General Information On Condominiums

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of the Condominium Property Act, Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, must be complied with. In addition, certain requirements and approvals of the County in which the project is located must be satisfied and obtained.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owners/tenants) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements at the lessee's expense. Leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

"Common elements" are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called "limited common elements" and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged or encumbered, and may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the project's Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without the vote of the owners. For example, the board may hire and fire employees, increase or decrease maintenance fees, borrow money for repair and improvements and set a budget. Some of these actions may significantly impact the apartment owners.

Until there is a sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is important to all apartment owners that the transition of control from the developer to the apartment owners be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

II. CREATION OF THE CONDOMINIUM; CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS

A condominium is created by recording in the Bureau of Conveyances and/or filing with the Land Court a Declaration of Condominium Property Regime, a Condominium Map (File Plan), and the Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners. The Condominium Property Act (Chapter 514A, HRS), the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules control the rights and obligations of the apartment owners with respect to the project and the common elements, to each other, and to their respective apartments. The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

A. Declaration of Condominium Property Regime contains a description of the land, buildings, apartments, common elements, limited common elements, common interests, and other information relating to the condominium project.

The Declaration for this condominium is:

The Bylaws for this condominium are:

D. House Rules. The Board of Directors may adopt House Rules to govern the use and operation of the common elements and limited common elements. House Rules may cover matters such as parking regulations, hours of operation for common facilities such as recreation areas, use of lanais and requirements for keeping pets. These rules must be followed by owners, tenants, and guests. They do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective. The initial House Rules are usually adopted by the developer.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON LEASEHOLD CONDOMINIUM PROJECTS

The information contained in this report is a summary of the terms of the lease. For more detailed information, you should secure a copy of the lease documents and read them thoroughly.

If you have any legal questions about leasehold property, the lease documents or the terms of the lease and the consequences of becoming a lessee, you should seek the advice of an attorney.

There are currently no statutory provisions for the mandatory conversion of leasehold condominiums and there are no assurances that such measures will be enacted in the future.

In leasehold condominium projects, the buyer of an apartment will acquire the right to occupy and use the apartment for the time stated in the lease agreement. The buyer will not acquire outright or absolute fee simple ownership of the land. The land is owned by the lessor or the leased fee owner. The apartment owner or lessee must make lease rent payments and comply with the terms of the lease or be subject to the lessor's enforcement actions. The lease rent payments are usually fixed at specific amounts for fixed periods of time, and are then subject to renegotiation. Renegotiation may be based on a formula, by arbitration set in the lease agreement, by law or by agreement between the lessor and lessee. The renegotiated lease rents may increase significantly. At the end of the lease, the apartment owners may have to surrender the apartments, the improvements and the land back to the lessor without any compensation (surrender clause).

When leasehold property is sold, title is normally conveyed by means of an assignment of lease, the purpose of which is similar to that of a deed. The legal and practical effect is different because the assignment conveys only the rights and obligations created by the lease, not the property itself.

The developer of this condominium project may have entered into a master ground lease with the fee simple owner of the land in order to develop the project. The developer may have then entered into a sublease or a new lease of the land with the lessee (apartment owner). The developer may lease the improvements to the apartment owner by way of an apartment lease or sublease, or sell the improvements to the apartment owners by way of a condominium conveyance or apartment deed.

| | Conforming | Non-Conforming | Illegal |

If a variance has been granted or if uses, improvements or lot are either non-conforming or illegal, buyer should consult with county zoning authorities as to possible limitations which may apply.

Limitations may include restrictions on extending, enlarging, or continuing the non-conformity, and restrictions on altering and repairing structures. In some cases, a non-conforming structure that is destroyed or damaged cannot be reconstructed.

The buyer may not be able to obtain financing or insurance if the condominium project has a non-conforming or illegal use, structure, or lot.

D. Common Elements, Limited Common Elements, Common Interest:

- 1. Common Elements: Common Elements are those parts of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. Although the common elements are owned jointly by all apartment owners, those portions of the common elements which are designated as limited common elements (see paragraph 2 below) may be used only by those apartments to which they are assigned. The common elements for this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit F.

2. Limited Common Elements: Limited Common Elements are those common elements which are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments.

There are no limited common elements in this project.

The limited common elements and the apartments which use them, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit F.

Note: Land areas referenced herein are not legally subdivided lots.

3. Common Interest: Each apartment will have an undivided fractional interest in all of the common elements. This interest is called the "common interest." It is used to determine each apartment's share of the maintenance fees and other common profits and expenses of the condominium project. It may also be used for other purposes, including voting on matters requiring action by apartment owners. The common interests for the apartments in this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit _____.

as follows: 50% for each apartment

E. Encumbrances Against Title: An encumbrance is a claim against or a liability on the property or a document affecting the title or use of the property. Encumbrances may have an adverse effect on the property or your purchase and ownership of an apartment in the project.

Exhibit G describes the encumbrances against the title contained in the title report dated April 25, 2002 and issued by Island Title Corporation.

Blanket Liens:

A blanket lien is an encumbrance (such as a mortgage) on the entire condominium project that secures some type of monetary debt (such as a loan) or other obligation. A blanket lien is usually released on an apartment-by-apartment basis upon payment of specified sums so that individual apartments can be conveyed to buyers free and clear of the lien.

[] There are no blanket liens affecting title to the individual apartments.

[X] There are blanket liens which may affect title to the individual apartments.

Blanket liens (except for improvement district or utility assessments) must be released before the developer conveys the apartment to a buyer. The buyer's interest will be affected if the developer defaults and the lien is foreclosed prior to conveying the apartment to buyer.

| Type of Lien | Effect on Buyer's Interest and Deposit if Developer Defaults or Lien is Foreclosed Prior to Conveyance |
| First Mortgage, Security Agreement and Financing Statement and Absolute Assignment of Rentals and Lessor's Interest in Leases | If Developer defaults prior to conveyance of an apartment to a buyer, the buyer's interest could be terminated. In that event, the buyer's deposit would be returned as set forth in the Sales Contract. |

F. Construction Warranties:

Warranties for individual apartments and the common elements, including the beginning and ending dates for each warranty, are as follows:

1. Building and Other Improvements:

See Exhibit H

2. Appliances:

See Exhibit H

G. Status of Construction and Date of Completion or Estimated Date of Completion:

Construction of both apartments has begun, and they are estimated to be completed by June 30, 2002.

H. Project Phases:

The developer [] has [X] has not reserved the right to add to, merge, or phase this condominium.

6. Warranties: Developer disclaims any warranties, either express or implied, including any implied warranty of habitability, with respect to the Project, the units or their contents. Developer will not be liable to any persons for any construction or other defects, including any latent or hidden defects in the Project, the units or anything contained therein. This means that unit owners will not have the right to file any lawsuit for damages against Developer for any defects discovered by the unit owners.

¹While HRS §514A-86 requires the Association of Apartment Owners to purchase a fire insurance policy to cover the improvements of the projects and specifies that premiums for the policy are common expenses, the Developer anticipates that the Association will elect to permit apartment owners to obtain and maintain separate fire insurance policies and name the Association as an additional insured. In such case, fire insurance premiums will be the responsibility of the apartment owner and not common expenses. Developer estimates the annual premium to be $1,300 per apartment, which includes hurricane coverage, for a $250,000 policy. In addition, Developer estimates that the annual premium for liability insurance covering the "Common Element" driveway area to be $400 per apartment if obtained separately by each owner or $200 per apartment if obtained by the Association. These estimates were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

However, pursuant to the construction contract between the Developer and the Project's general contractor, the general contractor warranted that (a) the materials and equipment furnished under the contract will be new and of good quality unless otherwise required or permitted by the "Contract Documents" (as defined in the contract); (b) the "Work" (as defined in the contract) will be free from defects not inherent in the quality required or permitted; and (c) the Work will conform to the requirements of the Contract Documents; and the contractor agreed for a period of one (1) year after "Substantial Completion" (as defined in the contract) to correct work not conforming to the requirements of the Contract Documents. The Developer will assign said warranty, together with all transferable manufacturer's and dealer's warranties covering all appliances installed in the units by Developer, to the first owner of each unit. No owner will have any recourse against the Developer under any of said warranties.

7. Number of Apartments; Permitted Use. The Project contains two (2) apartments, both of which are intended for residential use. There is no commercial development in the Project.

Each apartment shall be occupied and used only as private dwellings by the respective owners thereof, their tenants, families, domestic servants and social guests. No apartment shall be used as a tenement or rooming house or for or in connection with the carrying on of any business, trade or profession whatsoever. The respective residential apartments shall not be rented by the residential apartment owners thereof for transient or hotel purposes, nor in connection with any time-sharing purpose. Other than the foregoing restrictions, the residential apartment owners of the respective apartments shall have the absolute right to lease the same, provided that such lease covers an entire residential apartment, is in writing and is made subject to the covenants and restrictions contained in the Declaration and By-Laws for the Project, as amended.

8. Kahala Kua. The Project is located within and is a part of the Kahala Kua single-family residential subdivision. Each unit owner, upon acquiring his or her unit, shall automatically become a member of the Association of Owners of Kahala Kua, a nonprofit Hawaii corporation, aka the Kahala Kua Community Association (the "Kahala Kua Association"), and shall remain a member of the Kahala Kua Association until such time as his/her ownership of a unit ceases. The Kahala Kua Association is separate from the Association of Apartment Owners of 5607 Poola Street. All unit owners and other persons and entities acquiring any right, title or interest in the Project, are subject to, bound by and shall comply with the provisions of Kahala Kua Declaration of Covenants and Restrictions dated December 23, 1994 and recorded in the Bureau of Conveyances of the State of Hawaii as Document No. 95-006505, as amended, the Articles of Incorporation of the Association of Owners of Kahala Kua, as amended, the Bylaws of the Kahala Kua Community Association, as amended, and all rules and regulations promulgated by the Kahala Kua Association. Pursuant to said Declaration of Covenants and Restrictions, the Kahala Kua Association is authorized to impose assessments to cover expenses incurred by the Kahala Kua Association for, among other things, the maintenance and repair of the common areas and improvements located within the Kahala Kua subdivision of which the Project is a part. As such, each unit owner shall be responsible for paying all assessments imposed against his/her unit by the Kahala Kua Association, which assessments shall be separate from and in addition to, any assessments imposed by the Association of Apartment Owners of Kuaola Street.

The Developer has not conducted a reserve study in accordance with Section 514A-83.6, Hawaii Revised Statutes, and the replacement reserve rules, Subchapter 6, Title 16, Chapter 107, Hawaii Administrative Rules, as amended.

In paragraph U of the Declaration, the Developer reserves the right for itself and its agents, until such time as all the apartments in the Project are sold, to:

A. Grant utility and access easements and quitclaim any easements in favor of the Project which are not required for the Project. Apartment owners agree, upon request, to join in and execute any and all documents designating, granting and quitclaiming any such easements.

B. Amend the Declaration, the Condominium Map and By-Laws consistent with any grants or reservations of the Developer under the Declaration.

C. Conduct sales of apartments at the Project, including, but not limited to, maintaining model apartments, operating a sales office, conducting advertising, placing signs, using parking spaces and erecting lighting in connection with such sales.

D. Amend the Declaration, the By-Laws and the Condominium Map, without the approval, consent or joinder of any purchaser or owner of an apartment, to make such amendments as may be required by law, by the Real Estate Commission of the State of Hawaii, by any title insurance company issuing a title insurance policy on the Project or any of the apartments, by any institutional lender lending funds on the security of the Project or any of the apartments, by any purchaser, insurer or guarantor of loans, including, for example, the Federal National Mortgage Association or Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, to enable it to purchase, insure or guarantee a loan made on the security of the Project or any of the apartments, or by any governmental agency.

E. Reconfigure the Project or any unit with respect to which a deed has not been recorded.

F. To record the "as-built" verified statement required by Section 514A-12 of the Act, as each unit is completed.

The Developer, as Seller, reserves the right to modify all documents related to the Project, including the Declaration, By-Laws, Condominium Map, Condominium Deed, Disclosure Abstract and any exhibits to such documents, to alter the Project and the units (and to modify said documents accordingly).

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Seller reserves the right to change the configurations of, or to alter the number of rooms of or to decrease or increase the size of, or to change the location of any apartment in accordance with complete plans and specifications therefor prepared by a licensed architect, and to make other changes in the apartments and in the common elements, and to increase or decrease the purchase price of the Unit or any other unit in the Project.

PROSPECTIVE OWNERS SHOULD READ AND UNDERSTAND ALL OF THE PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE DEVELOPER'S RESERVED RIGHTS CONTAINED IN THE AFORESAID DOCUMENTS.

EXHIBIT C

SPECIAL USE RESTRICTIONS

The following provisions in the Declaration and By-Laws, as indicated, contain restrictions on the use of the apartments and the common elements of the Project:

I. DECLARATION

Paragraph H.5 of the Declaration provides that each unit shall have a non-exclusive easement over the "Common Element" driveway area designated on the Condominium Map, and a non-exclusive easement over Easement "R-5" which is located adjacent to said driveway area, for the purpose of ingress, egress and access to and from the Project to the portion of Poola Street within the Kahala Kua subdivision project which is a private road, and then to that portion of Poola Street which is a public road. Easement "R-5" is also intended to be used by the owner(s) of the adjacent Lot 84 shown on the Condominium Map, for the aforesaid purpose. The terms and conditions for the use, maintenance, benefits and obligations of Easement R-5 are contained in that certain Grant of Easement R-5 dated August 4, 2000, recorded in the Bureau of Conveyances as Document No. 2000-108456.

Pursuant to paragraph J of the Declaration, each unit shall be occupied and used only as private dwellings by the respective owners thereof, their tenants, families, domestic servants and social guests. No unit shall be used as a tenement or rooming house or for or in connection with the carrying on of any business, trade or profession whatsoever. The units shall not be rented by the owners thereof for transient or hotel purposes, as defined in the Declaration. Neither said units nor any interest therein shall be sold, transferred, conveyed, leased, occupied, rented or used for or in connection with any time-sharing purpose or under any time-sharing plan, arrangement or program, including without limitation any so-called "vacation license", "travel club membership" or "time-interval ownership" arrangement. Other than the foregoing restrictions, the unit owners shall have the absolute right to lease the same, provided that such lease covers an entire apartment, is in writing and is made subject to the covenants and restrictions contained in the Declaration and in the By-Laws.

II. BY-LAWS

Article VIII, Section 5 of the By-Laws lists a variety of restrictions affecting the use of the apartments and common elements, including, without limitation, restrictions as to the posting of advertisements, posters or other signs on or about the Project; noise; disposal of garbage; uses which may cause an increase in the ordinary premium rates or cancellation or invalidation of any insurance maintained by or for the Board; noxious or offensive activities; the storage of furniture, packages or other objects which could obstruct transit through the common elements; the construction or placement in the Project of any building or structure; the alteration of any common elements of the Project; installation or maintenance of any television or other antennas in the Project; and the keeping of pets.

III. DECLARATION RELATING TO ROCK WALL AND CHAINLINK FENCE AFFECTING UNIT B OF PARCEL 114 AND LOT 84

The Project is also affected by a Declaration Relating to Rock Wall and Chainlink Fence Affecting Unit B of Parcel 114 and Lot 84 dated July 24, 2001, recorded in the Bureau of Conveyances of the State of Hawaii as Document No. 2001-115005. According to this document, there is a rock wall and chain link fence which are located on parts of the Project (including the common element driveway of the Project and the limited common element land areas appurtenant to each unit) and on other property outside of the Project. The document contains the terms and conditions for the use, maintenance, benefits and obligations of the rock wall and chain link fence.

THIS EXHIBIT CONTAINS ONLY A BRIEF SUMMARY OF CERTAIN USE PROVISIONS STATED IN THE DECLARATION AND BY-LAWS, AND OF THE DECLARATION RELATING TO ROCK WALL AND CHAINLINK FENCE AFFECTING UNIT B OF PARCEL 114 AND LOT 84. PROSPECTIVE OWNERS SHOULD READ AND UNDERSTAND ALL OF THE USE RELATED PROVISIONS CONTAINED IN THE AFORESAID DOCUMENTS.

EXHIBIT D

PERMITTED ALTERATIONS TO APARTMENTS

The Declaration and By-Laws permit alterations to the apartments as follows:

I. DECLARATION

Paragraph Q of the Declaration provides that restoration or replacement of any unit or construction of any additional improvements, alterations or additions to any unit different in any material respect from the Condominium Map of the Project shall be undertaken by a unit owner, subject to the conditions set forth below:

1. All plans and specifications therefor shall comply with applicable setback requirements, building codes and zoning ordinances.

2. No unit shall be changed so as to reduce the distance between improvements placed on each land area to less than the distance shown on the Condominium Map without the consent of the other owner, and no change to a unit shall be made if the effect of such change would be to exceed the unit's proportionate share of the allowable floor area or lot area coverage for the land on which the Project is located, pursuant to the then applicable zoning and building codes. The proportionate share for each unit shall be the same as its percentage interest in the common elements.

3. All changes shall be at the sole expense of the unit owner making such changes and shall be completed expeditiously and in a manner that will not unreasonably interfere with the other unit owners' use of their units or land areas.

4. During construction, the unit owner making such changes will obtain at its sole expense builder's all-risk insurance in an amount not less than the estimated cost of construction, and the Association shall be named as additional insured.

5. Promptly upon completion of such restoration, replacement or construction, the owner shall duly record or file of record an amendment to the Declaration, together with a complete set of floor plans of the unit as so altered, certified as built by a registered architect or professional engineer; provided, however, that notwithstanding any provision in this Declaration to the contrary, any alterations or additions within a unit may be undertaken without an amendment to this Declaration or filing of a complete set of floor plans of the unit so altered. All present and future unit owners and their mortgagees, by accepting an interest in a unit in the Project, shall be deemed to have given each unit owner a power of attorney to execute such an amendment to this Declaration, so that each unit owner shall have a power of attorney from all other unit owners to execute such an amendment. This power of attorney shall be deemed coupled with each owner's interest in such owner's unit and shall be irrevocable.

6. Each conveyance, lease and mortgage or other lien made or created on any unit in the Project and all common interests and other appurtenances thereto shall be subject to the provisions of this paragraph Q.

Developer does not give any assurances that the units can be expanded and Developer does not give any assurances that variances are obtainable from the City and County of Honolulu for any proposed improvements.

II. BY-LAWS

Article VIII, Section 4 of the By-Laws prohibits any owner from doing any work which could jeopardize the soundness or safety of the Project, reduce the value thereof, or impair any easement or hereditament, nor may any owner add any material structure or excavate any additional basement or cellar, without in every such case the consent of seventy-five percent (75%) of the owners, together with the consent of all owners whose units or limited common elements appurtenant thereto are directly affected, being first obtained.

THIS EXHIBIT CONTAINS EXCERPTS OF THE PROVISIONS CONTAINED IN THE DECLARATION AND THE BY-LAWS RESPECTING PERMITTED ALTERATIONS TO THE APARTMENTS. PROSPECTIVE OWNERS SHOULD READ AND UNDERSTAND ALL OF THE PROVISIONS RELATING TO PERMITTED ALTERATIONS CONTAINED IN THE AFORESAID DOCUMENTS.

The limited common element land area appurtenant to each unit is indicated on the Condominium Map and contains the following approximate number of square feet:

|--------|--------------------|
| Unit A | 10,236 square feet |
| Unit B | 7,000 square feet |

Notwithstanding any provision herein or in the By-Laws to the contrary all costs of every kind pertaining to each limited common element, including but not limited to, costs of landscaping, maintenance, repair, replacements, additions and improvements, shall be charged to and borne entirely by the owner(s) of the unit(s) to which it is appurtenant. Expenses which are attributable to more than one (1) mailbox or land area shall be allocated among the affected mailboxes or land areas on a per mailbox or land area basis. Buyer understands that under said Declaration of Covenants and Restrictions, the Kahala Kua Association is authorized to impose assessments to cover expenses incurred by the Kahala Kua Association for, among other things, the maintenance and repair of the common areas and improvements located within the Kahala Kua subdivision of which the Project is a part. As such, Buyer shall be responsible for paying all assessments imposed against Buyer's unit by the Kahala Kua Association, which assessments shall be separate from and in addition to, any assessments imposed by the Association of Apartment Owners of Kuaola Street.

Cancellation Rights. In addition to any other rights of cancellation or termination reserved to Seller, if Buyer's initial deposit check is returned for insufficient funds, Seller reserves the right to return Buyer's check or payments, without interest and less the processing and cancellation fee imposed by Escrow Agent and any other actual expenses. Until Seller so elects to cancel the Contract, it shall remain in full force and effect. If Buyer (or any one of them if Buyer is more than one person) should die prior to closing, then either Buyer or Seller has the right to cancel this Contract, and upon such cancellation, Seller will return Buyer's check or payment, without interest and less the processing and cancellation fee imposed by Escrow Agent and any other actual expenses. Until either party so elects to cancel the Contract, it shall remain in full force and effect.

Buyer's Right To Rescind. Buyer has the right to rescind the Contract under the following terms:

(a) Except for any additions, deletions, modifications and reservations made pursuant to the terms of the Declaration, if there is a material change in the Project which directly, substantially and adversely affects the use or value of (1) Buyer's Unit or appurtenant limited common elements, or (2) those amenities of the Project available for Buyer's use, Buyer shall have the right to rescind the sale and to receive a prompt and full refund of any monies paid. Buyer's right of rescission is waived upon satisfaction of certain specified conditions.

Default. If Buyer defaults in any payment when required or fail to perform any other obligations required of Buyer and shall fail to cure such default within ten (10) days after receipt of written notice thereof from Seller, Seller may, at Seller's option, terminate the Contract by written notice to Buyer. In the event of such default, the sums paid by Buyer prior to such default shall belong to Seller as liquidated damages. In addition, Buyer shall pay all fees for the preparation of documents in connection with Buyer's proposed purchase of the Unit. Seller may also pursue any other remedy at law or in equity for specific performance, damages, and all costs, including attorneys' fees, incurred by reason of default by Buyer shall be borne by Buyer.

If Seller defaults in the performance of any obligation required of Seller under the Contract, Buyer shall be entitled to specific performance of the Contract or Buyer shall have the right to cancel the Contract. In the event of such cancellation, Seller shall repay to Buyer all sums paid by Buyer to Seller or Escrow Agent, and, in addition, Seller shall pay Buyer ONE HUNDRED AND NO/100 DOLLARS ($100.00) as liquidated damages for Seller's default. Buyer expressly waives any other right or remedy against Seller.
