Prepared & Issued by: Developer Barbara Fumie Yamaguchi, as Trustee, Lori Kyoko Yamaguchi Nakano, Keith Y. Yamaguchi, as Trustee, and Lisa H. Yamaguchi, as Trustee
Address 2364 Pio Place, Honolulu, Hawaii 96819

Project Name(*): 2364 PIO PLACE
Address: 2364 Pio Place, Honolulu, Hawaii 96819

Registration No. 3186 (Partial Conversion) Effective date: January 3, 1995
Expiration date: February 3, 1996

Preparation of this Report:

This report has been prepared by the Developer pursuant to the Condominium Property Act, Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, as amended. This report is not valid unless the Hawaii Real Estate Commission has issued a registration number and effective date for the report.

This report has not been prepared or issued by the Real Estate Commission or any other government agency. Neither the Commission nor any other government agency has judged or approved the merits or value, if any, of the project or of purchasing an apartment in the project.

Buyers are encouraged to read this report carefully, and to seek professional advice before signing a sales contract for the purchase of an apartment in the project.

Expiration Date of Reports. Preliminary Public Reports and Final Public Reports automatically expire thirteen (13) months from the effective date unless a Supplementary Public Report is issued or unless the Commission issues an order, a copy of which is attached to this report, extending the effective date for the report.

Exception: The Real Estate Commission may issue an order, a copy of which shall be attached to this report, that the final public report for a two apartment condominium project shall have no expiration date.

Type of Report:

PRELIMINARY: The developer may not as yet have created the condominium but has filed with the Real Estate Commission minimal information sufficient for a Preliminary Public Report. A Final Public Report will be issued by the developer when complete information is filed. (yellow)

X FINAL: The developer has legally created a condominium and has filed complete information with the Commission. (white)

Required and attached to this report       Not Required - disclosures covered in this report.

Summary of Changes from Earlier Public Reports:

This summary contains a general description of the changes, if any, made by the developer since the last public report was issued. It is not necessarily all inclusive. Prospective buyers should compare this public report with the earlier reports if they wish to know the specific changes that have been made.

No prior reports have been issued by the developer.

Changes made are as follows:

SPECIAL ATTENTION

This is CONDOMINIUM PROJECT, not a subdivision. The land area beneath and immediately appurtenant to each unit is designated a LIMITED COMMON ELEMENT and is not a legally subdivided lot. The dotted lines on the Condominium Map bounding the designated number of square feet in each limited common element land area are for illustrative purposes only and should not be construed to be the property lines of legally subdivided lots.

This public report does not constitute approval of the Project by the Real Estate Commission, or any other governmental agency, nor does it ensure that all applicable County codes, ordinances, and subdivision requirements have necessarily been complied with.

THE PROSPECTIVE PURCHASER IS CAUTIONED TO CAREFULLY REVIEW THE CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS REFERENCED IN THIS PUBLIC REPORT FOR FURTHER INFORMATION WITH REGARD TO THE FOREGOING.

General Information On Condominiums

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of the Condominium Property Act, Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, must be complied with. In addition, certain requirements and approvals of the County in which the project is located must be satisfied and obtained.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owners/tenants) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements at the lessee's expense. Leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

"Common elements" are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called "limited common elements" and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged or encumbered, and may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the project's Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without the vote of the owners. For example, the board may hire and fire employees, increase or decrease maintenance fees, borrow money for repair and improvements and set a budget. Some of these actions may significantly impact the apartment owners.

Until there is a sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is important to all apartment owners that the transition of control from the developer to the apartment owners be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

II. CREATION OF THE CONDOMINIUM; CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS

A condominium is created by recording in the Bureau of Conveyances and/or filing with the Land Court a Declaration of Condominium Property Regime, a Condominium Map (File Plan), and the Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners. The Condominium Property Act (Chapter 514A, HRS), the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules control the rights and obligations of the apartment owners with respect to the project and the common elements, to each other, and to their respective apartments. The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

- A. Declaration of Condominium Property Regime contains a description of the land, buildings, apartments, common elements, limited common elements, common interests, and other information relating to the condominium project.

The Declaration for this condominium is:

- Proposed
 Recorded - Bureau of Conveyances: Document No. 94-144955
Book _____ Page _____
 Filed - Land Court: Document No. 2176775

The Declaration referred to above has been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]: Amended Declaration of Condominium Property Regime dated October 7, 1994, recorded as Document No. 94-170016

- B. Condominium Map (File Plan) shows the floor plan, elevation and layout of the condominium project. It also shows the floor plan, location, apartment number, and dimensions of each apartment.

The Condominium Map for this condominium project is:

- Proposed
 Recorded - Bureau of Conveyances Condo Map No. 2093
 Filed - Land Court Condo Map No. 1044

The Condominium Map has been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]: Amended Declaration of Condominium Property Regime dated October 7, 1994, recorded as Document No. 94-170016

- C. Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners govern the operation of the condominium project. They provide for the manner in which the Board of Directors of the Association of Apartment Owners is elected, the powers and duties of the Board, the manner in which meetings will be conducted, whether pets are prohibited or allowed and other matters which affect how the condominium project will be governed.

The Bylaws for this condominium are:

- Proposed
 Recorded - Bureau of Conveyances: Document No. 94-144956
Book _____ Page _____
 Filed - Land Court: Document No. 2176776

The Bylaws referred to above have been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

D. House Rules. The Board of Directors may adopt House Rules to govern the use and operation of the common elements and limited common elements. House Rules may cover matters such as parking regulations, hours of operation for common facilities such as recreation areas, use of lanais and requirements for keeping pets. These rules must be followed by owners, tenants, and guests. They do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective. The initial House Rules are usually adopted by the developer.

The House Rules for this condominium are:

Proposed                       Adopted                       Developer does not plan to adopt House Rules

E. Changes to Condominium Documents

Changes to the Declaration, Condominium Map, and Bylaws are effective only if they are duly adopted and recorded and/or filed. Changes to House Rules do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective.

1. Apartment Owners: Minimum percentage of common interest which must vote for or give written consent to changes:

	Minimum Set by Law	This Condominium
Declaration (and Condo Map)	75%*	75%
Bylaws	65%	65%
House Rules	---	65%

* The percentages for individual condominium projects may be more than the minimum set by law for projects with five or fewer apartments.

2. Developer:

No rights have been reserved by the developer to change the Declaration, Condominium Map, Bylaws or House Rules.

Developer has reserved the following rights to change the Declaration, Condominium Map, Bylaws or House Rules:

To grant, adjust easements; to file "as built" amendment; change parking stalls; to comply with governmental and mortgagee requirements.

III. THE CONDOMINIUM PROJECT

A. Interest to be Conveyed to Buyer:

- Fee Simple: Individual apartments and the common elements, which include the underlying land, will be in fee simple.
- Leasehold or Subleasehold: Individual apartments and the common elements, which include the underlying land will be leasehold.

Leases for the individual apartments and the underlying land usually require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee (apartment owner/tenant) deliver to the lessor (fee property owner) possession of the leased premises and all improvements, including improvements paid for by the lessee.

Exhibit _____ contains further explanations regarding the manner in which the renegotiated lease rents will be calculated and a description of the surrender clause provision(s).

Lease Rent Payable:             Monthly                             Quarterly
    Semi-Annually                     Annually

Exhibit _____ contains a schedule of the lease rent for each apartment per  Month     Year

For Subleaseholds:

Buyer's sublease may be canceled if the master lease between the sublessor and fee owner is:
                                  Canceled             Foreclosed

As long as the buyer is not in default, the buyer may continue to occupy the apartment and/or land on the same terms contained in the sublease even if the master lease is canceled or foreclosed.

Individual Apartments in Fee Simple; Common Interest in the Underlying Land in Leasehold or Subleasehold:

Leases for the underlying land usually require that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owners/tenants) deliver to the lessor (fee property owner) their interest in the land and that they either (1) remove or dispose of the building(s) and other improvements at the lessee's expense; or (2) convey the building(s) and improvements to the lessor, often at a specified price.

Exhibit _____ contains further explanations regarding the manner in which the renegotiated lease rents will be calculated and a description of the surrender clause provision(s).

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON LEASEHOLD CONDOMINIUM PROJECTS

The information contained in this report is a summary of the terms of the lease. For more detailed information, you should secure a copy of the lease documents and read them thoroughly.

If you have any legal questions about leasehold property, the lease documents or the terms of the lease and the consequences of becoming a lessee, you should seek the advice of an attorney.

There are currently no statutory provisions for the mandatory conversion of leasehold condominiums and there are no assurances that such measures will be enacted in the future.

In leasehold condominium projects, the buyer of an apartment will acquire the right to occupy and use the apartment for the time stated in the lease agreement. The buyer will not acquire outright or absolute fee simple ownership of the land. The land is owned by the lessor or the leased fee owner. The apartment owner or lessee must make lease rent payments and comply with the terms of the lease or be subject to the lessor's enforcement actions. The lease rent payments are usually fixed at specific amounts for fixed periods of time, and are then subject to renegotiation. Renegotiation may be based on a formula, by arbitration set in the lease agreement, by law or by agreement between the lessor and lessee. The renegotiated lease rents may increase significantly. At the end of the lease, the apartment owners may have to surrender the apartments, the improvements and the land back to the lessor without any compensation (surrender clause).

When leasehold property is sold, title is normally conveyed by means of an assignment of lease, the purpose of which is similar to that of a deed. The legal and practical effect is different because the assignment conveys only the rights and obligations created by the lease, not the property itself.

The developer of this condominium project may have entered into a master ground lease with the fee simple owner of the land in order to develop the project. The developer may have then entered into a sublease or a new lease of the land with the lessee (apartment owner). The developer may lease the improvements to the apartment owner by way of an apartment lease or sublease, or sell the improvements to the apartment owners by way of a condominium conveyance or apartment deed.

Each unit is a detached unit; therefore, the boundaries of each unit are the exterior walls of each unit.

Permitted Alterations to Apartments:

Alterations of an apartment may be made with the approval of the Board of Directors and the written consent of the holders of all liens affecting the apartment.

11. Conformance to Present Zoning Code

a.  No variances to zoning code have been granted.

Variance(s) to zoning code was/were granted as follows:

b. Conforming/Non-Conforming Uses, Structures, Lot

In general, a non-conforming use, structure, or lot is a use, structure, or lot which was lawful at one time but which does not now conform to present zoning requirements.

	Conforming	Non-Conforming	Illegal
Uses	    X    	          	          
Structures	    X    	          	          
Lot	    X    	          	          

If a variance has been granted or if uses, improvements or lot are either non-conforming or illegal, buyer should consult with county zoning authorities as to possible limitations which may apply.

Limitations may include restrictions on extending, enlarging, or continuing the non-conformity, and restrictions on altering and repairing structures. In some cases, a non-conforming structure that is destroyed or damaged cannot be reconstructed.

The buyer may not be able to obtain financing or insurance if the condominium project has a non-conforming or illegal use, structure, or lot.

D. Common Elements, Limited Common Elements, Common Interest:

1. Common Elements: Common Elements are those parts of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. Although the common elements are owned jointly by all apartment owners, those portions of the common elements which are designated as limited common elements (see paragraph 2 below) may be used only by those apartments to which they are assigned. The common elements for this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit "A".

as follows:

2. Limited Common Elements: Limited Common Elements are those common elements which are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments.

There are no limited common elements in this project.

The limited common elements and the apartments which use them, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit _____.

as follows:

Each unit will have, as a limited common element, the ground upon which it is located and a portion of the surrounding yard space as follows:

Unit 1	1,273	square feet
Unit 2	2,398	" "

Note: Land areas referenced herein are not legally subdivided lots.

3. Common Interest: Each apartment will have an undivided fractional interest in all of the common elements. This interest is called the "common interest." It is used to determine each apartment's share of the maintenance fees and other common profits and expenses of the condominium project. It may also be used for other purposes, including voting on matters requiring action by apartment owners. The common interests for the apartments in this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit _____.

as follows:

Unit 1	50%
Unit 2	50%
Total	100%

E. Encumbrances Against Title: An encumbrance is a claim against or a liability on the property or a document affecting the title or use of the property. Encumbrances may have an adverse effect on the property or your purchase and ownership of an apartment in the project.

Exhibit "B" describes the encumbrances against the title contained in the title report dated July 7, 1994 and issued by First American Title Insurance Company.

Blanket Liens:

A blanket lien is an encumbrance (such as a mortgage) on the entire condominium project that secures some type of monetary debt (such as a loan) or other obligation. A blanket lien is usually released on an apartment-by-apartment basis upon payment of specified sums so that individual apartments can be conveyed to buyers free and clear of the lien.

[X ] There are no blanket liens affecting title to the individual apartments.

[ ] There are blanket liens which may affect title to the individual apartments.

Blanket liens (except for improvement district or utility assessments) must be released before the developer conveys the apartment to a buyer. The buyer's interest will be affected if the developer defaults and the lien is foreclosed prior to conveying the apartment to buyer.

Type of Lien	Effect on Buyer's Interest and Deposit if Developer Defaults or Lien is Foreclosed Prior to Conveyance
Future mortgage lien	Upon issuance of Final Public Report, Unit 2 will be conveyed to Owner/Developer Lori Nakano, who will place a construction loan mortgage on Unit 2. If the construction loan is foreclosed prior to a reconveyance of the unit, Buyer's deposit may be refunded and sales contract between Seller and Buyer will be canceled. The lienholder may terminate Buyer's interest. However, should the Buyer's deposit be used to pay for construction on the condominium property prior to a foreclosure of the mortgage and prior to conveyance, the Buyer may not be able to recover the deposit moneys.

F. Construction Warranties:

Warranties for individual apartments and the common elements, including the beginning and ending dates for each warranty, are as follows:

1. Building and Other Improvements:

Unit 2 will have a one-year contractor's warranty from date of completion.

2. Appliances:

Unit 1's appliances have no warranties;
Unit 2 will be unfurnished.

G. Status of Construction and Estimated Completion Date:

Unit 1 was constructed in 1965; Unit 2 is under construction, and estimated date of completion is April 30, 1995

H. Project Phases:

The developer [ ] has [X] has not reserved the right to add to, merge, or phase this condominium.

Summary of Developer's plans or right to perform for future development (such as additions, mergers or phasing):

IV. CONDOMINIUM MANAGEMENT

A. Management of the Common Elements: The Association of Apartment Owners is responsible for the management of the common elements and the overall operation of the condominium project. The Association may be permitted, and in some cases may be required, to employ or retain a condominium managing agent to assist the Association in managing the condominium project.

Initial Condominium Managing Agent: When the developer or the developer's affiliate is the initial condominium managing agent, the management contract must have a term of one year or less and the parties must be able to terminate the contract on notice of 60 days or less.

The initial condominium managing agent for this project, named on page five (5) of this report, is:

- not affiliated with the Developer  the Developer or the Developer's affiliate.
 self-managed by the Association of Apartment Owners  other _____

B. Estimate of Initial Maintenance Fees:

The Association will make assessments against your apartment to provide funds for the operation and maintenance of the condominium project. If you are delinquent in paying the assessments, your apartment may be liened and sold through a foreclosure proceeding.

Initial maintenance fees are difficult to estimate and tend to increase as the condominium ages. Maintenance fees may vary depending on the services provided.

Exhibit "C" contains a schedule of estimated initial maintenance fees and maintenance fee disbursements (subject to change).

C. Utility Charges for Apartments:

Each apartment will be billed separately for utilities except for the following checked utilities which are included in the maintenance fees:

- None  Electricity  Gas  Water
 Sewer  Television Cable  Other _____

V. MISCELLANEOUS

A. Sales Documents Filed With the Real Estate Commission:

Sales documents on file with the Real Estate Commission include but are not limited to:

- Notice to Owner Occupants
- Specimen Sales Contract
Exhibit "E" contains a summary of the pertinent provisions of the sales contract.
- Escrow Agreement dated June 21, 1994
Exhibit "D" contains a summary of the pertinent provisions of the escrow agreement.
- Other _____

B. Buyer's Right to Cancel Sales Contract:

1. Rights Under the Condominium Property Act (Chapter 514A, HRS):

Preliminary Report: Sales made by the developer are not binding on the prospective buyer. Sales made by the developer may be binding on the developer unless the developer clearly states in the sales contract that sales are not binding. A prospective buyer who cancels the sales contract is entitled to a refund of all moneys paid, less any escrow cancellation fee up to $250.00.

Supplementary Report to a Preliminary Report: Same as for Preliminary Report.

Final Report or Supplementary Report to a Final Report: Sales made by the developer are binding if:

- A) The Developer delivers to the buyer a copy of:
  - 1) Either the Final Public Report OR the Supplementary Public Report which has superseded the Final Public Report for which an effective date has been issued by the Real Estate Commission;
- AND
- 2) Any other public report issued by the developer prior to the date of delivery, if the report was not previously delivered to the buyer and if the report has not been superseded;
- B) The buyer is given an opportunity to read the report(s); AND
- C) One of the following has occurred:
  - 1) The buyer has signed a receipt for the report(s) and waived the right to cancel; or
  - 2) Thirty (30) days have passed from the time the report(s) were delivered to the buyer; or
  - 3) The apartment is conveyed to the buyer within 30 days from the date the report(s) were delivered to the buyer.

Material Change: Binding contracts with the Developer may be rescinded by the buyer if:

- A) There is a material change in the project which directly, substantially, and adversely affects (1) the use or value of the buyer's apartment or its limited common elements; or (2) the amenities available for buyer's use; AND
- B) The buyer has not waived the right to rescind.

If the buyer rescinds a binding sales contract because there has been a material change, the buyer is entitled to a full and prompt refund of any moneys the buyer paid.

2. Rights Under the Sales Contract: Before signing the sales contract, prospective buyers should ask to see and carefully review all documents relating to the project. SUMMARY OF THE PROVISIONS OF THE ESCROW AGREEMENT

Among other provisions of the Escrow Agreement, the Agreement provides that:

Disbursement from the escrow fund may be made to pay for construction costs upon certification and approval for payment by an architect or engineer, and approved by Seller's lender. However, the agreement further provides that no disbursement of Purchaser's funds shall be made until (a) Escrow is notified by Seller that Real Estate Commission has issued an effective date for a Final Public Report, superseding all prior reports, on the project and that each purchaser has been given a copy of said Final Public Report; (b) purchaser executes the form of Receipt for Public Report and Notice of Right to Cancel and waives his right to cancel; and (c) the completion of construction of the project and the forty-six day lien period has expired or Seller has posted a Surety Bond or submits title insurance with lien waivers.

Further, Purchaser shall be entitled to a refund of Purchaser's funds, and Escrow shall pay the funds to Purchaser, without interest and less Escrow's cancellation fee upon receipt by Escrow of a written request from Seller to return to Purchaser the funds of such Purchaser then held hereunder by Escrow.

Subject to such deduction as may be provided in the Sales Contract, and an escrow cancellation fee, the purchaser shall be entitled to a return of his funds, and Escrow shall pay such funds to the purchaser, without interest, upon purchaser's written request, and, if any, one of the following events has occurred:

(a) Seller has instructed Escrow in writing to return to the purchaser the funds of the purchaser then being held hereunder by Escrow; or

(b) Seller has notified Escrow in writing of the Seller's exercise of the option to rescind the Sales Contract pursuant to any right of rescission stated herein or otherwise available to the seller; or

(c) With respect to a purchaser whose funds were obtained prior to the issuance of the Final Public Report, the purchaser has exercised his right to cancel the contract pursuant to Section 514A-62, Hawaii Revised Statutes, as amended; and, upon any such cancellation, purchaser shall be entitled to a prompt refund of all monies paid, less any escrow cancellation fee and other costs associated with the purchase, up to a maximum of $250.00; or

(d) A purchaser has exercised his right to rescind the contract pursuant to Section 514A-63, Hawaii Revised Statutes, as amended, or

(e) If, in accordance with Part VI, Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes:

i) no sales contract is offered to purchaser who was placed on the Developer's reservation list of owner-occupants, or upon a request from a person who is on the final reservation list but who has elected not to execute a sales contract; or

ii) the purchaser has been unable to obtain adequate financing, or a commitment for adequate financing, for his unit within fifty (50) calendar days following the end of the ten (1) calendar-day period during which the Developer is limited to selling to owner-occupants.

Upon the return of said funds to the purchaser as aforesaid, Escrow shall return to seller such purchaser's Sales Contract and any conveyancing documents theretofore delivered to Escrow pursuant to such Sales Contract. Other documents delivered to Escrow relating to the sale of the units identified in such Sales Contracts will be returned to the person from whom or entity from which they were received.

(f) In the event of default of the purchaser, purchaser's initial deposits shall be retained by Seller, as liquidated damages.

SUMMARY OF SALE CONTRACT

The pertinent provisions of the Hawaii Association of Realtor's Standard Form DROA, being the sale contract for this project are as follows:

1) Warranty Deed:

Seller agrees to convey the property with warranties, free and clear of encumbrances except certain matters of records which do not materially affect the value of the property.

2) In case of default:

- A. By Buyer: Seller may (a) bring action for damages for breach of contract; (b) retain the initial deposit and all additional deposits provided for herein, as liquidated damages; and (c) Buyer shall be responsible for any cost incurred in accordance with the contract.
- B. By Seller: Buyer may (a) bring action against Seller for damages for breach of contract; (b) file and maintain an action against Seller for specific performance of this contract; and (c) Seller shall be responsible for any cost incurred in accordance with this contract.

3. Time is of the Essence:

This contract provides that if either Seller or Buyer cannot perform his obligation for reasons beyond his control by the closing date, the closing date may be extended for not more than 30 days, by giving escrow notice in writing.
