This summary contains a general description of the changes, if any, made by the developer since the last public report was issued. It is not necessarily all inclusive. No prior reports have been issued by the developer.

Changes made are as follows:

SPECIAL NOTICE:

THERE ARE COUNTY RESTRICTIONS ON THE NUMBER OF RESIDENTIAL DWELLING UNITS, OR OTHER STRUCTURES, WHICH MAY BE BUILT UPON THE PROPERTY. THEREFORE, UNLESS THE PURCHASER IS PURCHASING AN EXISTING RESIDENTIAL DWELLING, THERE IS NO ASSURANCE THAT THE PURCHASER WILL BE ABLE TO BUILD A RESIDENTIAL DWELLING UNIT ON THE PROPERTY. THERE IS ALSO NO ASSURANCE THAT THE PURCHASER WILL BE ABLE TO CONVERT AN EXISTING NON-RESIDENTIAL STRUCTURE TO A RESIDENTIAL USE. THE PURCHASER SHOULD CONSULT WITH THE APPROPRIATE COUNTY AGENCIES TO DETERMINE WHETHER THE PURCHASER MAY BUILD A RESIDENTIAL DWELLING UNIT, OR ANY OTHER TYPE OF STRUCTURE, UPON THE PROPERTY.

1. Unit 3 is a greenhouse structure, which may be defined as an "apartment unit," under the Condominium Property Act.
2. This Public Report does not constitute approval of the project nor that all the County codes, ordinances and subdivision requirements have been complied with. Subsequent development and use shall comply with all applicable County Codes and ordinances.
3. This project does not involve the sale of individual subdivided lots. Dotted lines within the interior boundaries of the lot as they appear on the Condominium Map denote the areas designated as limited common elements and do not indicate subdivided lots.
4. Facilities and improvements normally associated with County approved subdivisions, such as fire protection devices, County street lighting, electricity, upgraded water facilities, improved access for owner and emerging traffic, drainage facilities, etc., may not necessarily be provided for, and services such as County street maintenance and trash collection will not be available for interior roads and driveways.

THE PROSPECTIVE PURCHASER IS CAUTIONED TO CAREFULLY REVIEW THE CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS FOR FURTHER INFORMATION WITH REGARD TO THE FOREGOING.

SPECIAL ATTENTION

The Developer has disclosed the following:

- (a) This is a CONDOMINIUM PROJECT, not a subdivision. The land area beneath the immediately appurtenant to each unit is designated a LIMITED COMMON ELEMENT and does not represent a legally subdivided lot. The dotted lines in the Condominium Map bounding the designated number of square feet in each limited common element land area are for illustration purposes only and should not be construed to be formal subdivision lines.
- (b) No sale of either unit is immediately contemplated, however, should this change, the sales contract that the Developer proposes to use stipulates that no warranties will be given to the purchaser as to the construction, materials or workmanship of the Units. The Units are being sold in "as is" condition (page 15).
- (c) No sales contracts shall be deemed binding this Final Public Report until the Developer submits to the Real Estate Commission an executed broker listing agreement and written confirmation that the existing escrow agreement with Island Title, Inc., dated January 29, 1999, is still in effect. The Sales Contract further provides that the purchaser will not have the right to sue the developer for damages and defects of the apartment (see page 15).

This public report does not constitute approval of the Project by the Real Estate Commission, nor does it ensure that all applicable County Codes, ordinances, and subdivision requirements have necessarily been complied with. THIS REPORT WAS DONE BY THE DEVELOPER, NOT AN ATTORNEY. THE PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS ARE CAUTIONED TO CAREFULLY REVIEW ALL DOCUMENTS REGARDING THIS CONDOMINIUM PROJECT FOR FURTHER INFORMATION WITH REGARD TO THE FORGOING.

General Information On Condominiums

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of the Condominium Property Act, Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, must be complied with. In addition, certain requirements and approvals of the County in which the project is located must be satisfied and obtained.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owners/tenants) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements at the lessee's expense. Leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

"Common elements" are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called "limited common elements" and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged or encumbered, and may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the project's Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without the vote of the owners. For example, the board may hire and fire employees, increase or decrease maintenance fees, borrow money for repair and improvements and set a budget. Some of these actions may significantly impact the apartment owners.

Until there is a sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is important to all apartment owners that the transition of control from the developer to the apartment owners be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

II. CREATION OF THE CONDOMINIUM; CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS

A condominium is created by recording in the Bureau of Conveyances and/or filing with the Land Court a Declaration of Condominium Property Regime, a Condominium Map (File Plan), and the Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners. The Condominium Property Act (Chapter 514A, HRS), the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules control the rights and obligations of the apartment owners with respect to the project and the common elements, to each other, and to their respective apartments. The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

- A. Declaration of Condominium Property Regime contains a description of the land, buildings, apartments, common elements, limited common elements, common interests, and other information relating to the condominium project.

The Declaration for this condominium is:

- Proposed
 Recorded - Bureau of Conveyances: Document No. 99-071415

The Bylaws for this condominium are:

- Proposed

Book _____ Page _____
 Filed - Land Court: Document No. _____

The Bylaws referred to above have been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

D. House Rules. The Board of Directors may adopt House Rules to govern the use and operation of the common elements and limited common elements. House Rules may cover matters such as parking regulations, hours of operation for common facilities such as recreation areas, use of lanais and requirements for keeping pets. These rules must be followed by owners, tenants, and guests. They do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective. The initial House Rules are usually adopted by the developer.

The House Rules for this condominium are:

Proposed Adopted Developer does not plan to adopt House Rules

E. Changes to Condominium Documents

Changes to the Declaration, Condominium Map, and Bylaws are effective only if they are duly adopted and recorded and/or filed. Changes to House Rules do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON LEASEHOLD CONDOMINIUM PROJECTS

The information contained in this report is a summary of the terms of the lease. For more detailed information, you should secure a copy of the lease documents and read them thoroughly.

If you have any legal questions about leasehold property, the lease documents or the terms of the lease and the consequences of becoming a lessee, you should seek the advice of an attorney.

There are currently no statutory provisions for the mandatory conversion of leasehold condominiums and there are no assurances that such measures will be enacted in the future.

In leasehold condominium projects, the buyer of an apartment will acquire the right to occupy and use the apartment for the time stated in the lease agreement. The buyer will not acquire outright or absolute fee simple ownership of the land. The land is owned by the lessor or the leased fee owner. The apartment owner or lessee must make lease rent payments and comply with the terms of the lease or be subject to the lessor's enforcement actions. The lease rent payments are usually fixed at specific amounts for fixed periods of time, and are then subject to renegotiation. Renegotiation may be based on a formula, by arbitration set in the lease agreement, by law or by agreement between the lessor and lessee. The renegotiated lease rents may increase significantly. At the end of the lease, the apartment owners may have to surrender the apartments, the improvements and the land back to the lessor without any compensation (surrender clause).

When leasehold property is sold, title is normally conveyed by means of an assignment of lease, the purpose of which is similar to that of a deed. The legal and practical effect is different because the assignment conveys only the rights and obligations created by the lease, not the property itself.

The developer of this condominium project may have entered into a master ground lease with the fee simple owner of the land in order to develop the project. The developer may have then entered into a sublease or a new lease of the land with the lessee (apartment owner). The developer may lease the improvements to the apartment owner by way of an apartment lease or sublease, or sell the improvements to the apartment owners by way of a condominium conveyance or apartment deed.

If a variance has been granted or if uses, improvements or lot are either non-conforming or illegal, buyer should consult with county zoning authorities as to possible limitations which may apply.

Limitations may include restrictions on extending, enlarging, or continuing the non-conformity, and restrictions on altering and repairing structures. In some cases, a non-conforming structure that is destroyed or damaged cannot be reconstructed.

The buyer may not be able to obtain financing or insurance if the condominium project has a non-conforming or illegal use, structure, or lot.

D. Common Elements, Limited Common Elements, Common Interest:

1. Common Elements: Common Elements are those parts of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. Although the common elements are owned jointly by all apartment owners, those portions of the common elements which are designated as limited common elements (see paragraph 2 below) may be used only by those apartments to which they are assigned. The common elements for this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit A .

as follows:

2. Limited Common Elements: Limited Common Elements are those common elements which are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments.

There are no limited common elements in this project.

described in Exhibit "A" *.

as follows:

* Note: Land areas referenced herein are not legally subdivided lots.

3. Common Interest: Each apartment will have an undivided fractional interest in all of the common elements. This interest is called the "common interest." It is used to determine each apartment's share of the maintenance fees and other common profits and expenses of the condominium project. It may also be used for other purposes, including voting on matters requiring action by apartment owners. The common interests for the apartments in this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit _____.

as follows:

Each unit and its owner(s) shall have appurtenant thereto a one-third (1/3) fractional interest (33.333 percentage interest in the common elements of the Project, for all purposes including voting, said interest being referred to as the "common interest".

- E. Encumbrances Against Title: An encumbrance is a claim against or a liability on the property or a document affecting the title or use of the property. Encumbrances may have an adverse effect on the property or your purchase and ownership of an apartment in the project.

Exhibit "B" describes the encumbrances against the title contained in the title report dated Sept 10, 1999 and issued by Fidelity National Title Insurance, Co.

Blanket Liens:

A blanket lien is an encumbrance (such as a mortgage) on the entire condominium project that secures some type of monetary debt (such as a loan) or other obligation. A blanket lien is usually released on an apartment-by-apartment basis upon payment of specified sums so that individual apartments can be conveyed to buyers free and clear of the lien.

[] There are no blanket liens affecting title to the individual apartments.

[x] There are blanket liens which may affect title to the individual apartments.

Blanket liens (except for improvement district or utility assessments) must be released before the developer conveys the apartment to a buyer. The buyer's interest will be affected if the developer defaults and the lien is foreclosed prior to conveying the apartment to buyer.

Type of Lien	Effect on Buyer's Interest and Deposit if Developer Defaults or Lien is Foreclosed Prior to Conveyance
Mortgage	In the event of foreclosure of either mortgage, Buyer's interest may be cancelled and Buyer would be entitled to a refund of deposits, less escrow cancellation fees. However, should Buyer's deposit be disbursed by Escrow and the lien be foreclosed prior to conveyance to Buyer, Buyer may not be able to recover any deposits.

F. Construction Warranties:

Warranties for individual apartments and the common elements, including the beginning and ending dates for each warranty, are as follows:

1. Building and Other Improvements:

All improvements are sold "as is" and there is no implied or expressed warranties of any type other than those which the developer expressly states in a contract to sell.

2. Appliances:

All appliances are sold "as is" and there is no implied or expressed warranties of any type. If any warranty is in effect and can be passed to the new owner, the developer shall do so.

G. Status of Construction and Estimated Completion Date:

All Units on the property had been completed by the filing of this report.

Unit 1 was completed in 1960.

Unit 2 and Unit 3 were completed in 1999.

H. Project Phases:

The developer [] has [] has not reserved the right to add to, merge, or phase this condominium.

Summary of Developer's plans or right to perform for future development (such as additions, mergers or phasing):

IV. CONDOMINIUM MANAGEMENT

- A. Management of the Common Elements: The Association of Apartment Owners is responsible for the management of the common elements and the overall operation of the condominium project. The Association may be permitted, and in some cases may be required, to employ or retain a condominium managing agent to assist the Association in managing the condominium project.

Initial Condominium Managing Agent: When the developer or the developer's affiliate is the initial condominium managing agent, the management contract must have a term of one year or less and the parties must be able to terminate the contract on notice of 60 days or less.

The initial condominium managing agent for this project, named on page five (5) of this report, is:

- not affiliated with the Developer the Developer or the Developer's affiliate.

Initial maintenance fees are difficult to estimate and tend to increase as the condominium ages. Maintenance fees may vary depending on the services provided.

Exhibit E contains a schedule of estimated initial maintenance fees and maintenance fee disbursements (subject to change).

DISCLOSURE ABSTRACT

KA 'IKENA O MAUNA LEO

Condominium Project

Pursuant to Section 514A-61, Hawaii Revised Statutes
Condominium Property Act

Developer

Kristine E. Williams
230 Ulana St.
Makawao, HI 96768

Project Manager

Project is to be self-managed

Estimated Maintenance Fee Assessments and Disbursements

MAINTENANCE FEES: The regular maintenance and repair of each condominium unit, including all utility charges, is the sole responsibility of each respective unit owner.

INDIVIDUAL INSURANCE: Section 514A-86, Hawaii Revised Statutes, requires that fire insurance be purchased to cover the improvements portion of the Project. Developer anticipates that the Association will elect to obtain separate policies for each individual condominium unit pursuant to Section XIV(c) of the Declaration. As such, the premiums on said policies will be the individual responsibility of each unit owner rather than common expenses of the Project.

Warranties

Purchasers should be aware that all "condominium units" of the Project are comprised of existing structures. Said buildings have unavoidably undergone a certain amount of "wear and tear" commensurate with their age. Accordingly, purchasers should not expect the unit they desire to buy to be in "like-new" condition. NO WARRANTIES FOR FITNESS OF USE OR MERCHANTABILITY OR ANY OTHER KIND ARE MADE AS TO THE INDIVIDUAL CONDOMINIUM UNITS OR THE COMMON ELEMENTS OF THE PROJECT (IF ANY). PURCHASERS ARE ADVISED TO CONDUCT THEIR OWN INSPECTION OF THE UNIT THEY DESIRE TO BUY. THE UNITS ARE SOLD "AS IS".

Use of Condominium Units

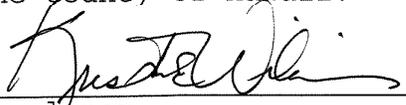

Both units comprising the Project may be occupied and used for residential and/or agricultural purposes, and such other purposes as permitted by applicable zoning ordinances.

Structural Components and Mechanical & Electrical Installations

Based on a report prepared by an independent registered architect, it is the Developer's opinion that all structural components and mechanical and electrical installations material to the use and enjoyment of the individual condominium units appear to be sound and in satisfactory working condition. However, NO REPRESENTATIONS OF ANY KIND ARE MADE AS TO THE EXPECTED USEFUL LIFE, IF ANY, OF THE STRUCTURAL COMPONENTS AND MECHANICAL AND ELECTRICAL INSTALLATIONS MATERIAL TO THE USE AND ENJOYMENT OF THE CONDOMINIUM UNIT(S).

Code Violations

To the best of the knowledge, information and belief of the undersigned, there are no outstanding notices of uncured violations of the building code or other municipal regulation of the County of Hawaii.

ARCHITECT'S REPORT

TMKN: (2) 3-4-036-007

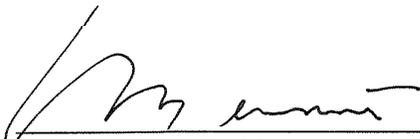

PROJECT: KA 'IKENA O MAUNA LEO

DATE: 10/19/99

On review of the Ka 'Ikena O Mauna Leo Condominium Project, I found the structural components, mechanical and electrical installations for the project to be sound and in satisfactory working condition. Their condition is commensurate with the age of the respective structures.

As to Unit 1, the roof and plumbing appear to have a remaining useful life of 10 to 30 years, depending on the maintenance done during that period. The electrical components, having been rewired in 1994, will likely last over 30 years, without some exterior source of damage. If properly maintained, the main wood frame structure will likely last from 20 to 40 years.

I assume no responsibility if the components of Unit 1 do not have as long a useful life as I have estimated, as many outside factors can affect a building's life. This should merely be a guideline to those it may concern.
