General Information On Condominiums

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of the Condominium Property Act, Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, must be complied with. In addition, certain requirements and approvals of the County in which the project is located must be satisfied and obtained.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owners/tenants) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements at the lessee's expense. Leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

"Common elements" are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called "limited common elements" and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged or encumbered, and may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the project's Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without the vote of the owners. For example, the board may hire and fire employees, increase or decrease maintenance fees, borrow money for repair and improvements and set a budget. Some of these actions may significantly impact the apartment owners.

Until there is a sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is important to all apartment owners that the transition of control from the developer to the apartment owners be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

II. CREATION OF THE CONDOMINIUM;
CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS

A condominium is created by recording in the Bureau of Conveyances and/or filing with the Land Court a Declaration of Condominium Property Regime, a Condominium Map (File Plan), and the Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners. The Condominium Property Act (Chapter 514A, HRS), the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules control the rights and obligations of the apartment owners with respect to the project and the common elements, to each other, and to their respective apartments. The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

- A. Declaration of Condominium Property Regime contains a description of the land, buildings, apartments, common elements, limited common elements, common interests, and other information relating to the condominium project.

The Declaration for this condominium is:

The Bylaws for this condominium are:

- Proposed

Book _____ Page _____
 Filed - Land Court: Document No. _____

The Bylaws referred to above have been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

House Rules may cover matters such as parking regulations, hours of operation for common facilities such as recreation areas, use of lanais and requirements for keeping pets. These rules must be followed by owners, tenants, and guests. They do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective. The initial House Rules are usually adopted by the developer.

The House Rules for this condominium are:

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON LEASEHOLD CONDOMINIUM PROJECTS

The information contained in this report is a summary of the terms of the lease. For more detailed information, you should secure a copy of the lease documents and read them thoroughly.

There are currently no statutory provisions for the mandatory conversion of leasehold condominiums and there are no assurances that such measures will be enacted in the future.

In leasehold condominium projects, the buyer of an apartment will acquire the right to occupy and use the apartment for the time stated in the lease agreement. The buyer will not acquire outright or absolute fee simple ownership of the land. The land is owned by the lessor or the leased fee owner. The apartment owner or lessee must make lease rent payments and comply with the terms of the lease or be subject to the lessor's enforcement actions. The lease rent payments are usually fixed at specific amounts for fixed periods of time, and are then subject to renegotiation. Renegotiation may be based on a formula, by arbitration set in the lease agreement, by law or by agreement between the lessor and lessee. The renegotiated lease rents may increase significantly. At the end of the lease, the apartment owners may have to surrender the apartments, the improvements and the land back to the lessor without any compensation (surrender clause).

When leasehold property is sold, title is normally conveyed by means of an assignment of lease, the purpose of which is similar to that of a deed. The legal and practical effect is different because the assignment conveys only the rights and obligations created by the lease, not the property itself.

The developer of this condominium project may have entered into a master ground lease with the fee simple owner of the land in order to develop the project. The developer may have then entered into a sublease or a new lease of the land with the lessee (apartment owner). The developer may lease the improvements to the apartment owner by way of an apartment lease or sublease, or sell the improvements to the apartment owners by way of a condominium conveyance or apartment deed.

	Conforming	Non-Conforming	Illegal
Uses	X	 	 	*The County of Maui has deemed Unit 101 to be an "existing non-conformity" because no building permit records exist to establish conformity.

Lot	X

If a variance has been granted or if uses, improvements or lot are either non-conforming or illegal, buyer should consult with county zoning authorities as to possible limitations which may apply.

Limitations may include restrictions on extending, enlarging, or continuing the non-conformity, and restrictions on altering and repairing structures. In some cases, a non-conforming structure that is destroyed or damaged cannot be reconstructed.

The buyer may not be able to obtain financing or insurance if the condominium project has a non-conforming or illegal use, structure, or lot.

D. Common Elements, Limited Common Elements, Common Interest:

1. Common Elements: Common Elements are those parts of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. Although the common elements are owned jointly by all apartment owners, those portions of the common elements which are designated as limited common elements (see paragraph 2 below) may be used only by those apartments to which they are assigned. The common elements for this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit _____.

The limited common elements and the apartments which use them, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit _____.

(b) Mailbox assigned to that particular apartment.

3. Common Interest: Each apartment will have an undivided fractional interest in all of the common elements. This interest is called the "common interest." It is used to determine each apartment's share of the maintenance fees and other common profits and expenses of the condominium project. It may also be used for other purposes, including voting on matters requiring action by apartment owners. The common interests for the apartments in this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit _____.

as follows:

Apartment type 'A'	= 17.75%	X 4	= 71.00%
Apartment type 'B'	= 11.25%	X 1	= 11.25%

			100.00%

Exhibit "9" describes the encumbrances against the title contained in the title report dated June 25, 1993 and issued by Title Guaranty of Hawaii, Inc.

Blanket Liens:

A blanket lien is an encumbrance (such as a mortgage) on the entire condominium project that secures some type of monetary debt (such as a loan) or other obligation. A blanket lien is usually released on an apartment-by-apartment basis upon payment of specified sums so that individual apartments can be conveyed to buyers free and clear of the lien.

[X] There are no blanket liens affecting title to the individual apartments.

[] There are blanket liens which may affect title to the individual apartments.

Blanket liens (except for improvement district or utility assessments) must be released before the developer conveys the apartment to a buyer. The buyer's interest will be affected if the developer defaults and the lien is foreclosed prior to conveying the apartment to buyer.

Type of Lien	Effect on Buyer's Interest and Deposit if Developer Defaults or Lien is Foreclosed Prior to Conveyance

2. DEVELOPER: WARREN I. McCORD
R.R. 2, Box 288
Kula, Hawaii 96790
3. MANAGING AGENT: OIHANA PROPERTY MANAGEMENT
& SALES, INC.
840 Alua St., Ste. 202
Wailuku, Hawaii 96793
4. USE OF APARTMENTS: Residential

The six (6) apartments in the Project may be occupied and used only for residential purposes. No apartment may be used for commercial purposes. The apartments are subject to additional restrictions on their use as set forth in (i) the Declaration of Condominium Property Regime of 58 Mohala (ii) the By-Laws of the Association of Apartment Owners of 58 Mohala, (iii) the Apartment Deed for the individual apartments, (iv) the Reservation, Deposit Receipt and Sales Contract for the individual apartments, and (v) the House Rules. Copies of the foregoing documents are on file with the Real Estate Commission of the State of Hawaii.

5. WARRANTIES:

THE DEVELOPER MAKES NO WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, WITH RESPECT TO THE APARTMENT, COMMON ELEMENTS, APPLIANCES, FURNISHINGS OR OTHER PRODUCTS, OR ANYTHING INSTALLED IN OR UPON THE PREMISES OR USED IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROJECT IN ANY MANNER, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO, WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, HABITABILITY, WORKMANLIKE CONSTRUCTION OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR USE.

As set forth in the Reservation, Deposit Receipt and Sales Contract, the Developer shall require from the general contractor for the project a written warranty with respect to any defects in the Buyer's apartment and the common elements due to faulty materials and/or workmanship which are discovered and reported within one (1) year from the "Date of Substantial Completion" as defined in the construction contract. The Developer makes no warranties itself; however, the execution, delivery and recordation of the Buyer's Apartment Deed shall constitute the assignment by the Developer to the Buyer of any and all warranties given the Developer by the general contractor for the project, and by any subcontractors or materialmen, and the benefit of such warranties shall accrue to the Buyer on closing without further instruments or documents. The Developer agrees to cooperate with the Buyer during the effective period of any such warranties in asserting any claims based on such warranties. The Buyer shall also have the direct benefit of any manufacturer's or dealer's warranties covering the appliances in the apartment. The Developer does not adopt the contractor's or manufacturer's warranties, if any, and the Developer is not acting as co-warrantor, but is merely attempting to pass to the Buyer the benefit of such warranties, if any, and the Buyer expressly acknowledges and agrees to this. The Buyer acknowledges that the Developer has made no other warranties, express or implied, with respect to the property or any common element or anything installed therein.

6. ESTIMATED MAINTENANCE FEES:

See attached pages 4 and 5 of this exhibit.

The breakdown of estimated initial maintenance fees and maintenance fee disbursements for 58 Mohala has been prepared for the Developer by Oihana Property Management & Sales, Inc. as of April 28, 1993, and is subject to revision based on actual cost for the items enumerated. The Developer can make no assurances regarding the estimated maintenance fees and maintenance fee disbursements. Variables such as inflation, uninsured casualty loss or damages, increased or decreased services from those contemplated by the Developer, apartment owner delinquencies and other factors may cause the actual maintenance fees to be greater or lesser than the estimated maintenance fees.

NOTE: THE DEVELOPER ADVISES THAT COSTS AND EXPENSES OF MAINTENANCE AND OPERATION OF A CONDOMINIUM PROJECT ARE DIFFICULT TO ESTIMATE INITIALLY AND EVEN IF THE MAINTENANCE FEES ARE ACCURATELY ESTIMATED, SUCH FEES WILL TEND TO INCREASE IN AN INFLATIONARY ECONOMY AND AS THE IMPROVEMENTS AGE. MAINTENANCE FEES CAN VARY DEPENDING ON SERVICES DESIRED BY APARTMENT OWNERS. THE BUYERS SHOULD CHECK THE ATTACHED MAINTENANCE FEE SCHEDULE TO SEE WHAT SERVICES ARE INCLUDED THEREIN. THE INITIAL ESTIMATES HAVE BEEN MADE WELL IN ADVANCE OF THE COMPLETION OF THE PROJECT AND MAY BE SUBJECT TO SUBSTANTIAL REVISION PRIOR TO OR UPON COMPLETION.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed these presents the day and year first above written.
