SPECIAL ATTENTION

1. THERE ARE COUNTY RESTRICTIONS ON THE NUMBER OF RESIDENTIAL DWELLING UNITS OR OTHER STRUCTURES WHICH MAY BE BUILT UPON THE PROPERTY. THE DEVELOPER HAS COMPLIED WITH ALL REQUIREMENTS OF THE COUNTY OF KAUAI, INCLUDING THE ACQUISITION OF AN "ADDITIONAL DWELLING UNIT FACILITIES CLEARANCE" SIGNED BY THE DEPARTMENTS OF PUBLIC WORKS, HEALTH, FIRE, WATER AND PLANNING. DESPITE THE FOREGOING, A PROSPECTIVE PURCHASER IS ADVISED TO REVIEW THIS CONDOMINIUM PROJECT WITH THE RESPECTIVE COUNTY PLANNING OFFICES TO RECEIVE THE MOST RECENT DIRECTIVES CONCERNING DEVELOPMENT, REPLACEMENT, EXPANSION, OR CONSTRUCTION OF ANY TYPE OF STRUCTURE FOR THE CONDOMINIUM PROJECT IN THE FUTURE. THERE ARE NO RESIDENTIAL STRUCTURES ON THE PROPERTY AT THIS TIME.

This is a CONDOMINIUM PROJECT, not a subdivision. It does not involve the sale of individual subdivided lots. The land beneath and immediately appurtenant to each unit is designated a LIMITED COMMON ELEMENT and not a legally subdivided lot. The dotted lines on the Condominium Map bounding the designated number of square feet in each limited common element's land area are for illustrative purposes only and should not be construed to be the property lines of legally subdivided lots.

2. There are presently two storage sheds on the property, each of which may be defined as an "apartment" or "unit" under the Condominium Property Act.

3. This project is within a State Land Use Agricultural District. Please see page 20 of this report for special requirements for residential dwellings within these districts.

4. This public report does not constitute approval of the Project by the Real Estate Commission, or any other government agency, nor does it ensure that all applicable County codes, ordinances and subdivision requirements have been complied with.

5. Facilities and improvements normally associated with county approved subdivisions, such as fire protection devices, County street lighting, electricity, upgraded water facilities, improved access for owner and emergency traffic, drainage facilities, etc., may not necessarily be provided for, and services such as County street maintenance and trash collection will not be available for interior roads and driveways.

6. THIS PUBLIC REPORT WAS DONE BY THE DEVELOPER AND NOT AN ATTORNEY. THE PROSPECTIVE PURCHASER IS CAUTIONED TO CAREFULLY REVIEW THE CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS REFERENCED IN THIS PUBLIC REPORT FOR FURTHER INFORMATION WITH REGARD TO THE FOREGOING.

General Information on Condominiums

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of the Condominium Property Act, Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, must be complied with. In addition, certain requirements and approvals of the County in which the project is located must be satisfied and obtained.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owners/tenants) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements at the lessee's expense. Leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

"Common elements" are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called "limited common elements" and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged or encumbered, and may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the project's Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or officer, or on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without the vote of the owners. For example, the board may hire and fire employees, increase or decrease maintenance fees, borrow money for repair and improvements and set a budget. Some of these actions may significantly impact the apartment owners.

Until there is a sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is important to all apartment owners that the transition of control from the developer to the apartment owners be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

II. CREATION OF THE CONDOMINIUM;

A condominium is created by recording in the Bureau of Conveyances and/or filing with the Land Court a Declaration of Condominium Property Regime, a Condominium Map (File Plan), and Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners. The Condominium Property Act (Chapter 514A, HRS) the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules control the rights and obligations of the apartment owners with respect to the project and the common elements, to each other, and to their respective apartments. The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

House Rules may govern matters such as parking regulations, hours of operation for common facilities such as recreation areas, use of lanais and requirements for keeping pets. These rules must be followed by owners, tenants, and guests. They do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective. The initial house rules are usually adopted by the developer.

The House Rules for this condominium are:

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON LEASEHOLD CONDOMINIUM PROJECTS

The information contained in this report is a summary of the terms of the lease. For more detailed information, you should secure a copy of the lease documents and read them thoroughly.

If you have any legal questions about leasehold property, the lease documents or the terms of the lease and the consequences of becoming a lessee, you should seek the advise of an attorney.

There are no statutory provisions for the mandatory conversion of leasehold condominiums and there are no assurances that such measures will be enacted in the future.

In leasehold condominium projects, the buyer of an apartment will acquire the right to occupy and use the apartment for the time stated in the lease agreement. The buyer will not acquire outright or absolute fee simple ownership of the land. The land is owned by the lessor or the leased fee owner. The apartment owner or lessee must make lease rent payments and comply with the terms of the lease or be subject to the lessor's enforcement actions. The lease rent payments are usually fixed at specific amounts for fixed periods of time, and are then subject to renegotiation. Renegotiation may be based on a formula, by arbitration set in the lease agreement, by law or by agreement between the lessor and lessee. The renegotiated lease rents may increase significantly. At the end of the lease, the apartment owners may have to surrender the apartments, the improvements and the land back to the lessor without any compensation (surrender clause).

When leasehold property is sold, title is normally conveyed by means of an assignment of lease, the purpose of which is similar to that of a deed. The legal and practical effect is different because the assignment conveys only the rights and obligations created by the lease, not the property itself.

The developer of this condominium project may have entered into a master ground lease with the fee simple owner of the land in order to develop the project. The developer may have then entered into a sublease or a new lease of the land with a lessee (apartment owner). The developer may lease the improvements to the apartment owner by way of an apartment lease or sublease, or sell the improvements to the apartment owners by way of a condominium conveyance or apartment deed.

11. Conformance to Present Zoning Code

- a. No variances to zoning code have been granted.
 Variance(s) to zoning code was/were granted as follows:

b. Conforming/Non-conforming Uses, Structures, Lot

In general, a non-conforming use, structure, or lot is a use, structure, or lot which was lawful at one time which does not now conform to present zoning requirements.

	Conforming	Non-Conforming	Illegal
Uses	X
Structures	X
Lot	X

If a variance has been granted or if uses, improvements or lot are either non-conforming or illegal, buyer should consult with county zoning authorities as to possible limitations which may apply.

Limitations may include restrictions on extending, enlarging, or continuing the non-conformity, and restrictions on altering and repairing structures. In some cases, a non-conforming structure that is destroyed or damaged cannot be reconstructed.

The buyer may not be able to obtain financing or insurance if the condominium project has a non-conforming or illegal use, structure, or lot.

D. Common Elements, Limited Common Elements, Common Interest:

1. Common Elements: Common elements are those parts of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. Although the common elements are owned jointly by all apartment owners, those portions of the common elements which are designed as limited common elements (see paragraph 2 below) may be used only by those apartments to which they are assigned. The common elements for this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit _____.

as follows:

The units, in aggregate, have immediate access to the common elements including: (a) the land in fee simple, (b) central and appurtenant installations for services such as electricity, telephone, TV cable, water, and like utilities, and (c) all other parts of the project existing for the common use or necessary for the existence, maintenance and safety of the project.

Note there are currently no common elements in this project.

2. Limited Common Elements: Limited Common Elements are those common elements which are reserved the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments.

There are no limited common elements in his project.

The limited common elements and the apartments which use them, as described in the Declaration, are.

described in Exhibit _____.

as follows:

*The land area under and surrounding each permitted structure as shown and delineated on the Condominium Map:

Unit A: one-story, enclosed tool shed on 1.334 acres

Unit B: one-story, enclosed tool shed on 1.186 acres

Note: Land areas referenced herein are not legally subdivided lots.

3. Common Interest: Each apartment will have an undivided fractional interest in all of the common elements. This interest is called the "common interest." It is used to determine each apartment's share of the maintenance fees and other common profits and expenses of the condominium project. It may also be used for other purposes, including voting on matters requiring action by apartment owners. The common interests for the apartments in his project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit _____.

as follows:

Unit A: 50% appurtenant common interest

Unit B: 50% appurtenant common interest

- E. Encumbrances Against Title: An encumbrance is a claim against or liability on the property or a document affecting the title or use of the property. Encumbrances may have an adverse effect on the property or your purchase and ownership of an apartment in the project.

Exhibit A describes the encumbrances against title contained in the title report dated August 15, 2001 and issued by Old Republic National Title Insurance Company

Blanket Liens:

A blanket lien is an encumbrance (such as a mortgage) on the entire condominium project that secures some type of monetary debt (such as a loan) or other obligation. A blanket lien is usually released on an apartment-by-apartment basis upon payment of specified sums so that individual apartments can be conveyed to buyers free and clear of the lien.

[X] There are no blanket liens affecting title to the individual apartments.

[] There are blanket liens which may affect title to the individual apartments.

Blanket liens (except for improvement district or utility assessments) must be released before the developer conveys the apartment to a buyer. The buyer's interest will be affected if the developer defaults and the lien is foreclosed prior to conveying the apartment to buyer.

C. Additional Information Not Covered Above

Developer will execute a Special Power of Attorney (Exhibit E) to assist unit buyers to acquire building permits for farm dwellings.

The lower portion (ravine area, currently covered in hau) of Unit A and Unit B is in a General Flood Plain Area, designation X-24. If a home site is chosen in this area there would be an additional insurance premium for the dwelling under the rules of the National Flood Insurance Program.

Purchaser should be aware that there is no public sewer system available, which requires the project to comply with the requirements of Chapter 11-62, HAR, "Wastewater Systems." The purchasers of each unit would bear the cost of designing and installing the wastewater system as part of their construction costs. The County of Kauai may allow the first unit applying for such a permit to use a cesspool; the second would require a septic system. Any prospective purchaser should verify requirements with the County of Kauai and seek design and installation estimates prior to proceeding.

The current cost of accessing public water for each unit is a $48 fee to hook-up to the existing water meter; (fee subject to change by the County of Kauai).

Residential Dwellings within State Land Use Agricultural District: Purchasers should be aware that the State Land Use Commission issued a Declaratory Ruling in December, 1994, regarding the construction of residential dwellings on properties located within the State Land use Agricultural District. In response to said ruling, the Kauai County Planning Department is requiring applicants for building permits on such lands to acknowledge receipt of a "Farm Dwelling Notice". This Farm Dwelling Notice reads as follows:

FARM DWELLING NOTICE

To: Applicants for Building Permits on Land in State Land use Agricultural District.

This is to inform you that Chapter 205, Hawaii Revised Statutes, does not authorize residential dwellings as a permissible use in an agricultural use district, unless the dwelling is related to an agricultural activity or is a "farm dwelling".

Farm Dwelling is defined in Chapter 205-4.5(a)(4) as "a single family dwelling located on and used in connection with a farm, including clusters of single-family dwellings permitted within agricultural parks developed by the State or where agricultural activity provides income to the family occupying the dwelling."

Penalty for violation of Section 205-4.5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is a fine of not more than $5,000.00. If any person who is cited for a violation of the law fails to remove the violation within six months of such citation and the violation continues, such person is subject to a citation for a new and separate violation. There shall be a fine of not more than $5,000.00 for any additional violation.
