Changes made are as follows:

SPECIAL ATTENTION

This is a CONDOMINIUM PROJECT, not a subdivision. There are County restrictions on the number of residential dwelling units, or other structures, which may be built on the property. Therefore, unless the Purchaser is buying an existing residential dwelling, THERE IS NO ASSURANCE THAT THE PURCHASER WILL BE ABLE TO BUILD A RESIDENTIAL DWELLING UNIT ON THE PROPERTY. THERE IS ALSO NO ASSURANCE THAT THE PURCHASER WILL BE ABLE TO CONVERT AN EXISTING NON-RESIDENTIAL STRUCTURE TO A RESIDENTIAL USE. The Purchaser should consult with the appropriate County agencies to determine whether the Purchaser may build a residential dwelling unit, or any other type of structure on the property.

1. There are presently TWO AGRICULTURAL SHEDS ON THIS PROPERTY, each of which may be defined as an "apartment", under the condominium property act.
2. This public report does not constitute an approval of the project by the Real Estate Commission or any other government agency, nor does it warrant that all applicable County codes, ordinances, and subdivision requirements have necessarily been complied with.
3. The land area beneath and immediately appurtenant to each unit is designated a LIMITED COMMON ELEMENT and is not a legally subdivided lot. The dotted lines on the Condominium Map bounding the designated number of square feet in each limited common element land area are for illustrative purposes only and should not be construed to be the property lines of legally subdivided lots.

General Information On Condominiums

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of the Condominium Property Act, Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, must be complied with. In addition, certain requirements and approvals of the County in which the project is located must be satisfied and obtained.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owners/tenants) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements at the lessee's expense. Leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

"Common elements" are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called "limited common elements" and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged or encumbered, and may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the project's Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without the vote of the owners. For example, the board may hire and fire employees, increase or decrease maintenance fees, borrow money for repair and improvements and set a budget. Some of these actions may significantly impact the apartment owners.

Until there is a sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is important to all apartment owners that the transition of control from the developer to the apartment owners be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

II. CREATION OF THE CONDOMINIUM; CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS

A condominium is created by recording in the Bureau of Conveyances and/or filing with the Land Court a Declaration of Condominium Property Regime, a Condominium Map (File Plan), and the Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners. The Condominium Property Act (Chapter 514A, HRS), the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules control the rights and obligations of the apartment owners with respect to the project and the common elements, to each other, and to their respective apartments. The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

A. Declaration of Condominium Property Regime contains a description of the land, buildings, apartments, common elements, limited common elements, common interests, and other information relating to the condominium project.

The Declaration for this condominium is:

Proposed

Recorded - Bureau of Conveyances: Document No. 2001-098229

Book _____ Page _____

Filed - Land Court: Document No. _____

The Declaration referred to above has been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

The Condominium Map has been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

C. Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners govern the operation of the condominium project. They provide for the manner in which the Board of Directors of the Association of Apartment Owners is elected, the powers and duties of the Board, the manner in which meetings will be conducted, whether pets are prohibited or allowed and other matters which affect how the condominium project will be governed.

The Bylaws for this condominium are:

Proposed

Recorded - Bureau of Conveyances: Document No. 2001-098230

Book _____ Page _____

Filed - Land Court: Document No. _____

The Bylaws referred to above have been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

D. House Rules. The Board of Directors may adopt House Rules to govern the use and operation of the common elements and limited common elements. House Rules may cover matters such as parking regulations, hours of operation for common facilities such as recreation areas, use of lanais and requirements for keeping pets. These rules must be followed by owners, tenants, and guests. They do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective. The initial House Rules are usually adopted by the developer.

The House Rules for this condominium are:

Proposed Adopted Developer does not plan to adopt House Rules

E. Changes to Condominium Documents Changes to the Declaration, Condominium Map, and Bylaws are effective only if they are duly adopted and recorded and/or filed. Changes to House Rules do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON LEASEHOLD CONDOMINIUM PROJECTS

The information contained in this report is a summary of the terms of the lease. For more detailed information, you should secure a copy of the lease documents and read them thoroughly.

If you have any legal questions about leasehold property, the lease documents or the terms of the lease and the consequences of becoming a lessee, you should seek the advice of an attorney.

There are currently no statutory provisions for the mandatory conversion of leasehold condominiums and there are no assurances that such measures will be enacted in the future.

In leasehold condominium projects, the buyer of an apartment will acquire the right to occupy and use the apartment for the time stated in the lease agreement. The buyer will not acquire outright or absolute fee simple ownership of the land. The land is owned by the lessor or the leased fee owner. The apartment owner or lessee must make lease rent payments and comply with the terms of the lease or be subject to the lessor's enforcement actions. The lease rent payments are usually fixed at specific amounts for fixed periods of time, and are then subject to renegotiation. Renegotiation may be based on a formula, by arbitration set in the lease agreement, by law or by agreement between the lessor and lessee. The renegotiated lease rents may increase significantly. At the end of the lease, the apartment owners may have to surrender the apartments, the improvements and the land back to the lessor without any compensation (surrender clause).

When leasehold property is sold, title is normally conveyed by means of an assignment of lease, the purpose of which is similar to that of a deed. The legal and practical effect is different because the assignment conveys only the rights and obligations created by the lease, not the property itself.

The developer of this condominium project may have entered into a master ground lease with the fee simple owner of the land in order to develop the project. The developer may have then entered into a sublease or a new lease of the land with the lessee (apartment owner). The developer may lease the improvements to the apartment owner by way of an apartment lease or sublease, or sell the improvements to the apartment owners by way of a condominium conveyance or apartment deed.

Exhibit B describes the encumbrances against the title contained in the title report dated July 2, 2001 and issued by Title Guaranty of Hawaii, Inc.

Blanket Liens:

A blanket lien is an encumbrance (such as a mortgage) on the entire condominium project that secures some type of monetary debt (such as a loan) or other obligation. A blanket lien is usually released on an apartment-by-apartment basis upon payment of specified sums so that individual apartments can be conveyed to buyers free and clear of the lien.

[] There are no blanket liens affecting title to the individual apartments.

[x] There are blanket liens which may affect title to the individual apartments.

Blanket liens (except for improvement district or utility assessments) must be released before the developer conveys the apartment to a buyer. The buyer's interest will be affected if the developer defaults and the lien is foreclosed prior to conveying the apartment to buyer.

Type of Lien	Effect on Buyer's Interest and Deposit if Developer Defaults or Lien is Foreclosed Prior to Conveyance

C. Additional Information Not Covered Above

1. This project is subject to the terms and conditions of the Declaration of Restrictive Covenants and Conditions for Golden Pond Estates Subdivision recorded as Document No. 2000-180861. See Exhibit G for a copy of this agreement.
2. This project is subject to a 7 foot road widening reserve parallel to the north side of Waipouli Road, as shown on subdivision map prepared by Thomas Oi, Licensed Professional Surveyor, dated October 8, 1999.
3. County water service for this subdivision will be limited to the first dwelling unit per lot until the subdivision is provided with adequate transmission facilities for domestic and fire flows.; as shown on subdivision map prepared by Thomas H. Oi, Licensed Professional Land Surveyor, dated October 8, 1999. There is currently an operating water meter on Unit 1, the cost and maintenance of which shall be shared equally by both units.
4. The project shall be serviced by one wastewater system, the cost and maintenance of which shall be shared equally by both units. The waster water system shall be located on Unit 1 and Unit 1 shall grant a perpetual easement to Unit 2 for any maintenance, repair and/or hook-up that may be necessary.
5. The County of Kauai ordinances, rules and regulations permit only a house and a guest house until further improvements are made to the existing water line. Unit 1 shall have the right for the principal dwelling and Unit 2 shall have the guest house right until such a time that the County will allow two dwellings.
6. Maintenance fees. All costs of every kind pertaining to each apartment and its respective limited common element, including but not limited to, cost of landscaping, maintenance, repair, replacement and improvement shall be borne entirely by the respective owners. Section 514A-86, Hawaii Revised Statutes, requires the Association of Apartment Owners purchase fire insurance to cover the improvements of the Project, and that premiums be common expenses. Developer anticipates that the Association will elect to permit individual apartment owners to obtain and maintain separate policies of fire insurance and name the Association as an additional insured. In such case, fire insurance premiums will be the responsibility of individual apartment owners and not common expenses. Developer estimates such annual premium expense to be about $600.00 per year for Unit 1 and $600.00 per year for Unit 2. This estimate was prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.
7. Pursuant to sections 16-99-11(d), Hawaii Administration Rules ("HAR"), prospective purchasers are hereby advised that Developer Diane Treskon, RB-15498, is a current and active Hawaii real estate broker and is associated with Sleeping Giant Realty, Inc. 8. The Developer does not intend to sell Unit 2 of the project.

- D. The developer declares subject to the penalties set forth in section 514A-49(b) that this project is in compliance with all county zoning and building ordinances and codes, and all other county permitting requirements applicable to the project, pursuant to Act 251 (SLH 2000) [Section 514A-] (The developer is required to make this declaration for issuance of an effective date for a final public report.)
- E. The developer hereby certifies that all the information contained in this Report and the Exhibits attached to this Report and all documents to be furnished by the developer to buyers concerning the project have been reviewed by the developer and are, to the best of the developer's knowledge, information and belief, true, correct and complete.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, vehicle rental and vehicle repair businesses shall be specifically prohibited on any of the lots;

(bb) The condominiumizing of any lot within the Subdivision may be permitted if such condominiumizing does not result in a number of units or interest larger than the maximum number of two (2) farm dwellings permitted under this Declaration, notwithstanding that a larger number of units or interests than two may be permitted by law;

(cc) For a period of ten (1) years from the date hereof, no Owner of any lot within the Subdivision shall apply for or seek, directly or indirectly, any land use reclassification, zoning amendment, subdivision, variance or other governmental approval which would permit or result in a greater density of more than two (2) farm dwellings on the lot. After the said 10 year period, no Owner of any lot within the Subdivision shall apply for or seek, directly or indirectly, any land use reclassification, zoning amendment, subdivision, variance or other governmental approval which would permit or result in a greater density of more than two (2) farm dwellings on the lot without first obtaining the written approval of no less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the then owners of lots within the Subdivision;
