Preparation of this Report:

This report has been prepared by the Developer pursuant to the Condominium Property Act, Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, as amended. This report is not valid unless the Hawaii Real Estate Commission has issued a registration number and effective date for the report.

This report has not been prepared or issued by the Real Estate Commission or any other government agency. Neither the Commission nor any other government agency has judged or approved the merits or value, if any, of the project or of purchasing an apartment in the project.

Buyers are encouraged to read this report carefully, and to seek professional advice before signing a sales contract for the purchase of an apartment in the project.

Expiration Date of Reports. Preliminary Public Reports and Final Public Reports automatically expire thirteen (13) months from the effective date unless a Supplementary Public Report is issued or unless the Commission issues an order, a copy of which is attached to this report, extending the effective date for the report.

Exception: The Real Estate Commission may issue an order, a copy of which shall be attached to this report, that the final public report for a two apartment condominium project shall have no expiration date.

Type of Report:

PRELIMINARY: The developer may not as yet have created the condominium but has filed with the Real Estate Commission minimal information sufficient for a Preliminary Public Report. A Final Public Report will be issued by the developer when complete information is filed.
(yellow)

FINAL: The developer has legally created a condominium and has filed complete information with the Commission.
(white)
 No prior reports have been issued.
 This report supersedes all prior public reports.
 This report must be read together with _____

General Information On Condominiums

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of the Condominium Property Act, Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, must be complied with. In addition, certain requirements and approvals of the County in which the project is located must be satisfied and obtained.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owners/tenants) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements at the lessee's expense. Leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

"Common elements" are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called "limited common elements" and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged or encumbered, and may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the project's Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without the vote of the owners. For example, the board may hire and fire employees, increase or decrease maintenance fees, borrow money for repair and improvements and set a budget. Some of these actions may significantly impact the apartment owners.

Until there is a sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is important to all apartment owners that the transition of control from the developer to the apartment owners be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

II. CREATION OF THE CONDOMINIUM; CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS

A condominium is created by recording in the Bureau of Conveyances and/or filing with the Land Court a Declaration of Condominium Property Regime, a Condominium Map (File Plan), and the Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners. The Condominium Property Act (Chapter 514A, HRS), the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules control the rights and obligations of the apartment owners with respect to the project and the common elements, to each other, and to their respective apartments. The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

- A. Declaration of Condominium Property Regime contains a description of the land, buildings, apartments, common elements, limited common elements, common interests, and other information relating to the condominium project.

The Declaration for this condominium is:

- Proposed
 Recorded - Bureau of Conveyances: Document No. 96-093096
Book            Page           
 Filed - Land Court: Document No.

The Declaration referred to above has been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

- B. Condominium Map (File Plan) shows the floor plan, elevation and layout of the condominium project. It also shows the floor plan, location, apartment number, and dimensions of each apartment.

The Condominium Map for this condominium project is:

- Proposed
 Recorded - Bureau of Conveyances Condo Map No. 2424
 Filed - Land Court Condo Map No.

The Condominium Map has been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

- C. Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners govern the operation of the condominium project. They provide for the manner in which the Board of Directors of the Association of Apartment Owners is elected, the powers and duties of the Board, the manner in which meetings will be conducted, whether pets are prohibited or allowed and other matters which affect how the condominium project will be governed.

The Bylaws for this condominium are:

- Proposed
Book            Page           
 Filed - Land Court: Document No.

The Bylaws referred to above have been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

- D. House Rules. The Board of Directors may adopt House Rules to govern the use and operation of the common elements and limited common elements. House Rules may cover matters such as parking regulations, hours of operation for common facilities such as recreation areas, use of lanais and requirements for keeping pets. These rules must be followed by owners, tenants, and guests. They do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective. The initial House Rules are usually adopted by the developer.

The House Rules for this condominium are:

Proposed                       Adopted                       Developer does not plan to adopt House Rules

E. Changes to Condominium Documents

Changes to the Declaration, Condominium Map, and Bylaws are effective only if they are duly adopted and recorded and/or filed. Changes to House Rules do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective.

1. Apartment Owners: Minimum percentage of common interest which must vote for or give written consent to changes:

	Minimum Set by Law	This Condominium
Declaration (and Condo Map)	75%*	75%
Bylaws	65%	65%
House Rules	---	Board of Directors

* The percentages for individual condominium projects may be more than the minimum set by law for projects with five or fewer apartments.

2. Developer:

No rights have been reserved by the developer to change the Declaration, Condominium Map, Bylaws or House Rules.

Developer has reserved the following rights to change the Declaration, Condominium Map, Bylaws or House Rules:

Developer reserves the right to change or modify the Declaration, Bylaws, Exhibits, Condominium Map, Apartment Deed and House Rules.

III. THE CONDOMINIUM PROJECT

A. Interest to be Conveyed to Buyer:

- Fee Simple: Individual apartments and the common elements, which include the underlying land, will be in fee simple.
- Leasehold or Subleasehold: Individual apartments and the common elements, which include the underlying land will be leasehold.

Leases for the individual apartments and the underlying land usually require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee (apartment owner/tenant) deliver to the lessor (fee property owner) possession of the leased premises and all improvements, including improvements paid for by the lessee.

Exhibit _____ contains further explanations regarding the manner in which the renegotiated lease rents will be calculated and a description of the surrender clause provision(s).

Lease Rent Payable:            Monthly                            Quarterly
     Semi-Annually                    Annually

Exhibit _____ contains a schedule of the lease rent for each apartment per  Month    Year

For Subleaseholds:

- Buyer's sublease may be canceled if the master lease between the sublessor and fee owner is:
                   Canceled            Foreclosed

- As long as the buyer is not in default, the buyer may continue to occupy the apartment and/or land on the same terms contained in the sublease even if the master lease is canceled or foreclosed.

- Individual Apartments in Fee Simple; Common Interest in the Underlying Land in Leasehold or Subleasehold:

Leases for the underlying land usually require that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owners/tenants) deliver to the lessor (fee property owner) their interest in the land and that they either (1) remove or dispose of the building(s) and other improvements at the lessee's expense; or (2) convey the building(s) and improvements to the lessor, often at a specified price.

Exhibit _____ contains further explanations regarding the manner in which the renegotiated lease rents will be calculated and a description of the surrender clause provision(s).

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON LEASEHOLD CONDOMINIUM PROJECTS

The information contained in this report is a summary of the terms of the lease. For more detailed information, you should secure a copy of the lease documents and read them thoroughly.

If you have any legal questions about leasehold property, the lease documents or the terms of the lease and the consequences of becoming a lessee, you should seek the advice of an attorney.

There are currently no statutory provisions for the mandatory conversion of leasehold condominiums and there are no assurances that such measures will be enacted in the future.

In leasehold condominium projects, the buyer of an apartment will acquire the right to occupy and use the apartment for the time stated in the lease agreement. The buyer will not acquire outright or absolute fee simple ownership of the land. The land is owned by the lessor or the leased fee owner. The apartment owner or lessee must make lease rent payments and comply with the terms of the lease or be subject to the lessor's enforcement actions. The lease rent payments are usually fixed at specific amounts for fixed periods of time, and are then subject to renegotiation. Renegotiation may be based on a formula, by arbitration set in the lease agreement, by law or by agreement between the lessor and lessee. The renegotiated lease rents may increase significantly. At the end of the lease, the apartment owners may have to surrender the apartments, the improvements and the land back to the lessor without any compensation (surrender clause).

When leasehold property is sold, title is normally conveyed by means of an assignment of lease, the purpose of which is similar to that of a deed. The legal and practical effect is different because the assignment conveys only the rights and obligations created by the lease, not the property itself.

The developer of this condominium project may have entered into a master ground lease with the fee simple owner of the land in order to develop the project. The developer may have then entered into a sublease or a new lease of the land with the lessee (apartment owner). The developer may lease the improvements to the apartment owner by way of an apartment lease or sublease, or sell the improvements to the apartment owners by way of a condominium conveyance or apartment deed.

(For conversions of residential apartments in existence for at least five years): N/A

11. Conformance to Present Zoning Code

a.  No variances to zoning code have been granted.

Variance(s) to zoning code was/were granted as follows:

b. Conforming/Non-Conforming Uses, Structures, Lot

In general, a non-conforming use, structure, or lot is a use, structure, or lot which was lawful at one time but which does not now conform to present zoning requirements.

	Conforming	Non-Conforming	Illegal
Uses	X	_____	_____
Structures	X	_____	_____
Lot	X	_____	_____

If a variance has been granted or if uses, improvements or lot are either non-conforming or illegal, buyer should consult with county zoning authorities as to possible limitations which may apply.

Limitations may include restrictions on extending, enlarging, or continuing the non-conformity, and restrictions on altering and repairing structures. In some cases, a non-conforming structure that is destroyed or damaged cannot be reconstructed.

The buyer may not be able to obtain financing or insurance if the condominium project has a non-conforming or illegal use, structure, or lot.

D. Common Elements, Limited Common Elements, Common Interest:

1. Common Elements: Common Elements are those parts of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. Although the common elements are owned jointly by all apartment owners, those portions of the common elements which are designated as limited common elements (see paragraph 2 below) may be used only by those apartments to which they are assigned. The common elements for this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit _____.

as follows: The common element include the land in fee simple, all foundations, floor slabs, column, girders, beams, supports, unfinished perimeter, party and load, bearing walls, roofs, entries, stairways, walkways, entrances and exits of the building, yards, grounds and landscaping, service areas, trash disposal equipment, guest parking stalls, loading area stall, and all pipes, cables, conduits, ducts, electrical equipment, wiring, and other central and appurtenant transmission facilities and installation, private park/recreation area and any other apparatus and installations of common use and all other parts of the property necessary or convenient to its existence, maintenance and safety, or normally in common use.

2. Limited Common Elements: Limited Common Elements are those common elements which are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments.

There are no limited common elements in this project.

The limited common elements and the apartments which use them, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit _____.

as follows: Each unit shall have appurtenant to it as a limited common element one (1) reserved parking stall located as shown on the Condominium Map or Condominium File Plan and one (1) mailbox

3. Common Interest: Each apartment will have an undivided fractional interest in all of the common elements. This interest is called the "common interest." It is used to determine each apartment's share of the maintenance fees and other common profits and expenses of the condominium project. It may also be used for other purposes, including voting on matters requiring action by apartment owners. The common interests for the apartments in this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit C.

as follows:

E. Encumbrances Against Title: An encumbrance is a claim against or a liability on the property or a document affecting the title or use of the property. Encumbrances may have an adverse effect on the property or your purchase and ownership of an apartment in the project.

Exhibit D describes the encumbrances against the title contained in the title report dated May 16, 1996 and issued by Old Republic Title & Escrow Of Hawaii.

Blanket Liens:

A blanket lien is an encumbrance (such as a mortgage) on the entire condominium project that secures some type of monetary debt (such as a loan) or other obligation. A blanket lien is usually released on an apartment-by-apartment basis upon payment of specified sums so that individual apartments can be conveyed to buyers free and clear of the lien.

- [ ] There are no blanket liens affecting title to the individual apartments.
- [X] There are blanket liens which may affect title to the individual apartments.

Blanket liens (except for improvement district or utility assessments) must be released before the developer conveys the apartment to a buyer. The buyer's interest will be affected if the developer defaults and the lien is foreclosed prior to conveying the apartment to buyer.

Type of Lien	Effect on Buyer's Interest and Deposit if Developer Defaults or Lien is Foreclosed Prior to Conveyance
Mortgage	If Developer defaults or lien is foreclosed prior to conveyance, the buyer's interest may be terminated and deposits forfeited. In such event, buyer is entitled to a refund of all deposits, less escrow cancellation fee.

F. Construction Warranties:

Warranties for individual apartments and the common elements, including the beginning and ending dates for each warranty, are as follows:

1. Building and Other Improvements: Developer makes no warranties other than assigning any warranties received in the construction of the project from contractors, subcontractors and supplies.

2. Appliances: Developer makes no warranties other than assigning any warranties recieved through the purchase of appliances.

G. Status of Construction and Estimated Completion Date:

Construction on the Condominium Project has not begun. The estimated completion date is the Fall of 1997.

H. Project Phases:

The developer [ ] has [X] has not reserved the right to add to, merge, or phase this condominium.

Summary of Developer's plans or right to perform for future development (such as additions, mergers or phasing):

IV. CONDOMINIUM MANAGEMENT

A. Management of the Common Elements: The Association of Apartment Owners is responsible for the management of the common elements and the overall operation of the condominium project. The Association may be permitted, and in some cases may be required, to employ or retain a condominium managing agent to assist the Association in managing the condominium project.

Initial Condominium Managing Agent: When the developer or the developer's affiliate is the initial condominium managing agent, the management contract must have a term of one year or less and the parties must be able to terminate the contract on notice of 60 days or less.

The initial condominium managing agent for this project, named on page five (5) of this report, is:

- not affiliated with the Developer
- self-managed by the Association of Apartment Owners
- the Developer or the Developer's affiliate.
- other _____

B. Estimate of Initial Maintenance Fees:

The Association will make assessments against your apartment to provide funds for the operation and maintenance of the condominium project. If you are delinquent in paying the assessments, your apartment may be liened and sold through a foreclosure proceeding.

Initial maintenance fees are difficult to estimate and tend to increase as the condominium ages. Maintenance fees may vary depending on the services provided.

Exhibit A contains a schedule of estimated initial maintenance fees and maintenance fee disbursements (subject to change).

C. Utility Charges for Apartments:

Each apartment will be billed separately for utilities except for the following checked utilities which are included in the maintenance fees:

- None
- Electricity (common elements only)
- Gas
- Water
- Sewer
- Television Cable
- Other refuse collection, elevator

Final Report or Supplementary Report to a Final Report: Sales made by the developer are binding if:

A) The Developer delivers to the buyer a copy of:

1) Either the Final Public Report OR the Supplementary Public Report which has superseded the Final Public Report for which an effective date has been issued by the Real Estate Commission;

AND

2) Any other public report issued by the developer prior to the date of delivery, if the report was not previously delivered to the buyer and if the report has not been superseded;

B) The buyer is given an opportunity to read the report(s); AND

C) One of the following has occurred:

1) The buyer has signed a receipt for the report(s) and waived the right to cancel; or

2) Thirty (30) days have passed from the time the report(s) were delivered to the buyer; or

3) The apartment is conveyed to the buyer within 30 days from the date the report(s) were delivered to the buyer.

Material Change: Binding contracts with the Developer may be rescinded by the buyer if:

A) There is a material change in the project which directly, substantially, and adversely affects (1) the use or value of the buyer's apartment or its limited common elements; or (2) the amenities available for buyer's use; AND

B) The buyer has not waived the right to rescind.

If the buyer rescinds a binding sales contract because there has been a material change, the buyer is entitled to a full and prompt refund of any moneys the buyer paid.

C. Additional Information Not Covered Above

Pursuant to sections 16-99-3(g) and 16-99-11(d), Hawaii Administrative Rules ("HAR"), prospective purchasers are hereby advised that Roseann J. Frasier, RB14281, and Dennis R. Sadowski, RS29949, President/Director and Secretary/Treasurer/Director of Venture 949, Inc. are current and active Hawaii-licensed real estate broker and current and inactive salesperson, respectively. Pursuant to section 16-99-11(c), HAR, "(n)o licensee shall be allowed to advertise 'For Sale by Owner', 'For Rent by Owner', 'For Lease by Owner', 'For exchange by Owner'."

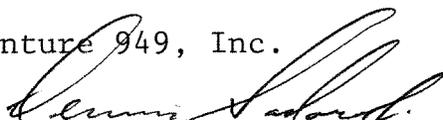

D. The developer hereby certifies that all the information contained in this Report and the Exhibits attached to this Report and all documents to be furnished by the developer to buyers concerning the project have been reviewed by the developer and are, to the best of the developer's knowledge, information and belief, true, correct and complete.

DESCRIPTION OF PROJECT AND APARTMENTS

The Project is described in the Condominium Map and consists of one four-story building containing thirty-three (33) residential apartment units. The ground floor contains thirty-eight (38) parking stalls. The first floor contains an entry foyer, a lobby, a mail area, a recreation area and eleven (11) apartment units. Each subsequent floor contains eleven (11) apartments. The building and other improvements are constructed principally of wood, glass, aluminum, masonry, steel and allied building materials.

DESCRIPTION OF THE APARTMENTS

Thirty-three (33) separate condominium apartment units are hereby designated in the spaces within the perimeter walls, floors and ceilings of the residential apartment units of the Project, which spaces are referred to herein as "apartments". The location of the apartments are further described in Exhibit "C".

Summary of Deposit Receipt and Sales Contract

The Deposit Receipt and Sales Contract (the "Agreement") is a reservation agreement and not binding upon the Purchaser until such time as:

1. a true copy of the Final Public Report is delivered to the Purchaser;
2. Purchaser has an opportunity to read the Final Public Report;
3. Purchaser executes and gives Seller the receipt for the Final Public Report (the "Effective Date" of the Agreement).

The Effective Date is the date that the Agreement becomes a binding sales contract for the sale of the property, subject only to applicable provisions of the Condominium Property Act. Prior to the Effective Date, either party may cancel this Agreement by written notice.

An initial deposit is due upon signing of the Agreement and reservation of the apartment designated above or by way of an application of funds previously placed as a deposit pursuant to an "Owner-Occupant" deposit, whichever occurred first. An additional deposit is payable no later than thirty (30) days after the date that Seller or Escrow gives notice to Purchaser of the effective date of a Final Public Report for the Project, if a Final Public Report had not become effective before Purchaser signed this Agreement, or thirty (30) days after the date that Seller or Escrow gives notice to Purchaser of Seller's acceptance of this Agreement if a Final Public Report had become effective before Purchaser signed this Agreement. A third deposit for that portion of the purchase price which is not provided by a mortgage is payable at or prior to closing. The balance of the purchase price will be due at or prior to closing.

Actual possession of the apartment by Purchaser shall occur after the Apartment Deed is recorded. The risk of loss on the apartment and other improvements shall be borne by the Seller until recordation or when Purchaser takes actual possession.

Seller reserves the right to make minor changes to the Declaration, Bylaws, Condominium Map, Apartment Deed and Escrow Agreement. Seller also reserves the right to make minor changes to the project, provided that no change shall be made which substantially affects the physical location or design of the apartment.

Seller shall assign any and all warranties given to Seller by the general contractor, subcontractor or materialmen. Seller also agrees to cooperate with Purchaser during the effective period of any warranties in asserting any claims. Purchaser shall have the direct benefit of any manufacturer's warranties covering the appliances in the apartment.

Seller shall complete the project and provide normal occupancy to Purchaser within two (2) years from the date of this Agreement. However, Seller estimates that the construction will be completed by the Fall of 1997.

This Agreement is an agreement to transfer the property in the future. If there is any dispute, the parties agree to submit such dispute to binding arbitration. The laws of the State of Hawaii shall govern all matters with respect to the Agreement.

Time is of the essence of this Agreement. SELLER MAKES NO REFERENCES OR REPRESENTATIONS REGARDING THE POSSIBILITY OR PROBABILITY OF RENTAL OR OTHER INCOME FROM THE APARTMENT, OR ANY OTHER ECONOMIC BENEFIT TO BE DERIVED FROM THE RENTAL OF THE APARTMENT.

EXHIBIT "F"

Summary of Escrow Agreement

After the Deposit Receipt and Sales Contract (the "Agreement") is executed by Seller and Purchaser, an executed copy of the sales contract will be delivered to Old Republic Title and Escrow of Hawaii (the "Escrow Agent").

The Seller shall pay over to Escrow Agent any monies received by Seller from purchaser under the sales contract and Escrow Agent shall, within a reasonable time, deposit all funds it receives in an interest-bearing account in a federally insured financial institution. All interest earned shall be payable to the Seller.

The Escrow Agent shall, from time to time upon written request of Seller or its designated agent, release from escrow and pay from Purchaser's funds, up to twenty-five percent (25%) of the purchase price of a residential unit received from the Purchaser, for the following purposes:

1. to pay for construction costs of improvements in proportion to work completed, upon bills approved or certified for payment by Seller or its designated agent;
2. to persons for expenses related to architectural, engineering, financing, accounting, escrow, and legal services, taxes and assessments, and other incidental expenses approved by Seller or its designated agent;
3. for the total or partial release of the master mortgage or other lien and the removal of any other encumbrance; and
4. for required title reports and recordation costs.

The Escrow Agent shall not release Purchaser's funds until the Real Estate Commission has issued an effective Final Public Report and the sales contract is binding.

By acting within the scope of the escrow agreement, the Escrow Agent is relieved of and from all liability to Seller and Purchaser, and is not responsible for the validity or sufficiency of the sales contract. The Escrow Agent shall not be required to determine or resolve any disputes between or among the Purchaser, Seller and others and may await a resolution of the dispute or file a suit in interpleader with the court.

Upon receipt of the apartment deed, purchase price and any mortgage, the Escrow Agent will act with diligence and dispatch to close the sale.

A Purchaser shall be entitled to a return of funds if (a) Seller and Purchaser request such return in writing, (b) Seller notifies Escrow Agent of the exercise of the option to cancel or rescind the sales contract, (c) Purchaser exercises the right to cancel the sales contract pursuant to either Section 514A-62 or Section 514A-63, Hawaii Revised Statutes, or (d) Purchaser exercises right to void the sales contract pursuant to Section 514A-69, Hawaii Revised Statutes.
