Summary of Changes from Earlier Public Reports:

This summary contains a general description of the changes, if any, made by the developer since the last public report was issued. It is not necessarily all inclusive. Prospective buyers should compare this public report with the earlier reports if they wish to know the specific changes that have been made.

- No prior reports have been issued by the developer.

- Changes made are as follows:

SPECIAL NOTICE:

THIS IS A CONDOMINIUM PROJECT, NOT A SUBDIVISION. There are County restrictions on the number of dwelling units, or other structures, which may be built upon the property. Therefore, unless the purchaser is purchasing an existing dwelling, there is no assurance that the purchaser will be able to build a dwelling unit on the property. There also is no assurance that the purchaser will be able to convert an existing non-residential structure to residential use. The purchaser should consult with the appropriate County agencies to determine whether the purchaser may build a dwelling unit, or any other type of structure.

1. There are presently NO RESIDENTIAL STRUCTURES on the project. The only buildings on the project are two (2) shade structures, each of which may be defined as an "apartment" under the Condominium Property Act.
2. Issuance of an effective date for this Public Report does not constitute an approval of the project by the Real Estate Commission, or any other governmental agency, nor does it imply that all County codes, ordinances and subdivision requirements have been complied with.
3. This project does not involve the sale of individual subdivided lots. The land area beneath and immediately adjacent to each unit, as shown on the Condominium Map, is designated as a limited common element for that unit and does not represent a legally subdivided lot. The dotted or dash lines on the Condominium Map generally represent the location of the limited common element or easements assigned to each unit.
4. Facilities and improvements normally associated with County approved subdivisions, such as fire protection devices, County street lighting, electricity, upgraded water facilities, improved access for owner and emergency traffic, drainage facilities, etc., may not necessarily be provided for and services such as County street maintenance and trash collection will not be available for interior roads and driveways.
5. At present there is a county public water system available from the public road adjacent to this project. Those desiring to construct improvements on such units will be required to connect to County water at their own expense.

6. Except as limited specifically by the project documents of record, all uses permitted in the agricultural zone are permitted. Such uses include, but are not limited to, growing crops, raising animals, residence, diversified agriculture, forestry, orchards and nurseries and wildlife management. See Kauai County Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance, Article 8.7. for detailed information. In relation to specifically permitted uses of buildings and other improvements, structures shall only be occupied or used for agriculture, associated residential uses or other uses permitted by law and the recorded project documents. A farm dwelling may not be constructed unless a unit owner demonstrates to the County his ability to derive income from his property, established and verified prior to any building permit approval.
7. A buyer should understand that development and use of the property shall be in compliance with all County Codes and Ordinances. If County facilities are not already in place, the prospective purchaser is advised that owners in the project will not necessarily receive the same County benefits as owners of approved subdivided lots; owners who develop their properties later than others may find that land use and zoning changes or insufficient utility capacities may thwart their expectations. Zoning and land use restrictions are subject to change and each purchaser should maintain awareness of such conditions.

THIS PROSPECTIVE PURCHASER IS CAUTIONED TO CAREFULLY REVIEW THE CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS REFERENCED IN THIS PUBLIC REPORT FOR FURTHER INFORMATION WITH REGARD TO THE FOREGOING.

General Information On Condominiums

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of the Condominium Property Act, Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, must be complied with. In addition, certain requirements and approvals of the County in which the project is located must be satisfied and obtained.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owners/tenants) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements at the lessee's expense. Leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

"Common Elements" are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called "limited common elements" and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged or encumbered, and may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the project's Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without the vote of the owners. For example, the board may hire and fire employees, increase or decrease maintenance fees, borrow money for repair and improvements and set a budget. Some of these actions may significantly impact the apartment owners.

Until there is a sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is important to all apartment owners that the transition of control from the developer to the apartment owners be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

A condominium is created by recording in the Bureau of Conveyances and/or filing with the Land Court a Declaration of Condominium Property Regime, a Condominium Map (File Plan), and the Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners. The Condominium Property Act (Chapter 514A, HRS), the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules control the rights and obligations of the apartment owners with respect to the project and the common elements, to each other, and to their respective apartments. The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

These rules must be followed by owners, tenants, and guests. They do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective. The initial House Rules are usually adopted by the developer.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON LEASEHOLD CONDOMINIUM PROJECTS

The information contained in this report is a summary of the terms of the lease. For more detailed information, you should secure a copy of the lease documents and read them thoroughly.

If you have any legal questions about leasehold property, the lease documents or the terms of the lease and the consequences of becoming a lessee, you should seek the advice of an attorney.

There are currently no statutory provisions for the mandatory conversion of leasehold condominiums and there are no assurances that such measures will be enacted in the future.

In leasehold condominium projects, the buyer of an apartment will acquire the right to occupy and use the apartment for the time stated in the lease agreement. The buyer will not acquire outright or absolute fee simple ownership of the land. The land is owned by the lessor or the leased fee owner. The apartment owner or lessee must make lease rent payments and comply with the terms of the lease or be subject to the lessor's enforcement actions. The lease rent payments are usually fixed at specific amounts for fixed periods of time, and are then subject to renegotiation. Renegotiation may be based on a formula, by arbitration set in the lease agreement, by law or by agreement between the lessor and lessee. The renegotiated lease rents may increase significantly. At the end of the lease, the apartment owners may have to surrender the apartments, the improvements and the land back to the lessor without any compensation (surrender clause).

When leasehold property is sold, title is normally conveyed by means of an assignment of lease, the purpose of which is similar to that of a deed. The legal and practical effect is different because the assignment conveys only the rights and obligations created by the lease, not the property itself.

The developer of this condominium project may have entered into a master ground lease with the fee simple owner of the land in order to develop the project. The developer may have then entered into a sublease or a new lease of the land with the lessee (apartment owner). The developer may lease the improvements to the apartment owner by way of an apartment lease or sublease, or sell the improvements to the apartment owners by way of a condominium conveyance or apartment deed.

If the buyer rescinds a binding sales contract because there has been a material change, the buyer is entitled to a full and prompt refund of any moneys the buyer paid.

2. Rights Under the Sales Contract: Before signing the sales contract, prospective buyers should ask to see and carefully review all the documents relating to the project. If these documents are not in final form, the buyer should ask to see the most recent draft. These include but are not limited to the:
- A) Condominium Public Reports issued by the developer which have been given an effective date by the Hawaii Real Estate Commission.
 - B) Declaration of Condominium Property Regime, as amended.
 - C) Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners, as amended.

C. Additional Information Not Covered Above:

This is a condominium project, not a subdivision. Units purchased are not on subdivided lots. To determine whether your expectations can be realized, you should carefully review the contents of this Report, especially Exhibit "I" to this report which is a summary of the recorded restrictive covenants for the subdivision within which this project is located. Among other things, the restrictive covenants govern land use, building type and materials, possession of animals, and cultivation of crops. You should also conduct your own investigations and ascertain the validity of information provided.

Residential improvements are not yet located on Units 1 and 2 of the project. There are two (2) shade structures on the Project. These can be replaced by or remodeled as allowed by law and project documents. The prospective purchaser shall have the right to undertake such work at purchaser's expense. The purchaser shall also, in such event, file the "as-built" certificate within thirty days of completion of the residence in conformance with Section 514A-12, Hawaii Revised Statutes, and record an amendment of the Declaration of Condominium Property Regime ("Declaration") to describe the residence. The County of Kauai Planning Department, in order to process the necessary permits for the construction of any other structure, requires authorization from at least 75% of the legal and equitable ownership of the entire project, consistent with the Declaration and the Bylaws ("condominium documents").

Except as limited specifically by the condominium documents and subdivision restrictive covenants, all uses permitted in the residential zone are permitted. Uses in one zone are not the same as in the other, and the prospective purchaser should consult the appropriate county agency for information on uses and construction in the respective zones.

A buyer should understand that all development and use of the property shall be in compliance with County codes and ordinances, that owners in this condominium project will not necessarily receive the same County benefits as owners of approved subdivided lots, and that owners who develop their limited common element later than others may find that land use and zoning changes or insufficient utility capacities may thwart their expectations.

Purchasers should be aware that Chapter 205, Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS), does not authorize residential dwellings as a permissible use in an agricultural use district, unless the dwelling is related to an agricultural activity or is a "farm dwelling".

The term "farm dwelling" is defined in Chapter 205-4.5(a)(4), HRS, as a single family dwelling located on and used in connection with a farm, including clusters of single-family farm dwelling permitted within agricultural parks developed by the State or where agricultural activity provides income to the family occupying the dwelling."

The penalty for violation of Chapter 205-4.5, HRS, is a fine of not more than $5,000. If any person who is cited for a violation of the law fails to remove the violation within six months of such citation and the violation continues, such person is subject to a citation for a new and separate violation. There shall be a fine of not more than $5,000 for any additional violation.

In order for any purchaser to obtain a building permit to construct a single-family residential ("farm dwelling"), the County of Kauai will require the purchaser to sign a Farm Dwelling Agreement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "K".

- D. The developer declares subject to the penalties set forth in section 514A-49(b) that this project is in compliance with all county zoning and building ordinances and codes, and all other county permitting requirements applicable to the project, pursuant to Act 251 (SLH 2000) [Section 514A-1.6] (The developer is required to make this declaration for issuance of an effective date for a final public report.)
- E. The developer hereby certifies that all the information contained in this Report and the Exhibits attached to this Report and all documents to be furnished by the developer to buyers concerning the project have been reviewed by the developer and are, to the best of the developer's knowledge, information and belief, true, correct and complete.

SUMMARY OF PORTIONS OF ESCROW AGREEMENT

The Escrow Agreement ("Agreement") between TITLE GUARANTY ESCROW SERVICES, INC., a Hawaii corporation ("Escrow"), and DAVID C. THORNTON, single ("Seller"), contains, among other provisions, the following (which may be modified or otherwise limited by provisions not summarized):

1. Whenever Seller enters into a sales contract for the sale of an apartment, Seller will require that payments due under the sales contract be made to Escrow and will deliver an executed copy of the sales contract to Escrow.
2. Escrow will receive payments under the sales contract and sums received from any other source with respect to the project. Funds held under the Agreement will initially be deposited in an account for the project. Interest on all funds will be paid to Seller.

4. Escrow will return deposited sums to the Buyer without interest if Seller and Buyer give Escrow written notice to return the funds to Buyer, if there is a right to cancellation and refund of monies under the sales contract or otherwise. If there is a cancellation under the seven-day right, no fees will be charged Buyer. Thereafter, in the event of a cancellation as a matter of agreement or right, Buyer's funds shall be returned to Buyer less Escrow's cancellation fee, if any, and all other costs incurred in connection with the Escrow, not less than $25.00.

6. Escrow will record all applicable documents. The cost of title insurance will be an additional amount, based upon schedule rate.

7. If Seller subsequently certifies in writing to Escrow that Seller has terminated the sales contract in accordance with the terms thereof, Escrow shall thereafter treat all funds of the purchaser paid on account of such purchaser's sales contract as funds of Seller and not as funds of the purchaser. Thereafter, such funds shall be free of the escrow established by this Agreement and shall be held by Escrow for the account of Seller.
