Disclosure Abstract: Separate Disclosure Abstract on this condominium project:

Required and attached to this report                       Not Required - disclosures covered in this report.

Summary of Changes from Earlier Public Reports:

This summary contains a general description of the changes, if any, made by the developer since the last public report was issued. It is not necessarily all inclusive. Prospective buyers should compare this public report with the earlier reports if they wish to know the specific changes that have been made.

No prior reports have been issued by the developer.

Changes made are as follows:

IMPORTANT NOTES:

1. Expansion of Condominium Homes within Private Yard Areas shown on the Condominium Map is permitted but must comply with requirements specified in the Declaration of Condominium Property Regime and Declaration of Use and Design for the Kekaha Sunset Community. The second Condominium Home to be expanded within the project must also secure an Additional Dwelling Unit Clearance from the County of Kauai in connection with the issuance of a building permit. Acquisition of a Condominium Home operates as an owner's consent to another owner's improvement of their respective Private Yard Areas. Purchasers shall be required to execute an appropriate consent concurrently with the purchase of a Condominium Home.

2. The Condominium Homes and Private Yard Areas are situate near to an existing County of Kauai public park facility and the use and future use and expansion of such facility may generate noise, dust, or other nuisances, disturbances, annoyances, hazards and effects which may affect the use and enjoyment of the Condominium Homes and Private Yard Areas. The owner, the owner's family, lessees, tenants, servants, guests, invitees, licensees, employees, or other person who may occupy or otherwise use the Condominium Homes or Private Yard Areas, accept the possibility of the occurrence of the above uses and impacts from the adjacent public park, assume the risk of such occurrence, and expressly waive all claims against the County of Kauai arising out of or in connection with the use and impact of the public park, including the right to seek damages or the abatement or elimination of the use of the public park.

3. A portion of the whole of the Private Yard Area and/or Private Expansion Area as reflected on the Condominium Map has been designated as a flood zone, either Federal Emergency Management Agency Zone X or Zone A, signifying the risk of flooding during a 500-year or 100-year storm, respectively. Location of improvements within a designated flood zone requires adherence to special building requirements. These areas may be subject to flooding.

4. The Private Yard Area is affected by existing drainage or retention facilities, which may not be repaired or altered by owner except as permitted in the Condominium Home Deed. Storm water ponding may occur in these facilities. The owner of a Condominium Home, at his cost, shall be obligated to preserve, maintain, the existing drainage pattern and repair and clean drainage facility on the appurtenant Private Yard Area. Construction or installation of any improvements located within the foregoing drainage or retention areas that may hinder the flow of the storm waters or reduce the capacity of water retention is not allowed.

5. Construction or installation of any improvements immediately adjacent to the retention areas described above must be elevated so that the finish floor is no less than one (1) foot above the retainment overflow berm. The finish floor elevation requirement for these improvements is 12.7 above mean sea level. Improvements that allow water to flow through may be constructed or installed. Examples of such improvements include hedges, landscaping, fences and similar improvements. Improvements such as solid walls, filling, habitable structures which obstruct the flow of storm retention water may not be constructed or installed. Any and all improvements shall be subject to the provisions contained in the Declaration of Use and Design for the Kekaha Sunset Community and shall comply with all applicable laws, including the ordinances and regulations of the County of Kauai.

6. (a) Owners of Condominium Homes are specifically responsible for the maintenance of the landscaping buffer, if any, along the boundary of the Private Yard Area fronting or facing Kaumualii Highway. The right to plant this area is specifically reserved to the Developer. This landscaping maintenance obligation may be enforced under the Declaration, by the County of Kauai or the State Department of Transportation.

(b) The Private Yard Area is within the County of Kauai's "Open District" zoning designation. The dwelling unit and associated accessory structures constructed within the Private Yard Area, may not exceed a total foot print area of 2,500 square feet, exclusive of joint driveway improvements servicing any two or more of the Private Yard Areas. Further, the standard County of Kauai Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance (CZO) 10-foot setback shall be 20 feet in the location(s) noted on the Condominium Map. No building improvements to the Private Yard Area (other than landscaping improvements and other improvements permitted under the CZO) may be made within the twenty (20) foot wide setback area reflected on the Condominium Map. Any landscaping proposed for the Private Yard Area must be approved in advance of planting by the County of Kauai Planning Department and then may proceed only in accordance with plans therefor approved by the Department.

7. The initial sheds are not currently habitable; expansion is required before the Condominium Homes may be occupied.

8. Each Private Yard Area (or access easement area) bordering Alae and Elepaio Roads is subject to a two (2) foot wide future road widening reserve. The interior edge of this reserve area serves as the applicable boundary of the Private Yard Area for new construction improvement setbacks. The County of Kauai may utilize this reserve area for roadway expansion purposes.

General Information On Condominiums

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of the Condominium Property Act, Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, must be complied with. In addition, certain requirements and approvals of the County in which the project is located must be satisfied and obtained.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owner/tenants) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements at the lessee's expense. Leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

"Common elements" are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called "limited common elements" and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged, or encumbered, and they may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the project's Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without a vote of the owners. For example, the board may hire and fire employees, increase or decrease maintenance fees, borrow money for repair and improvements and set a budget. Some of these actions may significantly impact the apartment owners.

Until there is sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is important to all apartment owners that the transition of control from the developer to the apartment owners be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

II. CREATION OF THE CONDOMINIUM; CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS

A condominium is created by recording in the Bureau of Conveyances and/or filing with the Land Court a Declaration of Condominium Property Regime, a Condominium Map (File Plan), and the Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners. The Condominium Property Act (Chapter 514A, HRS), the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules control the rights and obligations of the apartment owners with respect to the project and the common elements, to each other, and to their respective apartments. The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

- A. Declaration of Condominium Property Regime contains a description of the land, buildings, apartments, common elements, limited common elements, common interests, and other information relating to the condominium project.

The Declaration for this condominium is:

Proposed
 Recorded - Bureau of Conveyances      Document No. 98-084810
Book _____ Page _____
 Filed - Land Court      Document Number _____

The Declaration referred to above has been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

- B. Condominium Map (File Plan) shows the floor plan, elevation and layout of the condominium project. It also shows the floor plan, location, apartment number, and dimensions of each apartment.

The Condominium Map for this condominium project is:

Proposed
 Recorded - Bureau of Conveyances Condo Map No. 2752
 Filed - Land Court Condo Map No. _____

The Condominium Map has been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

- C. Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners govern the operation of the condominium project. They provide for the manner in which the Board of Directors of the Association of Apartment Owners is elected, the powers and duties of the Board, the manner in which meetings will be conducted, whether pets are prohibited or allowed and other matters which affect how the condominium project will be governed.

The Bylaws for this condominium are:

Proposed
 Recorded - Bureau of Conveyances      Document No. 98-084811
Book _____ Page _____
 Filed - Land Court      Document No. _____

The Bylaws referred to above have been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

D. House Rules. The Board of Directors may adopt House Rules to govern the use and operation of the common elements and limited common elements. House rules may cover matters such as parking regulations, hours of operation for common facilities such as recreation areas, use of lanais and requirements for keeping pets. These rules must be followed by owners, tenants, and guests. They do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective. The initial House Rules are usually adopted by the developer.

The House Rules for this condominium are:

Proposed                       Adopted                       Developer does not plan to adopt House Rules

E. Changes to Condominium Documents

Changes to the Declaration, Condominium Map, and Bylaws are effective only if they are duly adopted and recorded and/or filed. Changes to House Rules do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective.

1. Apartment Owners: Minimum percentage of common interest which must vote for or give written consent to changes:

	Minimum Set by Law	This Condominium
Declaration (and Condo Map)	75%*	75%
Bylaws	65%	65%
House Rules	—	N/A

* The percentages for individual condominium projects may be more than the minimum set by law for projects with five or fewer apartments.

2. Developer:

No rights have been reserved by the developer to change the Declaration, Condominium Map, Bylaws or House Rules.

Developer has reserved the following rights to change the Declaration, Condominium Map, Bylaws or House Rules:

A. Upon completion of the Project, the Developer may amend the Declaration and the Condominium Map (if necessary) to file the "as built" verified statement required by Section 514A-12 of the Condominium Property Act.

B. Until all of the apartments have been sold, the Developer may amend the Declaration, the Bylaws and/or the Condominium Map to make such amendments as may be required by law, by the Real Estate Commission, by the title insurance company, by a mortgage lender, or by any governmental agency (including the VA, HUD, FNMA and/or FHLMC), provided that no such amendments change the common interest appurtenant to an apartment or substantially change the design, location or size of an apartment.

C. Until all of the apartments have been sold and the "as built" verified statement is filed, the Developer may amend the Declaration and the Condominium Map to (i) reflect alterations in any apartment which has not been sold; and (ii) reflect minor changes in any apartment or in the common elements which do not affect the physical location, design or size of any apartment which has been sold.

III. THE CONDOMINIUM PROJECT

A. Interest to be Conveyed to Buyer:

- Fee Simple: Individual apartments and the common elements, which includes the underlying land, will be in fee simple.
- Leasehold or Subleasehold: Individual apartments and the common elements, which includes the underlying land will be leasehold.

Leases for the individual apartments and the underlying land usually require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee (apartment owner/tenant) deliver to the lessor (fee property owner) possession of the leased premises and all improvements, including improvements paid for by the lessee.

As long as the buyer is not in default, the buyer may continue to occupy the apartment and/or land on the same terms contained in the sublease even if the master lease is canceled or foreclosed.

- Individual Apartments in Fee Simple Common Interest in the Underlying Land in Leasehold or Subleasehold:

Leases for the underlying land usually require that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owners/tenants) deliver to the lessor (fee property owner) their interest in the land and that they either (1) remove or dispose of the building(s) and other improvements at the lessee's expense; or (2) convey the building(s) and improvements to the lessor, often at a specified price.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON LEASEHOLD CONDOMINIUM PROJECTS

The information contained in this report is a summary of the terms of the lease. For more detailed information, you should secure a copy of the lease documents and read them thoroughly.

If you have any legal questions about leasehold property, the lease documents or the terms of the lease and the consequences of becoming a lessee, you should seek the advice of an attorney.

There are currently no statutory provisions for the mandatory conversion of leasehold condominiums and there are no assurances that such measures will be enacted in the future.

In leasehold condominium projects, the buyer of an apartment will acquire the right to occupy and use the apartment for the time stated in the lease agreement. The buyer will not acquire outright or absolute fee simple ownership of the land. The land is owned by the lessor or the leased fee owner. The apartment owner or lessee must make lease rent payments and comply with the terms of the lease or be subject to the lessor's enforcement actions. The lease rent payments are usually fixed at specific amounts for fixed periods of time, and are then subject to renegotiation. Renegotiation may be based on a formula, by arbitration set in the lease agreement, by law or by agreement between the lessor and lessee. The renegotiated lease rents may increase significantly. At the end of the lease, the apartment owners may have to surrender the apartments, the improvements and the land back to the lessor without any compensation (surrender clause).

When leasehold property is sold, title is normally conveyed by means of an assignment of lease, the purpose of which is similar to that of a deed. The legal and practical effect is different because the assignment conveys only the rights and obligations created by the lease, not the property itself.

The developer of this condominium project may have entered into a master ground lease with the fee simple owner of the land in order to develop the project. The developer may have then entered into a sublease or a new lease of the land with the lessee (apartment owner). The developer may lease the improvements to the apartment owner by way of an apartment lease or sublease, or sell the improvements to the apartment owners by way of a condominium conveyance or apartment deed.

 Variance(s) to zoning code was/were granted as follows:

b. Conforming/Non-Conforming Uses, Structures, Lot

In general, a non-conforming use, structure, or lot is a use, structure, or lot which was lawful at one time but which does not now conform to present zoning requirements.

	Conforming	Non-Conforming	Illegal
Uses	  X  	          	          
Structures	  X  	          	          
Lot	  X  	          	          

If a variance has been granted or if uses, improvements or lot are either non-conforming or illegal, buyer should consult with county zoning authorities as to possible limitations which may apply.

Limitations may include restrictions on extending, enlarging, or continuing the non-conformity, and restrictions on altering and repairing structures. In some cases, a non-conforming structure that is destroyed or damaged cannot be reconstructed.

The buyer may not be able to obtain financing or insurance if the condominium project has a non-conforming or illegal use, structure, or lot.

D. Common Elements, Limited Common Elements, Common Interest:

1. Common Elements: Common Elements are those parts of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. Although the common elements are owned jointly by all apartment owners, those portions of the common elements which are designated as limited common elements (see paragraph 2 below) may be used only by those apartments to which they are assigned. The common elements for this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit   B  .

as follows:

2. Limited Common Elements: Limited Common Elements are those common elements which are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments.

There are no limited common elements in this project.

The limited common elements and the apartments which may use them, as described in the Declaration are:

described in Exhibit C*.

as follows:

*Note: Land areas referenced herein are not legally subdivided lots.

3. Common Interest: Each apartment will have an undivided fractional interest in all of the common elements. This interest is called the "common interest." It is used to determine each apartment's share of the maintenance fees and other common profits and expenses of the condominium. It may also be used for other purposes, including voting on matters requiring action by apartment owners. The common interests for the apartments in this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit D.

as follows:

- E. Encumbrances Against Title: An encumbrance is a claim against or a liability on the property or a document affecting the title or use of the property. Encumbrances may have an adverse effect on the property or your purchase and ownership of an apartment in the project.

Exhibit E describes the encumbrances against the title contained in the title report dated May 26, 1998 and issued by Title Guaranty of Hawaii, Inc.

Blanket Liens:

A blanket lien is an encumbrance (such as a mortgage) on the entire condominium project that secures some type of monetary debt (such as a loan) or other obligation. A blanket lien is usually released on an apartment-by-apartment basis upon payment of specified sums so that individual apartments can be conveyed to buyers free and clear of the lien.

[ X ] There are no blanket liens affecting title to the individual apartments. [See below]

[ ] There are blanket liens which may affect title to the individual apartments.

Blanket liens (except for improvement district or utility assessments) must be released before the developer conveys the apartment to a buyer. The Buyer's interest will be affected only if the developer defaults and the lien is foreclosed prior to conveying the apartment to buyer.

Type of Lien	Effect on Buyer's Interest and Deposit If Developer Defaults or Lien is Foreclosed Prior to Conveyance
NONE	NONE

F. Construction Warranties:

Warranties for individual apartments and the common elements, including the beginning and ending dates for each warranty, are as follows:

1. Building and Other Improvements:

No expenses or implied warranty is given for improvements. Improvements and Condominium Homes sold in "AS-IS" condition.

2. Appliances:

The Developer makes no warranty as to any appliances or other consumer products that may be installed in any Condominium Home or in the common elements. If there are any applicable manufacturer's or dealer's warranties relating to such appliances or other consumer products, the Developer will endeavor to assign and pass on to each owner the benefit of such warranties.

G. Status of Construction and Date of Completion or Date of Completion:

Construction of Unit A and B sheds was completed on April 27, 1998.

H. Project Phases:

The developer  has  has not reserved the right to add to, merge, or phase this condominium.

IV. CONDOMINIUM MANAGEMENT

- A. Management of the Common Elements: The Association of Apartment Owners is responsible for the management of the common elements and the overall operation of the condominium project. The Association may be permitted, and in some cases may be required, to employ or retain a condominium managing agent to assist the Association in managing the condominium project.

Initial Condominium Managing Agent: When the developer or the developer's affiliate is the initial condominium managing agent, the management contract must have a term of one year or less and the parties must be able to terminate the contract on notice of 60 days or less.

The initial condominium managing agent for this project, named on page five (5) of this report, is:

- [ ] not affiliated with the Developer [ ] the Developer or the Developer's affiliate.
[X] self-managed by the Association of Apartment Owners [ ] other _____

- B. Estimate of Initial Maintenance Fees:

The Association will make assessments against your apartment to provide funds for the operation and maintenance of the condominium project. If you are delinquent in paying the assessments, a lien may be placed on your apartment and the apartment may be sold through a foreclosure proceeding.

Initial maintenance fees are difficult to estimate and tend to increase as the condominium ages. Maintenance fees may vary depending on the services provided.

Exhibit __G*__ contains a schedule of estimated initial maintenance fees and maintenance fee disbursements (subject to change).

- C. Utility Charges for Apartments:

Each apartment will be billed separately for utilities except for the following checked utilities which are included in the maintenance fees:

Note: The Developer advises that costs and expenses of maintenance and operation of a condominium community are very difficult to estimate initially and even if such maintenance charges have been accurately estimated, such charges will tend to increase in an inflationary economy and as the improvements age. Maintenance charges can vary depending on services desired by apartment owners and may increase significantly depending on the level of services eventually selected by the Association's Board of Directors. The Buyer should examine the maintenance charges schedule to see what services are included in the schedule and address these issues with its Board upon its formation.

TO APPLICANTS FOR ADDITIONAL DWELLING UNIT (ADU)
INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS-

1. CHECK YOUR DEED FOR RESTRICTIONS ON DEVELOPMENT before you apply for your ADU permit. Some lots which are eligible for ADU are subject to restrictions or covenants which forbid a second dwelling on the lot. The ADU Ordinance does not supersede these restrictions. COMPLIANCE IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY. If you violate a deed restriction by building an ADU on your property, your neighbors could take you to court to enforce the restriction, and the court could order you to remove the ADU.
2. A plot plan drawn to scale SHALL be submitted with this clearance form for all government agencies to review. The plot plan SHALL be 8½ x 14 in size and identify the following:
  - a) All legal boundary lines of the lot under application;
  - b) All abutting streets with names;
  - c) All existing structures or improvements including cesspool(s), sewage disposal system(s), driveways, concrete slabs, etc;
  - d) The location of the proposed ADU and its approximate size;
  - e) The roadway(s) being proposed for access IF the property abuts more than one street; and
  - f) The location of the required two (2) additional parking stalls to accompany the ADU, and the existing two (2) parking stalls for the existing residence.
3. The applicant shall start with the Planning Department and return the form to the Planning Department after all the agencies have signed UNLESS an agency has determined that the property does not qualify for ADU.
4. There may be conditions imposed by the reviewing agencies to enable the applicant to qualify. It shall be the applicant's responsibility to resolve these conditions with the respective agency BEFORE proceeding to the next reviewing agency, except Public Works Department.
5. This clearance form is to determine whether a property QUALIFIES for an ADU. THERE MAY BE INSTANCES WHEN A PROPERTY DOES NOT QUALIFY. Due to provisions of the ADU law, government agencies cannot deviate from this law.
6. Copies of the Additional Dwelling Unit Ordinance No. 551 and the Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance No. 164, with amendments, can be obtained at the County Clerk's Office for a fee. It is recommended that a copy of each be obtained in order to familiarize yourself with the ordinance requirements.
7. Upon the successful completion of the Clearance form, and upon application for the building permit for the ADU, the following fees will be collected by the Planning Department:
  - a) Class II Zoning Permit Fee of $10.00;
  - b) A Park Fee of $150.00 for the ADU provided the primary residence on the property was built after May 20, 1977. No fee will be assessed if the primary residence was built prior to that date.
  - c) An Environmental Impact Assessment Fee of $250.00 per ADU provided the primary residence on the property was built after August 11, 1980. No fee will be assessed if the primary residence was constructed prior to that date.
per ADU.

THE ABOVE FEES SHALL BE PAID _____ and made payable to the "Director of Finance, County of Kauai"

9. The ADU shall comply with all Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance No. 164 requirements and standards.
10. If necessary, the Planning Department may conduct a field investigation in order to verify the accuracy of the plot plan. Staking out the structure may be required.
11. When a roadway right-of-way width is less than County Standards, the applicant SHALL BE REQUIRED to either dedicate land OR establish a road widening reserve to widen the roadway. THIS SHOULD NOT BE CONFUSED TO MEAN THAT THE PAVEMENT PORTION of the road is to be widened. Landowners on EACH side of the road will be required to provide their fair share to avoid one landowner being burdened with the road widening. DEDICATION involves conveying a portion of one's property to the County to widen the roadway. Establishing a RESERVE involves designating a portion of one's property for widening in place of dedicating land. The reserve will be recorded with the property and is intended to INFORM the landowner where the roadway may potentially be. No buildings are allowed in the reserve. Fences and walls may be permitted at the owner's choice. An AGREEMENT will be required to be executed and recorded to establish the reserve.
