicable |   |

I. Construction Warranties:

Warranties for individual apartments and the common elements, including the beginning and ending dates for each warranty, are as follows:

1. Building and Other Improvements:     NONE

2. Appliances:     NONE

IV. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION NOT COVERED ABOVE

NONE

Buyer's Right to Cancel Sales Contract:

A. Rights Under the Condominium Statute:

Preliminary Report: Sales made by the Developer are not binding. A prospective buyer who cancels the sales contract is entitled to a refund of all moneys paid, less any escrow cancellation fee up to $250.00.

AND
  - b. Any other public report issued by the Commission prior to the date of delivery, if the report was not previously delivered to the buyer and if the report has not been superseded;
2. The buyer is given an opportunity to read the report(s); and
3. One of the following has occurred:

SUMMARY OF SALES CONTRACT AND ESCROW ARRANGEMENTS

SALES CONTRACT: Developer is using the standard Hawaii Board of Realtors' Deposit Receipt, Offer and Acceptance (DROA) form as the intended sales contract for the Project. Reference is hereby made thereto.

ESCROW ARRANGEMENTS: The Escrow Agreement, dated June 1, 1990, identifies Title Guaranty Escrow Services, Inc. as Escrow for the Project. The Escrow Agreement establishes how proceeds from the sale of condominium units and all sums received from any source are placed in escrow, as well as the methods of disbursement of said funds. The Escrow Agreement provides that a Purchaser shall be entitled to a refund of his funds, and Escrow shall pay said funds to Purchaser, without interest and less cancellation fee and costs, if Purchaser shall in writing request refund of his funds and Escrow receives a written request from Developer to return to Purchaser the funds of such Purchaser. Said cancellation fee shall be in the minimum of $25.00, but in no event shall exceed the agreed-upon escrow fee provided for in said Escrow Agreement, the exact amount to be commensurate with the amount of work completed at the time of cancellation.

Dear Mr. Meeker:

Subject: Condominium Conversion Project
1281/1283 Hooli Circle
Tax Map Key: 9-7-73: 56

This is in response to your letter dated March 3, 1989 requesting confirmation that the one-story two-family detached dwelling located at 1281/1283 Hooli Circle met the code requirements when it was constructed.

Investigation revealed that the dwelling with two off-street parking spaces met the code requirements when it was constructed in 1968.

No variances or special permits were granted to allow deviations from any codes.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact Mr. Ivan Matsumoto at telephone 527-6341.

Very truly yours,

DISCLOSURE ABSTRACT

1281/1283 Hooli Circle
Condominium Project

Pursuant to Section 514A-61, Hawaii Revised Statutes
Condominium Property Act

Developer

Donald S. Robertson

Project Manager

Project is self-managed

Estimated Maintenance Fee Assessments and Disbursements

MAINTENANCE FEES: Since there are no common elements requiring regular maintenance or repair, Developers anticipate that it will not be necessary to assess monthly maintenance fees. The regular maintenance and repair of each condominium unit, including all utility charges, is the sole responsibility of each respective unit owner. Major repairs of or improvements to the common elements shall be paid for by special assessment.

INDIVIDUAL INSURANCE: Section 514A-86, Hawaii Revised Statutes, requires that fire insurance be purchased to cover the improvements portion of the Project. Developer anticipates that the Association will elect to obtain separate policies for each individual condominium unit pursuant to Section XIV(c) of the Declaration. As such, the premiums on said policies will be the individual responsibility of each unit owner rather than common expenses of the Project.

Use of Condominium Units

Both units comprising the Project and for residential purposes only. There is no non-residential development in the Project.

Structural Components and Mechanical & Electrical Installations

Based on a report prepared by an independent registered professional engineer, it is the Developer's opinion that all structural components and mechanical and electrical installations material to the use and enjoyment of the individual condominium units appear to be sound and in satisfactory working condition. However, NO REPRESENTATIONS OF ANY KIND ARE MADE AS TO THE EXPECTED USEFUL LIFE, IF ANY, OF THE STRUCTURAL COMPONENTS AND MECHANICAL AND ELECTRICAL INSTALLATIONS MATERIAL TO THE USE AND ENJOYMENT OF THE CONDOMINIUM UNIT(S).

Exhibit "G"

Warranties

Purchasers should be aware that the "condominium units" of the Project are contained in an existing duplex structure constructed in 1968. Said dwelling units have unavoidably undergone a certain amount of "wear and tear" commensurate with their age. Accordingly, purchasers should not expect the home they desire to buy to be in "like-new" condition. NO WARRANTIES FOR FITNESS OF USE OR MERCHANTABILITY OR ANY OTHER KIND ARE MADE AS TO THE INDIVIDUAL CONDOMINIUM UNITS OR THE COMMON ELEMENTS OF THE PROJECT. PURCHASERS ARE ADVISED TO CONDUCT THEIR OWN INSPECTION OF THE UNIT THEY DESIRE TO BUY. THE UNITS ARE SOLD "AS IS".

Code Violations

To the best of the knowledge, information and belief of the undersigned, there are no outstanding notices of uncured violations of the building code or other municipal regulations of the City and County of Honolulu.
