General Information On Condominiums

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of the Condominium Property Act, Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, must be complied with. In addition, certain requirements and approvals of the County in which the project is located must be satisfied and obtained.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owners/tenants) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements at the lessee's expense. Leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

"Common elements" are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called "limited common elements" and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged or encumbered, and may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the project's Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without the vote of the owners. For example, the board may hire and fire employees, increase or decrease maintenance fees, borrow money for repair and improvements and set a budget. Some of these actions may significantly impact the apartment owners.

Until there is a sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is important to all apartment owners that the transition of control from the developer to the apartment owners be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

II. CREATION OF THE CONDOMINIUM; CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS

A condominium is created by recording in the Bureau of Conveyances and/or filing with the Land Court a Declaration of Condominium Property Regime, a Condominium Map (File Plan), and the Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners. The Condominium Property Act (Chapter 514A, HRS), the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules control the rights and obligations of the apartment owners with respect to the project and the common elements, to each other, and to their respective apartments. The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

- A. Declaration of Condominium Property Regime contains a description of the land, buildings, apartments, common elements, limited common elements, common interests, and other information relating to the condominium project.

The Declaration for this condominium is:

		Book	                     Page                     
<input type="checkbox"/> Filed -	Land Court:	Document No.	                    

The Declaration referred to above has been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

- B. Condominium Map (File Plan) shows the floor plan, elevation and layout of the condominium project. It also shows the floor plan, location, apartment number, and dimensions of each apartment.

The Condominium Map for this condominium project is:

The Condominium Map has been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

- C. Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners govern the operation of the condominium project. They provide for the manner in which the Board of Directors of the Association of Apartment Owners is elected, the powers and duties of the Board, the manner in which meetings will be conducted, whether pets are prohibited or allowed and other matters which affect how the condominium project will be governed.

The Bylaws for this condominium are:

The Bylaws referred to above have been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

D. House Rules. The Board of Directors may adopt House Rules to govern the use and operation of the common elements and limited common elements. House Rules may cover matters such as parking regulations, hours of operation for common facilities such as recreation areas, use of lanais and requirements for keeping pets. These rules must be followed by owners, tenants, and guests. They do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective. The initial House Rules are usually adopted by the developer.

The House Rules for this condominium are:

Proposed                       Adopted                       Developer does not plan to adopt House Rules

E. Changes to Condominium Documents

Changes to the Declaration, Condominium Map, and Bylaws are effective only if they are duly adopted and recorded and/or filed. Changes to House Rules do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON LEASEHOLD CONDOMINIUM PROJECTS

The information contained in this report is a summary of the terms of the lease. For more detailed information, you should secure a copy of the lease documents and read them thoroughly.

If you have any legal questions about leasehold property, the lease documents or the terms of the lease and the consequences of becoming a lessee, you should seek the advice of an attorney.

There are currently no statutory provisions for the mandatory conversion of leasehold condominiums and there are no assurances that such measures will be enacted in the future.

In leasehold condominium projects, the buyer of an apartment will acquire the right to occupy and use the apartment for the time stated in the lease agreement. The buyer will not acquire outright or absolute fee simple ownership of the land. The land is owned by the lessor or the leased fee owner. The apartment owner or lessee must make lease rent payments and comply with the terms of the lease or be subject to the lessor's enforcement actions. The lease rent payments are usually fixed at specific amounts for fixed periods of time, and are then subject to renegotiation. Renegotiation may be based on a formula, by arbitration set in the lease agreement, by law or by agreement between the lessor and lessee. The renegotiated lease rents may increase significantly. At the end of the lease, the apartment owners may have to surrender the apartments, the improvements and the land back to the lessor without any compensation (surrender clause).

When leasehold property is sold, title is normally conveyed by means of an assignment of lease, the purpose of which is similar to that of a deed. The legal and practical effect is different because the assignment conveys only the rights and obligations created by the lease, not the property itself.

The developer of this condominium project may have entered into a master ground lease with the fee simple owner of the land in order to develop the project. The developer may have then entered into a sublease or a new lease of the land with the lessee (apartment owner). The developer may lease the improvements to the apartment owner by way of an apartment lease or sublease, or sell the improvements to the apartment owners by way of a condominium conveyance or apartment deed.

Developer has elected to provide the information in a published announcement or advertisement.

11. Conformance to Present Zoning Code

- a.  No variances to zoning code have been granted.
 Variance(s) to zoning code was/were granted as follows:

b. Conforming/Non-Conforming Uses, Structures, Lot

In general, a non-conforming use, structure, or lot is a use, structure, or lot which was lawful at one time but which does not now conform to present zoning requirements.

	Conforming	Non-Conforming	Illegal
Uses	X	_____	_____
Structures	X	_____	_____
Lot	X	_____	_____

If a variance has been granted or if uses, improvements or lot are either non-conforming or illegal, buyer should consult with county zoning authorities as to possible limitations which may apply.

Limitations may include restrictions on extending, enlarging, or continuing the non-conformity, and restrictions on altering and repairing structures. In some cases, a non-conforming structure that is destroyed or damaged cannot be reconstructed.

The buyer may not be able to obtain financing or insurance if the condominium project has a non-conforming or illegal use, structure, or lot.

D. Common Elements, Limited Common Elements, Common Interest:

1. Common Elements: Common Elements are those parts of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. Although the common elements are owned jointly by all apartment owners, those portions of the common elements which are designated as limited common elements (see paragraph 2 below) may be used only by those apartments to which they are assigned. The common elements for this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit C.

as follows:

2. Limited Common Elements: Limited Common Elements are those common elements which are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments.

There are no limited common elements in this project.

The limited common elements and the apartments which use them, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit  D ;

as follows:

NOTE: Reference to said Exhibit "D" to "Exclusive Use Areas" does not mean legally subdivided lots.

3. Common Interest: Each apartment will have an undivided fractional interest in all of the common elements. This interest is called the "common interest." It is used to determine each apartment's share of the maintenance fees and other common profits and expenses of the condominium project. It may also be used for other purposes, including voting on matters requiring action by apartment owners. The common interests for the apartments in this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit _____.

as follows:

Unit A - 25%
Unit B - 25%
Unit C - 25%
Unit D - 25%

- E. Encumbrances Against Title: An encumbrance is a claim against or a liability on the property or a document affecting the title or use of the property. Encumbrances may have an adverse effect on the property or your purchase and ownership of an apartment in the project.

Exhibit  E  describes the encumbrances against the title contained in the title report dated  October 10, 2002  and issued by  Hawaii Escrow & Title, Inc. .

Blanket Liens:

A blanket lien is an encumbrance (such as a mortgage) on the entire condominium project that secures some type of monetary debt (such as a loan) or other obligation. A blanket lien is usually released on an apartment-by-apartment basis upon payment of specified sums so that individual apartments can be conveyed to buyers free and clear of the lien.

[ ] There are no blanket liens affecting title to the individual apartments.

[ x ] There are blanket liens which may affect title to the individual apartments.

Blanket liens (except for improvement district or utility assessments) must be released before the developer conveys the apartment to a buyer. The buyer's interest will be affected if the developer defaults and the lien is foreclosed prior to conveying the apartment to buyer.

Type of Lien	Effect on Buyer's Interest and Deposit if Developer Defaults or Lien is Foreclosed Prior to Conveyance
Mortgages	Buyer's interest may be terminated by mortgagee but Buyer shall be entitled to return of his deposit, less escrow cancellation fee.

1. Building and Other Improvements:

Developer is giving no warranties to Purchaser on the materials and workmanship of the Units.

DEVELOPER'S RESERVED RIGHTS

CHANGE PER DECLARATION

The Developer (Declarant) has reserved the following rights to change the Declaration, Condominium Map, By-Laws or House Rules:

Paragraph 21 of the Declaration states:

"Except as otherwise provided herein, this Declaration may be amended by vote of seventy-five percent (75%) of the Unit Owners, effective only upon the recording of an instrument setting forth such amendment and vote duly executed by such Owners or by the proper officers of the Association.

In addition, the approval of eligible holders of first mortgages on Units to which are appurtenant at least 51% of the common interest of the project shall be required for any material amendment to the Declaration or any amendment of a provision for the express benefit of holders or insurers of first mortgages on Units. An eligible holder is a holder of a first mortgage on a Unit which has made a written request to the Association that it receive notices of proposed changes to the Declaration. A material amendment to the Declaration is one which establishes, provides for, governs or regulates any of the following: (1) voting; (2) assessments, assessment liens, or subordination of such liens; (3) reserves for maintenance, repair and replacement of the common elements; (4) insurance or fidelity bonds; (5) rights to use of the common elements; (6) responsibility for maintenance and repair of the project; (7) expansion or contraction of the project for the addition, annexation or withdrawal of property to or from the project; (8) boundaries of any Unit; (9) the interest in the common elements; (10) convertibility of Units into common elements or of common elements into Units; (11) leasing of Units; (12) imposition of any right of first refusal or similar restriction on the right of a Unit Owner to sell, transfer or otherwise convey his or her interest in the Unit; or (13) establishment of self management by the Association after professional management has previously been required by any of the mortgage holders.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, if (1) at any time prior to the first filing in the Recording Office of a conveyance of a Unit, the Declarant may amend this Declaration (including all exhibits) and the By-Laws in any manner, without the consent of any Unit purchaser; and (2) at any time thereafter, the Declarant may amend this Declaration (and when applicable, the Condominium Map) to file the "As Built" verified statement required by Section 514A-12 of the Act (i) so long as such statement is merely a verified statement of a registered architect or professional engineer certifying that the final plan thereto filed fully and accurately depicts layout, location, apartment numbers, and the dimensions of an improvement or change in a Unit as-built; or (ii) so long as the plans filed therewith involve only immaterial changes to the layout, location, or dimensions of the apartments as built or any change in any apartment number.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Owner of any Unit or Units shall have the right without the consent or joinder of any other person to amend this Declaration and the Condominium Map to reflect the changes made to a Unit in accordance with Paragraph 20.1 or 20.2 of this Declaration. Promptly upon completion of such changes, the Owner of the changed Unit shall duly record with the Recording Office an amendment to this Declaration and to the Condominium Map, together with a complete set of the floor plans of the Project as so altered, certified as built by a registered architect or professional engineer. All existing Unit Owners and all future Unit Owners and their mortgagees, by accepting an interest in a Unit, shall be deemed to have given each Unit Owner a Power of Attorney to execute an amendment to the Declaration solely for the purpose of describing the changes to his respective Unit on the Declaration so that each Unit Owner shall hereafter have a Power of Attorney from all the other Unit Owners to execute such amendment to the Declaration. This Power of Attorney shall be deemed coupled with each Owner's interest in his Unit (including his common interest) and shall be irrevocable.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Owners of two or more Units which have contiguous Dwelling Areas shall have the right without the consent or joinder of any other person to amend this Declaration and the Condominium Map to reflect the changes made in the boundaries between their Dwelling Areas in accordance with Paragraph 20.2 of this Declaration. Promptly upon completion of such changes, the Owners of the changed Dwelling Areas shall duly record with the Recording Office an amendment to this Declaration and to the Condominium Map, together with a complete set of the floor plans of the Project as so altered, certified as built by a registered architect or professional engineer. All existing Unit Owners and all future Unit Owners and their mortgagees, by accepting an interest in a Unit, shall be deemed to have given each Unit Owner a Power of Attorney to execute an amendment to the Declaration solely for the purpose of describing the changes to his respective Unit on the Declaration so that each Unit Owner shall hereafter have a Power of Attorney from all the other Unit Owners to execute such amendment to the Declaration. This Power of Attorney shall be deemed coupled with each Owner's interest in his Unit (including his common interest) and shall be irrevocable."

PERMITTED ALTERATIONS TO APARTMENTS.

Sub-paragraph 20.1 of the Declaration states:

"Changes to Units. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Declaration, each Unit Owner shall have the right at his sole option at any time and from time to time without the consent of anyone other than the holders of all mortgage liens affecting his Unit, to improve, renovate, remodel, make additions to, enlarge, remove, replace or restore the improvements to or in his Unit or portions thereof or to make additional improvements upon the Dwelling Area appurtenant to the Unit (the foregoing are referred to collectively as "Changes" and singly, as a "Change") subject to the following conditions:

(a) Any changes affecting a limited common element appurtenant to more than a single apartment unit, shall require the consent of the Owner of each Unit to which such limited common element is appurtenant.

(b) Any changes affecting a common element (exclusive of a limited common element) shall require the consent of the Association.

(c) All building plans for any Change shall be prepared by a licensed architect or professional engineer. Any such changes shall conform with City and County building and zoning laws and other applicable City and County or State laws and requirements. If required by County Building Laws, then the Owner making the change shall first obtain any requisite building permit.

(d) Any Change to a Unit must be made within the Dwelling Area which is appurtenant to the Unit.

(e) No Change to a Unit will be made if the effect of such Change would be to exceed the Unit's "proportionate" share of the allowable floor area or Lot area coverage for the Land or the number of dwelling units permitted on the Land under the LUO applicable to the Land in effect when the Change is to be made. The "proportionate share" for each Unit shall be 25% per Unit.

(f) Any such Change shall be at the expense of the Unit Owner making the Change and shall be expeditiously made and in a manner that will not unreasonably interfere with other Unit Owner's use or enjoyment of his Unit, the common elements or the Unit's appurtenant limited common elements.

(g) During the entire course of such construction, the Unit Owner making such Change will cause to be maintained at his expense builder's all-risk insurance in an amount not less than the estimated cost of construction. At the request of the Association, the Association shall be named as an additional insured and evidence of such insurance shall be deposited with the Association.

(h) The Unit Owner making the Change shall have the right to utilize, relocate and realign existing and/or to develop additional, central and appurtenant installations for services to the Unit affected by such Change for electricity, sewer and other utilities and services and when applicable, to add, delete, relocate, realign, designate and grant easement and rights-of-way over, under and on the common elements as necessary or desirable in connection therewith; provided that the same shall not cause any substantial interruption in the services of such utilities to any other Unit Owner and shall not otherwise unreasonably interfere with other Unit Owner's use or enjoyment of his Unit, the common elements or the Unit's appurtenant limited common elements.

(i) If the consent or joinder of another Unit Owner to any Change, including obtaining building permits is required by the Act, then each Unit Owner hereby consents in advance to give such consent or join any such application for such Change, provided that all such expenses relating to the change shall be borne by the Owner making the Change.

(j) Each and every conveyance, lease and mortgage or other lien made or created on any Unit, all common interests and other appurtenances thereto shall be subject to the provisions of this paragraph and any lease of a Dwelling Area shall reserve to all Owners the rights set forth in this paragraph.

(k) Except as otherwise provided above or in Paragraph 20.3 of this Declaration, each Apartment Owner shall be free, with the consent of all mortgagees of record of any interest in such Owner's Apartment, to make such alterations and improvements within such Owner's Apartment or within or on the Dwelling Area appurtenant thereto, including enclosing all or a portion of a lanai without the consent or joinder of the Board of Directors, the Association, any Apartment Owner, or any other person.

(l) Certain Work Prohibited. Notwithstanding anything in to the contrary in this Declaration, no Apartment Owner (a) shall do any work which could jeopardize the soundness or safety of the Project, reduce the value thereof, impair any easement or hereditament; or (b) shall add any material structure or excavate any basement or cellar, without in every such case obtaining the prior consent of seventy-five percent (75%) of the Apartment Owners, together with the prior written consent of all mortgagees of record and Apartment Owners whose Apartments or limited common elements appurtenant thereto are directly affected; provided that nonmaterial structural additional to the common elements, including "solar energy devices" as defined in Section 514A-89 of the Act, or additions to or alterations of an Apartment made within such Apartment or within a limited common element appurtenant to and for the exclusive use of the Apartment, shall require approval only by the Board of Directors and such percentage, number, or group of Apartment Owners or other parties as may be required by this Declaration or the Bylaws. As used in this subparagraph, "nonmaterial structural additions to the common elements" means a structural addition to the common elements which does not jeopardize the soundness or safety of the Project, reduce the value thereof, impair any easement or hereditament, detract from the appearance of the Project, interfere with or deprive any nonconsenting Owner of the use or enjoyment of any part of the Project or directly affect any nonconsenting owner."

Mr. Jeffrey S. Grad
Attorney at Law
A Law Corporation
Davies Pacific Center, Suite 1800

Honolulu, Hawaii 96813

Dear Mr. Grad:

Subject: Condominium Conversion Project
68-033 Au Street
Tax Map Key: 6-8-011: 004

This is in response to your letter dated June 27, 2002 requesting verification that the structures on the above-mentioned property met all applicable code requirements at the time of construction.

The two-story two-family detached dwelling with four all-weather surface off-street parking spaces and a one-story single-family dwelling with two all-weather off-street parking spaces met all applicable code requirements when they were constructed in 1987 and 1989, respectively, on this 15,431-square foot A-1 Apartment zoned lot. A special permit (88/SMA-99) was approved by Resolution No. 88-499 with conditions on January 25, 1989 to allow management area use.

Investigation also revealed the following:

1. The single-family dwelling was converted to a two-family detached dwelling without a building permit.
2. The storage shed (approximately 84 square feet) on the Kaena side of the property lacks the required minimum 5-foot side yard setback.

Mr. Jeffrey S. Grad
August 20, 2002

No other variances or special permits were granted to allow deviations from any applicable codes.

For your information, the Department of Planning and Permitting cannot determine all legal nonconforming uses or structures as a result of the adoption or amendment of any ordinances or codes.

Conversion to a condominium property regime (CPR) is not recognized by the City and County as an approved subdivision. CPR delineates ownership; it does not create a separate lot of record.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact Mr. Ivan Matsumoto of this office at 527-6341.

Sincerely yours,
