Summary of Changes from Earlier Public Reports:

This summary contains a general description of the changes, if any, made by the developer since the last public report was issued. It is not necessarily all inclusive. Prospective buyers should compare this public report with the earlier reports if they wish to know the specific changes that have been made.

- No prior reports have been issued by the developer.

- Changes made are as follows:

SPECIAL ATTENTION

This is a CONDOMINIUM PROJECT, not a subdivision. There are County and State restrictions on the number of residential dwelling units, or other structures, which may be built on the property. Therefore, unless the Purchaser is buying an existing residential dwelling, THERE IS NO ASSURANCE THAT THE PURCHASER WILL BE ABLE TO BUILD A RESIDENTIAL DWELLING UNIT ON THE PROPERTY. THERE IS ALSO NO ASSURANCE THAT THE PURCHASER WILL BE ABLE TO CONVERT AN EXISTING NON-RESIDENTIAL STRUCTURE TO A RESIDENTIAL USE. The Purchaser should consult with the appropriate County and State agencies to determine whether the Purchaser may build a residential dwelling unit, or other type of structure, on the property.

1. There is presently one residential structure on the property, Unit A. Unit B is an agricultural building, which may be defined as an "apartment" under the condominium property act.
2. This public report does not constitute an approval of the project by the Real Estate Commission or any other government agency, nor does it warrant that all applicable County codes, ordinances, and subdivision requirements have necessarily been complied with.
3. The land area beneath and immediately appurtenant to each unit is designated a LIMITED COMMON ELEMENT and is not a legally subdivided lot. The dotted lines on the Condominium Map bounding the designated number of square feet in each limited common element land area are for illustrative purposes only and should not be construed to be the property lines of legally subdivided lots.
4. In that the land which has been submitted to the Condominium Property Regime has a State Land Classification of "Agricultural" the provisions of Chapter 205, HRS are applicable. Chapter 205, HRS does not authorize residential dwellings as a permissible use in the Agricultural District, or classified by the State Land Use Commission unless the dwelling is related to an agricultural activity or is a "farm dwelling". A farm dwelling is defined in Section 205-4.5(a)(4) as "a single family dwelling located on and used in conjunction with a farm, including clusters of single-family farm dwellings permitted with agricultural parks developed by the State, or where agricultural activity provides income to the family occupying the dwelling." All property buyers must comply with Chapter 205, HRS.

THE PROSPECTIVE PURCHASER IS CAUTIONED TO CAREFULLY REVIEW THE CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS REFERENCED IN THIS PUBLIC REPORT FOR FURTHER INFORMATION WITH REGARD TO THE FOREGOING.

General Information On Condominiums

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of the Condominium Property Act, Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, must be complied with. In addition, certain requirements and approvals of the County in which the project is located must be satisfied and obtained.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owner/tenants) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements at the lessee's expense. Leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

"Common elements" are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called "limited common elements" and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged, or encumbered, and they may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the project's Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without a vote of the owners. For example, the board may hire and fire employees, increase or decrease maintenance fees, borrow money for repair and improvements and set a budget. Some of these actions may significantly impact the apartment owners.

Until there is sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is important to all apartment owners that the transition of control from the developer to the apartment owners be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

II. CREATION OF THE CONDOMINIUM; CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS

A condominium is created by recording in the Bureau of Conveyances and/or filing with the Land Court a Declaration of Condominium Property Regime, a Condominium Map (File Plan), and the Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners. The Condominium Property Act (Chapter 514A, HRS), the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules control the rights and obligations of the apartment owners with respect to the project and the common elements, to each other, and to their respective apartments. The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

- A. Declaration of Condominium Property Regime contains a description of the land, buildings, apartments, common elements, limited common elements, common interests, and other information relating to the condominium project.

The Declaration for this condominium is:

- Proposed
 Recorded - Bureau of Conveyances                      Document No. 95-139624

 Recorded - Land Court    Document Number _____

The Declaration referred to above has been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]: Amendment to Declaration of Condominium Property Regime of Hale O’Pueo B-3, dated December 20, 1995, recorded as Document No. 96-017235.

- B. Condominium Map (File Plan) shows the floor plan, elevation and layout of the condominium project. It also shows the floor plan, location, apartment number, and dimensions of each apartment.

The Condominium Map for this condominium project is:

- Proposed
 Recorded - Bureau of Conveyances Condo. Map No. 2297
 Recorded - Land Court Condo Map No. _____

The Condominium Map has been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

- C. Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners govern the operation of the condominium project. They provide for the manner in which the Board of Directors of the Association of Apartment Owners is elected, the powers and duties of the Board, the manner in which meetings will be conducted, whether pets are prohibited or allowed and other matters which affect how the condominium project will be governed.

The Bylaws for this condominium are:

- Proposed
 Recorded - Bureau of Conveyances                      Document No. 95-139625

 Recorded - Land Court    Document No. _____

The Bylaws referred to above have been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

- D. House Rules. The Board of Directors may adopt House Rules to govern the use and operation of the common elements and limited common elements. House rules may cover matters such as parking regulations, hours of operation for common facilities such as recreation areas, use of lanais and requirements for keeping pets. These rules must be followed by owners, tenants, and guests. They do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective. The initial House Rules are usually adopted by the developer.

The House Rules for this condominium are:

Proposed                       Adopted                       Developer does not plan to adopt House Rules

E. Changes to Condominium Documents

Changes to the Declaration, Condominium Map, and Bylaws are effective only if they are duly adopted and recorded and/or filed. Changes to House Rules do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective.

1. Apartment Owners: Minimum percentage of common interest which must vote for or give written consent to changes:

Developer has reserved the following rights to change the Declaration, Condominium Map, Bylaws or House Rules:

Any time prior to the first recording in the Bureau of Conveyances of the State of Hawaii of a conveyance or transfer (other than for security) of a unit and its appurtenances to a party not a signatory to the Declaration, the Developer may amend the Declaration, the Bylaws and/or the Condominium File Plan in any manner without approval or consent of any unit purchaser.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON LEASEHOLD CONDOMINIUM PROJECTS

The information contained in this report is a summary of the terms of the lease. For more detailed information, you should secure a copy of the lease documents and read them thoroughly.

If you have any legal questions about leasehold property, the lease documents or the terms of the lease and the consequences of becoming a lessee, you should seek the advice of an attorney.

There are currently no statutory provisions for the mandatory conversion of leasehold condominiums and there are no assurances that such measures will be enacted in the future.

In leasehold condominium projects, the buyer of an apartment will acquire the right to occupy and use the apartment for the time stated in the lease agreement. The buyer will not acquire outright or absolute fee simple ownership of the land. The land is owned by the lessor or the leased fee owner. The apartment owner or lessee must make lease rent payments and comply with the terms of the lease or be subject to the lessor's enforcement actions. The lease rent payments are usually fixed at specific amounts for fixed periods of time, and are then subject to renegotiation. Renegotiation may be based on a formula, by arbitration set in the lease agreement, by law or by agreement between the lessor and lessee. The renegotiated lease rents may increase significantly. At the end of the lease, the apartment owners may have to surrender the apartments, the improvements and the land back to the lessor without any compensation (surrender clause).

When leasehold property is sold, title is normally conveyed by means of an assignment of lease, the purpose of which is similar to that of a deed. The legal and practical effect is different because the assignment conveys only the rights and obligations created by the lease, not the property itself.

The developer of this condominium project may have entered into a master ground lease with the fee simple owner of the land in order to develop the project. The developer may have then entered into a sublease or a new lease of the land with the lessee (apartment owner). The developer may lease the improvements to the apartment owner by way of an apartment lease or sublease, or sell the improvements to the apartment owners by way of a condominium conveyance or apartment deed.

10. Condition and Expected Useful Life of Structural Components, Mechanical, and Electrical Installations
(For conversions of residential apartments in existence for at least five years):

Based on a report prepared by an independent registered architect or engineer, it is the Developer's opinion that all structural components and electrical installations material to the use and enjoyment of the condominium units are presently sound and appear to be in satisfactory working condition. However, NO REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND ARE MADE AS TO THE EXPECTED USEFUL LIFE OF THE STRUCTURAL COMPONENTS AND MECHANICAL AND ELECTRICAL INSTALLATIONS MATERIAL TO THE USE AND ENJOYMENT OF THE CONDOMINIUM UNITS.

11. Conformance to Present Zoning Code

a.  No variances to zoning code have been granted.

Variance(s) to zoning code was/were granted as follows:

b. Conforming/Non-Conforming Uses, Structures, Lot

In general, a non-conforming use, structure, or lot is a use, structure, or lot which was lawful at one time but which does not now conform to present zoning requirements.

|            | Conforming | Non-Conforming | Illegal    |
|------------|-------------------|-----------------------|-------------------|
| Uses       |   X        |                |            |

| Lot        |   X        |                |            |

If a variance has been granted or if uses, improvements or lot are either non-conforming or illegal, buyer should consult with county zoning authorities as to possible limitations which may apply.

Limitations may include restrictions on extending, enlarging, or continuing the non-conformity, and restrictions on altering and repairing structures. In some cases, a non-conforming structure that is destroyed or damaged cannot be reconstructed.

The buyer may not be able to obtain financing or insurance if the condominium project has a non-conforming or illegal use, structure, or lot.

D. Common Elements, Limited Common Elements, Common Interest:

1. Common Elements: Common Elements are those parts of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. Although the common elements are owned jointly by all apartment owners, those portions of the common elements which are designated as limited common elements (see paragraph 2 below) may be used only by those apartments to which they are assigned. The common elements for this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit   "C"  .

2. Limited Common Elements: Limited Common Elements are those common elements which are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments.

[ ] There are no limited common elements in this project.

[ X ] The limited common elements and the apartments which may use them, as described in the Declaration are:

[ X ] described in Exhibit "D".

[ ] as follows:

3. Common Interest: Each apartment will have an undivided fractional interest in all of the common elements. This interest is called the "common interest." It is used to determine each apartment's share of the maintenance fees and other common profits and expenses of the condominium. It may also be used for other purposes, including voting on matters requiring action by apartment owners. The common interests for the apartments in this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

[ ] as follows:

E. Encumbrances Against Title: An encumbrance is a claim against or a liability on the property or a document affecting the title or use of the property. Encumbrances may have an adverse effect on the property or your purchase and ownership of an apartment in the project.

Exhibit "F" describes the encumbrances against the title contained in the title report dated October 30, 1995, and issued by First American Title Co. of Hawaii, Inc.

Blanket Liens:

A blanket lien is an encumbrance (such as a mortgage) on the entire condominium project that secures some type of monetary debt (such as a loan) or other obligation. A blanket lien is usually released on an apartment-by-apartment basis upon payment of specified sums so that individual apartments can be conveyed to buyers free and clear of the lien.

- There are no blanket liens affecting title to the individual apartments.
- There are blanket liens which may affect title to the individual apartments.

Blanket liens (except for improvement district or utility assessments) must be released before the developer conveys the apartment to a buyer. Buyer's interest will be affected only if the developer defaults and the lien is foreclosed prior to conveying the apartment to buyer.

A. Management of the Common Elements: The Association of Apartment Owners is responsible for the management of the common elements and the overall operation of the condominium project. The Association may be permitted, and in some cases may be required, to employ or retain a condominium managing agent to assist the Association in managing the condominium project.

Initial Condominium Managing Agent: When the developer or the developer's affiliate is the initial condominium managing agent, the management contract must have a term of one year or less and the parties must be able to terminate the contract on notice of 60 days or less.

The initial condominium managing agent for this project, named on page five (5) of this report, is:

B. Estimate of Initial Maintenance Fees:

The Association will make assessments against your apartment to provide funds for the operation and maintenance of the condominium project. If you are delinquent in paying the assessments, your apartment may be liened and sold through a foreclosure proceeding.

EXHIBIT "A"

DESCRIPTION OF BUILDINGS

The project consists of one residential building and one agricultural building. Each building contains one apartment ("unit"), as more particularly described in the Declaration and as shown on the Condominium Map. Unit A has three levels and an attached garage. Unit B has one story or level and it is intended that Unit B may in the future be altered to include a separate residential building and accessory buildings.

EXHIBIT "B"

ALTERATION OF PROJECT

The dimensions, area and location of each unit are shown graphically on the Condominium Map. Each unit shall include and contain all space, including but not limited to the residential building(s), if any, and other improvements within the area bounded by the perimeter boundaries of such unit, as follows:

Paragraph L of the declaration provides as follows:

1. Each unit owner shall have the right at his sole option at any time and from time to time, as hereinafter set forth, without the consent and/or approval of the owner of the other unit or any other persons or entity, to improve, renovate, remodel, make additions to, enlarge, remove, replace, alter or restore the improvements to or in his unit or portions thereof or upon the yard appurtenant to his unit (collectively, the foregoing are referred to as "alterations"). Each unit owner shall have the right without the consent or joinder of any other person to amend this declaration and the Condominium File Plan to accomplish any such alterations. If required by the Act, promptly upon completion of such alterations the owner of the altered unit shall duly file such amendment to this declaration in the Land Court together with a complete set of the floor plans of such unit as so altered, certified by a registered architect or professional engineer to fully and accurately depict the altered portions of the property as built. If required by the Act, the Board shall be deemed to approve of all such alterations. All existing unit owners and all future unit owners and their mortgagees, by accepting an interest in a unit, consent to all such alterations and agree to give and shall be deemed to have given the owner of the altered unit a power of attorney to execute and amendment to the declaration solely for the purpose of describing the alterations to such unit in the declaration so that the owner of the altered unit shall hereafter have a power of attorney from all the other unit owners to execute such amendment to the declaration. This power of attorney shall be deemed coupled with each owner's interest in his unit (including his common interest) and shall be irrevocable.

2. Any alterations to a unit pursuant to this paragraph L shall be subject to the following conditions:

(a) All buildings plans for any such alterations shall conform with State and County land use, building and zoning laws and other applicable County ordinances and regulations.

(b) Such alterations may decrease or increase the size of the affected unit, provided that no alteration shall extend or place the unit outside of the limits of the yard appurtenant to such unit.

(c) All such alterations shall be at the sole expense of the unit owner making the change and shall be made within one year of the commencement thereof and in a manner that will not unreasonably interfere with the other unit owner's use of his unit or yard.

(d) The owner of the altered unit shall have the right to utilize, relocate and realign existing and/or to develop additional, central and appurtenant installations for services to the unit affected by such alteration for electricity, sewer and other utilities and services and when applicable, to add, delete, relocate, realign, designate and grant easement and rights-of-way over, under and on the common elements as necessary or desirable in connection therewith; provided that the same shall not cause any interruption in the service of such utilities to any other part of the project, nor shall it unreasonably interfere with the other unit owner's use or enjoyment of his unit or yard.

(e) Each and every conveyance, lease and mortgage or other lien made or created on any unit and all common interests and other appurtenances thereto shall be subject to the provisions of this paragraph and any lease of a unit shall reserve to all unit owners the rights set forth in this paragraph.

(f) Before commencing or permitting construction on any alteration of a unit pursuant to this paragraph L, the costs of which will exceed $10,000, the unit owner thereof, at his sole expense, shall obtain and provide the other unit owner with evidence of a bond or certificate, or an irrevocable letter of credit issued by a bank authorized to do business in the State of Hawaii, in an amount of not less than one hundred percent (100%) of the cost of such construction, or, in lieu thereof, a guarantee against mechanics' and materialmen's liens satisfactory to the other unit owner.

EXHIBIT "C"

COMMON ELEMENTS

The common elements of the project shall specifically include, but are not limited to, the following:

The owner of Unit B shall be solely responsible for maintaining and repairing Driveway "B" lying within the limited common element appurtenant to Unit B. |

NOTE: The boundaries of the yard area appurtenant to each unit, as shown on the Condominium File Plan do not represent County-approved subdivided lots. Such boundaries serve only to delineate the limited common element yard area appurtenant to each unit.

WATER METER AND WATERLINES Each unit is served by a separate waterline which is appurtenant to and for the exclusive use of the unit to which it is attached. The two separate waterlines, however, are connected to a single waterline which runs underground in the common element access road and is attached to only one county water meter. The County water meter and the waterline that lies between it and the two separate waterlines shall be considered to be common elements. The private water meter and waterline which lies between it and Unit B shall be considered to be a limited common element appurtenant to Unit B. ### ESTIMATED MAINTENANCE FEES

The regular maintenance and repair of each unit and appurtenant limited common elements shall be the sole responsibility of each respective unit owner. Section 514A-86, Hawaii Revised Statutes, requires that the association purchase fire insurance to cover the improvements portion of the project. The Developer anticipates that the association will elect to require each owner to obtain separate fire insurance and liability policies for his respective unit pursuant to Article 7 of the Bylaws. As such, premiums for such policies will be the individual responsibility of each unit owner. The Developer estimates that the annual premium for a fire insurance policy covering Unit A may be approximately $2,500.00 and Unit B may be approximately $100.00.

Additionally Unit A and Unit B shall each be required to pay association fees to the Hale O'Pueo Community Association, which association is governed by the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions for Hale O'Pueo (summarized in Exhibit "J" to this report). At present the Hale O'Pueo Community Association has not established a monthly or annual association fee, however, the Developer estimates that these fees will be less than $50.00 per month per unit when they are instituted by that association.
