Changes made are as follows:

SPECIAL ATTENTION

The Developer has disclosed the following:

- (a) This is a CONDOMINIUM PROJECT, not a subdivision. The land area beneath and immediately appurtenant to each unit is designated a LIMITED COMMON ELEMENT and does not represent a legally subdivided lot. The dotted lines in the Condominium Map bounding the designated number of square feet in each limited common element land area are for illustration purposes only and should not be construed to be formal subdivision lines.
- (b) Facilities and improvements normally associated with county approved subdivisions, such as fire protection devices, County street lighting, electricity, upgraded water facilities, improved access for owner and emergency traffic, drainage facilities, etc., may not necessarily be provided for, and services such as County street maintenance and trash collection will not be available for interior roads and driveways.
- (c) No warranties are given to the purchaser as to the construction, materials or workmanship of the Project. The Project is being sold in "as is" condition (pages 12 and 15).

This public report does not constitute approval of the Project by the Real Estate Commission or any other governmental agencies, nor does it ensure that all applicable County codes, ordinances, and subdivision requirements have necessarily been complied with. THE PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS ARE CAUTIONED TO CAREFULLY REVIEW ALL DOCUMENTS REGARDING THIS CONDOMINIUM PROJECT FOR FURTHER INFORMATION WITH REGARD TO THE FOREGOING.

- (d) A prospective purchaser of a Unit which is not presently a residence, but which the purchaser may intend to change to residential or other use, should be aware he will be required to comply with the building codes, land use laws (LUO) and other county laws and ordinances. The LUO, for example, contains restrictions relating to the permissible use of the land, the number of dwelling units permitted, and the amount of total development permitted on a lot.

A prospective purchaser should be aware (a) it will be necessary to obtain building and other permits from the County and (b) it may be necessary to obtain and to have installed utilities to service the site. Obtaining such permits will require compliance with building codes, LUO and other County requirements and compliance with any conditions which may be imposed under any such issued permits.

Obtaining utilities and services will require agreements with the providers of such utilities. Developer disclaims all warranties relating to the availability of such utilities, any conditions that may be imposed by the providers, or the cost thereof.

Accordingly, before buying an apartment unit, a prospective purchaser, together with an architect or professional builder, is urged to review the LUO and other applicable County ordinances which may affect the Purchaser's use of his Apartment Unit and to review their intended plans with County officials. Developer disclaims all warranties with respect to Purchaser's being able to use the Apartment unit for his intended purposes.

General Information On Condominiums

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of the Condominium Property Act, Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, must be complied with. In addition, certain requirements and approvals of the County in which the project is located must be satisfied and obtained.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owners/tenants) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements at the lessee's expense. Leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

"Common elements" are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called "limited common elements" and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged or encumbered, and may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the project's Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without the vote of the owners. For example, the board may hire and fire employees, increase or decrease maintenance fees, borrow money for repair and improvements and set a budget. Some of these actions may significantly impact the apartment owners.

Until there is a sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is important to all apartment owners that the transition of control from the developer to the apartment owners be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

II. CREATION OF THE CONDOMINIUM; CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS

A condominium is created by recording in the Bureau of Conveyances and/or filing with the Land Court a Declaration of Condominium Property Regime, a Condominium Map (File Plan), and the Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners. The Condominium Property Act (Chapter 514A, HRS), the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules control the rights and obligations of the apartment owners with respect to the project and the common elements, to each other, and to their respective apartments. The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

- A. Declaration of Condominium Property Regime contains a description of the land, buildings, apartments, common elements, limited common elements, common interests, and other information relating to the condominium project.

The Declaration for this condominium is:

They provide for the manner in which the Board of Directors of the Association of Apartment Owners is elected, the powers and duties of the Board, the manner in which meetings will be conducted, whether pets are prohibited or allowed and other matters which affect how the condominium project will be governed.

The Bylaws for this condominium are:

The Bylaws referred to above have been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

D. House Rules. The Board of Directors may adopt House Rules to govern the use and operation of the common elements and limited common elements. House Rules may cover matters such as parking regulations, hours of operation for common facilities such as recreation areas, use of lanais and requirements for keeping pets. These rules must be followed by owners, tenants, and guests. They do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective. The initial House Rules are usually adopted by the developer.

The House Rules for this condominium are:

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON LEASEHOLD CONDOMINIUM PROJECTS

The information contained in this report is a summary of the terms of the lease. For more detailed information, you should secure a copy of the lease documents and read them thoroughly.

If you have any legal questions about leasehold property, the lease documents or the terms of the lease and the consequences of becoming a lessee, you should seek the advice of an attorney.

There are currently no statutory provisions for the mandatory conversion of leasehold condominiums and there are no assurances that such measures will be enacted in the future.

In leasehold condominium projects, the buyer of an apartment will acquire the right to occupy and use the apartment for the time stated in the lease agreement. The buyer will not acquire outright or absolute fee simple ownership of the land. The land is owned by the lessor or the leased fee owner. The apartment owner or lessee must make lease rent payments and comply with the terms of the lease or be subject to the lessor's enforcement actions. The lease rent payments are usually fixed at specific amounts for fixed periods of time, and are then subject to renegotiation. Renegotiation may be based on a formula, by arbitration set in the lease agreement, by law or by agreement between the lessor and lessee. The renegotiated lease rents may increase significantly. At the end of the lease, the apartment owners may have to surrender the apartments, the improvements and the land back to the lessor without any compensation (surrender clause).

When leasehold property is sold, title is normally conveyed by means of an assignment of lease, the purpose of which is similar to that of a deed. The legal and practical effect is different because the assignment conveys only the rights and obligations created by the lease, not the property itself.

The developer of this condominium project may have entered into a master ground lease with the fee simple owner of the land in order to develop the project. The developer may have then entered into a sublease or a new lease of the land with the lessee (apartment owner). The developer may lease the improvements to the apartment owner by way of an apartment lease or sublease, or sell the improvements to the apartment owners by way of a condominium conveyance or apartment deed.

	Conforming	Non-Conforming	Illegal
Uses	 X
Structures	 X
Lot	 X

If a variance has been granted or if uses, improvements or lot are either non-conforming or illegal, buyer should consult with county zoning authorities as to possible limitations which may apply.

Limitations may include restrictions on extending, enlarging, or continuing the non-conformity, and restrictions on altering and repairing structures. In some cases, a non-conforming structure that is destroyed or damaged cannot be reconstructed.

The buyer may not be able to obtain financing or insurance if the condominium project has a non-conforming or illegal use, structure, or lot.

D. Common Elements, Limited Common Elements, Common Interest:

1. Common Elements: Common Elements are those parts of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. Although the common elements are owned jointly by all apartment owners, those portions of the common elements which are designated as limited common elements (see paragraph 2 below) may be used only by those apartments to which they are assigned. The common elements for this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit C .

as follows:

2. Limited Common Elements: Limited Common Elements are those common elements which are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments.

There are no limited common elements in this project.

The limited common elements and the apartments which use them, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit D .

as follows:

NOTE: Reference to said Exhibit "D" to "Dwelling Areas" does not mean legally subdivided lots.

3. Common Interest: Each apartment will have an undivided fractional interest in all of the common elements. This interest is called the "common interest." It is used to determine each apartment's share of the maintenance fees and other common profits and expenses of the condominium project. It may also be used for other purposes, including voting on matters requiring action by apartment owners. The common interests for the apartments in this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit _____.

as follows:

Unit A	-	50%
Unit B	-	50%

- E. Encumbrances Against Title: An encumbrance is a claim against or a liability on the property or a document affecting the title or use of the property. Encumbrances may have an adverse effect on the property or your purchase and ownership of an apartment in the project.

Exhibit E describes the encumbrances against the title contained in the title report dated November 23, 2005 and issued by Hawaii Escrow and Title, Inc.

Blanket Liens:

A blanket lien is an encumbrance (such as a mortgage) on the entire condominium project that secures some type of monetary debt (such as a loan) or other obligation. A blanket lien is usually released on an apartment-by-apartment basis upon payment of specified sums so that individual apartments can be conveyed to buyers free and clear of the lien.

[] There are no blanket liens affecting title to the individual apartments.

[X] There are blanket liens which may affect title to the individual apartments.

Blanket liens (except for improvement district or utility assessments) must be released before the developer conveys the apartment to a buyer. The buyer's interest will be affected if the developer defaults and the lien is foreclosed prior to conveying the apartment to buyer.

Type of Lien	Effect on Buyer's Interest and Deposit if Developer Defaults or Lien is Foreclosed Prior to Conveyance
Mortgage	Buyer's interest may be terminated by mortgagee but Buyer shall be entitled to return of his deposit, less escrow cancellation fee.

F. Construction Warranties:

Warranties for individual apartments and the common elements, including the beginning and ending dates for each warranty, are as follows:

1. Building and Other Improvements:

The Association may be permitted, and in some cases may be required, to employ or retain a condominium managing agent to assist the Association in managing the condominium project.

Initial Condominium Managing Agent: When the developer or the developer's affiliate is the initial condominium managing agent, the management contract must have a term of one year or less and the parties must be able to terminate the contract on notice of 60 days or less.

The initial condominium managing agent for this project, named on page five (5) of this report, is:

- not affiliated with the Developer the Developer or the Developer's affiliate.

Initial maintenance fees are difficult to estimate and tend to increase as the condominium ages. Maintenance fees may vary depending on the services provided.

Exhibit H contains a schedule of estimated initial maintenance fees and maintenance fee disbursements (subject to change).

C. Additional Information Not Covered Above

HAZARDOUS MATERIALS

The Developer neither prepared nor commissioned a Phase 1 Environmental Site Assessment and makes no representations or warranties whatsoever. The developer has made no independent investigation as to asbestos or other hazardous substances in the apartments or in, under or around the Project, including but not limited to, radioactive materials, organic compounds known as polychlorinated biphenyls, chemicals known to cause cancer or reproductive toxicity, pollutants, contaminants, hazardous wastes, toxic substances, and any and all other substances or materials defined as or included in the definition of "hazardous substances", "hazardous wastes", "hazardous materials" or "toxic substances" under, or for the purposes of, hazardous materials laws. Buyer acknowledges that in light of the age of the Project, there may be asbestos and other hazardous substances in the apartments, or in, under or around the Project. Because of the possible presence of such substances, Buyer should have the apartment inspected to determine the extent (if any) of such contamination and any necessary remedial action. The developer will not correct any defects in the apartments or in the Project or anything installed or contained therein and Buyer expressly releases the developer from any liability to Buyer if any hazardous materials are discovered.

The owner of a shed (the Developer or its successor) may replace a shed with a residence, as is permitted by Paragraph 19.1 of the Declaration, subject to the conditions to making changes in the Unit set forth therein.

Seller gives no assurances or warranties that building permits and adequate utilities will be available to build a residence to replace shed, or that adequate utilities service will be available or that the site will permit construction of a residence at a reasonable or affordable cost.

Any prospective purchaser of a Unit should investigate these and other relevant issues before buying either Unit. Seller disclaims any warranties with respect to the foregoing or any other matter other than ownership of title.

Construction of a residence to replace a Unit is likely to cause disruption, dust, noise and debris and other inconveniences that could affect the comfort and use of the other Unit in the Project by its owner.

DEVELOPER'S RESERVED RIGHTS

The Developer (Declarant) has reserved the following rights to change the Declaration, Condominium Map, By-Laws or House Rules:

Paragraph 20 of the Declaration states:

20.1 Amendments Generally. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein or in the Act, this Declaration and the Condominium Map may be amended only by the affirmative vote or written consent of all of the Apartment Owners, evidenced by an instrument in writing, signed and acknowledged by each of them, which amendment shall be effective upon recordation in the Recording Office; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing provision, at any time prior to the first recording of a conveyance or transfer (other than for security) of an Apartment and its appurtenances to a party not a signatory. hereto, the Declarant may amend this Declaration (including all exhibits), the Condominium Map and the Bylaws in any manner, without the consent or joinder of any Apartment purchaser or any other party. Notwithstanding the lease, sale or conveyance of any of the Apartments, Declarant may amend this Declaration (and when applicable, any exhibits to this Declaration and the Condominium Map) to file the "as-built" verified statement required by Section 514A- 12 of the Act (i) so long as such statement is merely a verified statement of a registered architect or professional engineer certifying that the final plans thereto filed fully and accurately depict the layout, location, Apartment numbers, and the dimensions of the Apartments as built, or (ii) so long as the plans filed therewith involve only minor changes to the layout, location, or dimensions of the Apartments as built or any change in the Apartment number.

20.2 Amendments Required by Law, Lenders, Title Insurers. Etc. Any other provision of this Declaration notwithstanding, for so long as the Declarant retains any interest in an Apartment in the Project, the Declarant shall have the right (but not the obligation) to amend this Declaration and the Bylaws (and the Condominium Map, if appropriate) without the consent or joinder of any Apartment Owner, lienholder or other person or entity, for the purpose of meeting any requirement imposed by (i) any applicable law, (ii) the Real Estate Commission of the State of Hawaii, (iii) any title insurance company issuing a title insurance policy on the Project or any of the Apartments, (iv) any institutional lender lending funds on the security of the Project or any of the Apartments, or (v) any other governmental or quasi-governmental agency including, without limitation, the Federal National Mortgage Association, the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development or the Veterans Administration; provided, however, that no amendment which would change the common interest appurtenant to an Apartment or substantially change the design, location or size of an Apartment shall be made without the consent of all persons having an interest in such Apartment. Each and every party acquiring an interest in the Project, by such acquisition, consents to the amendments described in this Paragraph 20.2 and agrees to execute and deliver such documents and instruments and do such other things as may be necessary or convenient to effect the same, and appoints Declarant and its assigns as his or her attorney-in-fact with full power of substitution to execute and deliver such documents and instruments and to do such things on his or her behalf, which grant of such power, being coupled with an, interest, is irrevocable for the duration of such reserved rights, and shall not be affected by the disability of such party or parties.

20.3 Mortgagee Approval. Any other provision of this Declaration notwithstanding, the approval of eligible holders of first mortgages (as defined below) on Apartments to which at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the votes of Units subject to mortgages held by such eligible holders are allocated shall be required to materially amend any provision herein, or to add any material provisions hereto, which establish, provide for, govern or regulate any of the following: (a) voting; (b) assessments, assessment liens or subordination of such liens; (c) reserves for maintenance, repair and replacement of the common elements; (d) insurance or fidelity bonds; (e) right to use of the common elements; (f) responsibility for maintenance and repair of the several portions of the Project; (g) expansion or contraction of the Project or the addition, annexation or withdrawal of property to or from the Project; (h) boundaries of any Unit (except where the amendment merely reflects that a Unit has been constructed according to alternate plans shown on the Condominium Map); (i) the interests in the common elements or limited common elements; (j) convertibility of Units into common elements or of common elements into Units; (k) leasing of Units; (l) imposition of any right of first refusal or similar restriction on the right of a Unit Owner to sell, transfer, or otherwise convey his Unit; (m) establishment of self-management of the Project by the Association where professional management has been required by any agency or corporation which has an interest or prospective interest in the Project; and (n) any provision that expressly benefits holders, insurers, or guarantors of first mortgages on apartments in the Project. To qualify as an "eligible holder of a first mortgage", a holder, insurer or guarantor of a first mortgage on a Unit in the Project must have made a written request to the Association for timely written notice of proposed amendments to the condominium instruments. The request must state the name and address of the holder, insurer or guarantor and the number of the Unit covered by the mortgage. In the event that an eligible holder of a first mortgage fails to appear at a meeting of the Association at which amendments of a material nature to this Declaration are proposed and considered, or fails to file a written response with the Association within thirty (30) days after it receives proper notice of the proposed amendment, delivered by certified or registered mail, with a "return receipt" requested, then and in any such event such amendments shall conclusively be deemed approved by such eligible holder of a first mortgage.

In addition to the foregoing, no amendment to this Declaration which would allow any action to terminate the condominium property regime created hereby for reasons other than substantial destruction or condemnation shall be made without the prior written approval of not less than sixty-seven percent (67%) of the eligible holders of first mortgages.

20.4 Special Amendments. Notwithstanding the foregoing, an Owner or Declarant, as applicable, shall have the right without the consent or joinder of any other person to amend this Declaration and the Condominium Map to reflect the changes made to his Unit in accordance with Paragraph 19.1 through Paragraph 19.5, as applicable, of this Declaration. Promptly upon completion of such changes made under Paragraph 19.1 through Paragraph 19.5, as applicable, the Unit Owner or Declarant shall duly record with the Recording Office an amendment to his Declaration and to the Condominium Map, together with a complete set of the floor plans of the Project as so altered, certified as build by a registered architect or professional engineer. All existing Unit Owners and all future Unit Owners and their mortgagees, by accepting an interest in a Unit, shall be deemed to have given each Unit Owner a Power of Attorney to execute an amendment to the Declaration solely for the purpose of describing the changes to his respective Unit on the Declaration so that each Unit Owner shall hereafter have a Power of Attorney from all the other Unit Owners to execute such amendment to the Declaration. This Power of Attorney shall be deemed coupled with each Owner's interest in his Unit (including its appurtenant common interest) and shall be irrevocable.

20.5 Restatement. Any other provision of this Declaration notwithstanding, the Board, upon resolution duly adopted, shall have the authority as set forth in the Act to restate this Declaration from time to time to set forth any prior amendments hereto, or to amend this Declaration as required to conform with the provisions of the Act or any other statute, ordinance, rule or regulation enacted by any governmental authority.

EXHIBIT "B"

PERMITTED ALTERATIONS TO APARTMENTS.

Alterations to Apartments are governed by Paragraph 19 the Declaration which states:

19.1. Changes to Units. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Declaration, a Unit Owner, with the consent by the holder of any mortgage affecting the Owner's Unit (if required by such mortgage), shall have the right at his sole option at any time and from time to time without the consent of any other person, to improve, renovate, remodel, make additions to, enlarge, remove, replace or restore the improvements to or in his Unit or portions thereof or to make or build improvements upon the Dwelling Area appurtenant to his Unit (collectively, the foregoing are referred to "changes") subject to the following conditions:

(a) All changes shall conform with applicable City and County building, land use and other applicable laws and ordinances ("County Rules") and applicable State of Hawaii laws and regulations ("State Laws").

(b) All changes to a Unit must be made within the Dwelling Area which is appurtenant to the Unit, provided however, that no structure as defined under the LUO shall be constructed or placed within five (5) feet of any boundary line separating the Dwelling Areas;

(c) No change to a Unit will be made if the effect of such change would be to exceed the Unit's proportionate share of the allowable floor area or building area coverage for the Land, or number of Units, as defined by the LUO in effect when the change is to be made; provided, however, for purposes hereof, the "proportionate share" for each Unit shall be a fraction having as its numerator the land area of the Unit's appurtenant Dwelling Area and having as its denominator the total land area of all of the Dwelling Areas within the Project.

(d) All such changes shall be at the expense of the Owner making the change, shall be expeditiously made and completed in a manner that will not unreasonably interfere with or cause damage to any other Unit, its appurtenant Limited Common Element, or the use thereof by an Owner of another Unit.

(e) During the entire course of such construction, the Owner making such change will cause to be maintained at his expense builder's all-risk insurance in an amount not less than the estimated cost of construction. The Association shall be named as an additional insured and, upon the request of the Association, evidence of such insurance shall be deposited with the Association or its Managing Agent, if any;

(f) The Unit Owner seeking to make a change to his Unit shall have the right (aa) to seek on his own behalf and on behalf of the Association, if required, building permits and other types of approvals and permits from governmental authorities and from utility companies, in order to allow such Unit Owner to make changes to his Unit; and (bb) to utilize, relocate and realign existing and/or to develop additional, central and appurtenant installations for services to the Unit affected by such change for electricity, sewer and other utilities and services and when applicable, to add, delete, relocate, realign, designate and grant easement and rights-of-way over, under and on the common elements as necessary or desirable in connection therewith; provided that the same shall not cause any interruption in the service of such utilities to any other part of the Project or otherwise materially interfere with their use by the other Owner;

(g) If the consent to the change or joinder of another Owner is required by the Act, then each Owner hereby consents in advance to such change.

(h) Each and every conveyance, lease and mortgage or other lien made or created on any Unit and all common interests and other appurtenances thereto shall be subject to the provisions of this paragraph and any lease of a Dwelling Area shall reserve to each Owner the rights set forth in this paragraph.

(i) If required by the Act or under other law, by the Owner making the change to his Unit or the Permitting Agencies, then upon the request of the Owner making the change to his Unit, each other Owner, lien holder or other person having any interest in the Project hereby agrees in advance to join in, consent to, or execute all instruments or documents necessary or desirable so that the Owner making the change to his Unit may effectuate his right to change his Unit.

If such Owner, lien holder or other person having any interest in the Project fails to provide such requested written joinder, consent, or take such action, as the case may be, such shall be accomplished by the Owner making the change to his Unit under an irrevocable power-of-attorney in favor of the Owner making the change to his Unit from each of the other Owners, lien holders or such other parties, the acquiring or acceptance of ownership in a Unit or of a lien covering a Unit or of any other interest in the Project being a grant of such power, and the grant being coupled with an interest, being irrevocable.

(j) Each and every conveyance, lease and mortgage or other lien made or created on any Unit and all common interests and other appurtenances thereto shall be subject to the provisions of this paragraph and any lease of a Dwelling Area shall reserve to each Owner the rights set forth in this paragraph.

19.2 Division of Apartment Unit B.

(a) The Owner of Unit B, with the consent by the holder of any mortgage affecting Unit B (if required by such mortgage), shall have the right at his sole option at any time and from time to time without the consent of the Association, the Board, any other Unit Owner or any other person, to divide Unit B ("Original Unit B") into as many apartment units as such Owner may decide up to a maximum of the number of dwelling units then permitted to be located on Dwelling Area B (the "Resulting Apartments").

(b) Such division shall be made subject to the following terms and conditions:

(i) The Owner of Unit B shall execute and file in the Recording Office (without the necessity of the consent or joinder of any other Unit Owner or any other person), and promptly deliver to the Board a true and correct filed copy of an amendment to the Declaration which contains the following:

(aa) A description of the layout, location, dimensions and apartment number of each of the Resulting Apartments,

(bb) A description of the limited common elements appurtenant to each of the Resulting Apartments (which shall be a portion of the Dwelling Area appurtenant to the Original Unit B),

(cc) The percentage of the common interest allocated to each Resulting Apartment its share as determined by the Owner of Unit B of the percentage of common interest allocated to the Original Unit B, in accordance with Paragraph 6 of the Declaration, and any limited common interests assigned to, each of the Resulting Apartments, and

(ii) The Owner of Unit B shall execute and file in the Recording Office (without the necessity of the consent or joinder of any other Unit Owner or any other person), and promptly deliver to the Board a true and correct filed copy of an amended Condominium Map which accurately depicts the layout, location, apartment numbers, and dimensions of the Resulting Apartments; and

(iii) upon the completion of any construction in connection with the addition of an additional Unit or Units, the Owner shall file in the Recording Office, and promptly deliver to the Board of Directors a true and correct filed copy of, a statement of a registered architect or engineer, certifying that the amendment described above accurately depicts the Resulting Apartment(s), as built;

(iv) the Resulting Apartments shall not be assigned apartment numbers which are the same as the apartment number of any other Apartment in the Project.

19.3 Changes in Boundaries of Dwelling Areas. If Unit B shall have been divided in accordance with Paragraph 19.2, then the Owners of Units to which are appurtenant contiguous Dwelling Areas may from time to time change the boundaries between such Dwelling Areas and may re-allocate portions of such Exclusive Limmite Common Elements between or among the Units upon the following terms and conditions:

(a) The Unit Owners who are changing the boundaries of the Dwelling Areas shall execute and record in the Recording Office (without the necessity of the consent or joinder of the Declarant, the Association, the Board, any other Unit Owner or any other person), and promptly deliver to the Board of Directors a true and correct filed copy of an amendment to this Declaration and the Condominium Map which contains the following:

(i) a description of the resulting Dwelling Area appurtenant to each of the Units; and

(ii) a drawing which shall amend the Condominium Map to accurately depict the resulting Dwelling Areas.

(b) Any such change in boundaries shall not violate County building and zoning laws and other applicable County and State laws and requirements.

19.4 Rights to Add Additional Dwelling Units, and to Subdivide etc .

(a) The Owner of Unit B (with the consent by the holder of any mortgage affecting the Owner's Unit, if required by such mortgage), shall have the right at his sole option at any time and from time to time without the consent of the Association, to obtain permission from the applicable governmental authorities so as to increase the number of permitted dwelling units which may be placed or built on the Land, and in connection therewith, the Owner of Unit B may apply for zoning changes or variances, obtain cluster or site development or other governmental permits, seek permits and agreements from persons and entities providing utility services and/or to subdivide the Land into as many lots of whatever size that the Owner of Unit B may wish (the foregoing may be referred to as "Development Actions"); provided, however, that the consequence of any such Development Action shall impact directly only Dwelling Area B, and the rights of the Owner of Unit A to use his Unit and Dwelling Area A shall not have been materially changed from the rights of the Owner of Unit A prior to effect of such Development Action.

(b) In connection with the foregoing Development Actions, the Owner of Unit B shall have the right on behalf of the the Association, the Board, and the Owner of Unit A to apply for, make applications and agreements, and to take all actions in order to effectuate the Development Actions, with the County or other governmental agencies and utility companies (to the extent any of the foregoing are deemed by the Owner of Unit B to be necessary or desirable).

19.5 Reserved Rights of The Owner of Unit B to Remove Portions of the Land from the Project.

(a) If the Land shall have been subdivided as permitted in Paragraph 19.4 above, the Owner of Unit B shall have the right without the consent of the Association, the Board, any other Unit Owner or any other person at any time and from time to time, to remove a lot thereby created from the Project (with or without the Unit to which such land is an Exclusive Area;) provided that the effect of such removal shall impact directly only Dwelling Area B, and the rights of the Owner of Unit A to use his Unit and Dwelling Area A shall not have been materially changed from the rights of the Owner of Unit A prior to such subdivision and removal.

(b) If The Owner of Unit B decides that a portion of the Land (whether or not the Unit located thereon) shall be removed from the Project, then the Owner of Unit B shall execute and record in the Recording Office (without the necessity of the consent or joinder of the Association, the Board, any other Unit Owner or any other person) an amendment to the Declaration and the Condominium Map (and shall deliver concurrently to the Board true and correct recorded copies thereof) and which amendment shall contain at least the following:

(i) a description of the Land, if any, remaining subject to the Condominium Property Regime; and

(ii) a site map which shall depict the Land, if any, remaining subject to the Condominium Property Regime, and

(iii) the number and designations of those Units still remaining within the Project; and

(iv) any additional common and limited common elements and easements which shall thereafter be appurtenant to the Units in the Project still remaining, any revisions to the common interest effective upon such subdivision and removal in accordance with Section 6 of the Declaration and such other matters necessary or desirable to effect any such change in the Project.

(c) If the Land is to be subdivided as permitted in Paragraph 19.4 above, and the Owner of Unit B shall desire to remove a lot thereby created from the Project, then each of the Unit Owners (i) shall sign and deliver a quitclaim deed conveying to the Owner of Unit B (or its nominee) all rights such Unit Owner may have in the portion of the Land being removed and (ii) shall cause to be delivered to the Owner of Unit B a partial release of any mortgage or other lien in which the Owner of Unit A is a borrower and which encumbers the land being removed from the Project.

19.6 Changes to Other Than Units. Except as to changes referred to in each of Paragraphs 19.1 to 19.5 inclusive, any changes to the Project different in any material respect from the Condominium Map of the Project, shall be undertaken by the Association of Unit Owners only pursuant to an amendment of this Declaration, duly executed by or pursuant to vote of all the Unit Owners and accompanied by the written consent of the holders of all liens affecting any of the Units, and in accordance with complete plans and specifications therefor first approved in writing by the Board, and promptly upon completion of such restoration, replacement or construction, the Association shall duly file such amendment in said Office, together with a complete set of the floor plans of the Project as so altered, certified as built by a registered architect or professional engineer.

19.7 General Provisions applicable to Section 19. The following provisions shall apply to each of the paragraphs within Section 19 unless the context and usage would clearly indicate to the contrary:

(a) The rights set forth in each of the Paragraphs within Section 19 for the benefit of a Unit Owner (including without limitation, the Declarant as long as he is an Owner) (who may be referred to as "Benefitted Owner") may not be amended without the consent of such Benefitted Owner.

(b) In furtherance of the rights granted under Paragraphs 19.1 through 19.6 inclusive, Benefitted Owner shall have the right, without being required to obtain the consent or joinder of any person, including any other Unit Owner or any lien holder, or any other person who may have any interest in the Property or the Land (i) to execute and deliver (on behalf of all of the Unit Owners and their respective mortgagees, if necessary) applications, petitions, agreements and other instruments which such Benefitted Owner deems necessary or desirable (including without limitation, documents to be filed or recorded with the Department of Planning and Permitting of the City and County of Honolulu, the Recording Office, other governmental agencies, public utility companies or private parties); (ii) to deliver documents and to take such actions in connection therewith as shall be in the sole and absolute discretion of Benefitted Owner, and his delivery of such instrument or the taking of such action shall be sufficient determination; (iii) to amend the Declaration and the Condominium Map to reflect rights of Benefitted Owner set forth such Paragraphs; and (iv) to grant easements for access and utility purposes in favor of any Subdivided Portion across the Land and for access and utility purposes in favor of the remaining portion of the Land across the Subdivided Portion.

(c) If notwithstanding that a paragraph within this Section 19 does not require the consent or joinder of an Owner, lien holder or other person having any interest in the Project ("Third Party") to the action or change by another Owner benefitted by a paragraph within this Section 19 ("Benefitted Owner"), but the Act, County Rules, State Laws, title companies, permitting entities or public utility companies nonetheless do require the consent or joinder by the Third Party, then upon the request of Benefitted Owner, each such Third Party hereby consents in advance to such action or change being made by the benefitted Owner and agrees to consent to and join in, as aforesaid, and to execute all instruments or documents necessary or desirable so that Benefitted Owner may effectuate his change or otherwise do as permitted under the respective paragraph within this Section 19.

If the Third Party fails to provide such requested written joinder, consent, or take such action, as the case may be, such shall be accomplished by signature of the Benefitted Owner acting under an irrevocable power-of-attorney in favor of Benefitted Owner from each of the other Owners and Third Parties, the acquiring or acceptance of ownership in a Unit or of a lien covering a Unit or of any other interest in the Project being a grant of such power, and the grant being coupled with an interest, being irrevocable.

(d) The rights of a Benefitted Owner (including, without limitation, the Subdividing Unit Owner) granted under each of the Paragraphs within Section 19 may be assigned, mortgaged or otherwise be transferred by such benefitted Owner only in connection with the assignment, mortgage or other transfer of the Unit owned by Benefitted Owner.

(e) Each and every conveyance, lease and mortgage or other lien made or created on any Unit and all common interests and other appurtenances thereto shall be subject to the provisions of each of the Paragraphs within Section 19 and any lease of a Exclusive Area shall reserve to each Owner the rights set forth in each of these paragraphs.

SUMMARY OF THE PROVISIONS OF THE SALES CONTRACT. The Sales Contract consists of two documents: a Hawaii Association of Realtors Standard form of Deposit Receipt Offer and Acceptance ("DROA") and a document attached to the DROA which is entitled "SPECIAL CPR PROVISIONS ATTACHED TO THE DROA".

The Special Provisions are intended to amend the DROA, and unless the context would indicate clearly to the contrary, then in the event of any conflict between a provision contained in the Special Provisions and a provision contained in the DROA, the provision contained in the Special Provisions shall prevail.

1. Description of the Property to be Conveyed: Fee simple title to the Apartment, together with the furnishings and appliances, if any, and the undivided interest in the common elements set forth in the DROA.. Title will be conveyed subject to the encumbrances of record.

2. Purchase Price and Terms. The purchase price for the Apartment is set forth on page 2 of the DROA is to be paid in the method and at the times set forth in the DROA. This may include payment of (a). An initial deposit; (b). An additional cash deposit, if set forth in the DROA ; and (c) the balance of the purchase price is to be paid to escrow by purchaser on or before closing.

3. Financing of Purchase. Paragraph C-24 of the DROA Form (if elected) provides if Buyer desires financing, a loan application must be made within a certain number of days and if Buyer's application is not approved within a certain number of days after the application, then either Seller or Buyer may cancel the Sales Contract. Upon such cancellation, Buyer's deposits will be refunded by escrow without interest.

4. Closing Costs. Closing costs and escrow fees are to be shared in accordance with the DROA, except that Seller does have the option to require two months' advance payment of Association maintenance fees and a start up expense for the Association of Apartment Owners equal to two months' of Association maintenance fees. Buyer's proportionate share of any liability insurance premium, real property taxes, maintenance fees and any other charges with respect to the Property shall be pro-rated between Seller and Buyer as of the date of closing.

5. Closing. Seller has agreed to cause the Apartment to be sold to the Buyer within the time period set forth on page 3 of the DROA .

6. No Present Transfer and Subordination to Construction Loan.

(a) The Sales Contract may be subject to existing and future blanket loans, and any security interest now or hereafter obtained by a lender of Seller is or will be prior and senior to any rights of the Buyer arising under the Sales Contract. This obligation to subordinate the purchaser's right under the Sales Contract to loans now or hereafter made by the Seller is set forth in Paragraph 4 of the Special Provisions.

(b) Seller may also assign by way of security all of its interest in the Sales Contract, as collateral for the repayment of the loan and if the Lender acquires the Seller's interest in the Sales Contract, then the Buyer is obligated to perform the Sales Contract, and to attorn to and recognize the Lender as the seller under the Sales Contract.

(c) Notwithstanding that the Sales Contract may be subordinate to a blanket lien, if the Buyer performs his obligations under the Sales Contract, then Seller is required to convey the Apartment to Buyer at closing free and clear of any blanket lien.

7. Seller's Rights to Cancel Sales Contract. The Seller may cancel the Sales Contract with the Buyer if (a) Buyer fails to qualify for a permanent loan (if Paragraph C-24 of the DROA is selected; (b) Buyer defaults under the Sales Contract (paragraph 6(b) of the Special Provisions); (c) Buyer dies prior to Closing Date (paragraph 6(a) of the Special Provisions) or (d) the Final Public Report shall not have been issued and Buyer shall not have waived his right to cancel (called the "Effective Date"). Pursuant to Paragraph 6(b) of the Special Provisions, if Buyer fails to close as required, then in the case only of non-monetary default after ten (10) days following Seller's notice of Buyer's default or otherwise without notice as to monetary defaults, the Seller may cancel the Sales Contract and all sums previously paid by Buyer will belong absolutely to the Seller as liquidated damages. Additionally, Seller may pursue any other remedy, and all costs, including reasonable attorney's fees, incurred by reason of default by the Buyer shall be borne by the Buyer. Time is the essence of the Sales Agreement.

8. Rights of Buyer to Cancel the Sales Contract. The Buyer has the right to cancel the Sales Contract under the following conditions:

(a) At any time within thirty (30) days following the date the Final Public Report is delivered to Buyer. If Buyer so cancels, Buyer will be entitled to receive refund of any deposits, less any escrow cancellation fees and other costs up to $250. If Buyer does not act within the thirty (30) day period, or if the Apartment is conveyed to the Buyer, Buyer will be deemed to have executed the receipt for the Final Public Report and to have waived his right to cancel (paragraphs 6.1 and 6.3 of the Special Provisions).

(b) The Buyer may cancel his purchase if there is a material change in the Project which directly, substantially and adversely affects the use or value of the Buyer's Apartment or the amenities available for the Buyer's use (paragraph 7(a) of the Special Provisions).

(c) Buyer fails to qualify for permanent financing if Paragraph C-24 of the DROA has been selected.

9. Paragraph 11 of the Special Provisions provides that the Buyer acknowledges that he or she has examined (and agrees to be bound) by the Declaration of Condominium Property Regime for the Project, the Bylaws of Association of Dwelling Owners, a specimen Apartment Deed and the Escrow Agreement. Seller reserves the right to modify the above documents as may be required by law, any title insurance company, or any institutional mortgagee.

10. Paragraph 12 of the Special Provisions contains provisions generally disclaiming all warranties relating to construction, design, materials or workmanship of the Apartment being bought and the Project. Buyer is cautioned to have his own inspection of the property and the Apartment.

Paragraph 12 also provides that Unit B presently consists of playhouse. The Declaration of Condominium Property Regime permits the Owner of a Unit to replace the shed with a residence or other improvement, subject to complying with County rules (including without limitation, obtaining a building permit) and subject to other conditions set forth in Paragraph 19.1 of the Declaration.

Seller gives no assurance or warranty that Buyer can obtain building permits for a residence, that adequate utility services will be available to service a residence or be available to the site, that the condition of the site is suitable for the construction of a residence, or that the costs for development of a residence will be reasonable or affordable for Buyer. Buyer acknowledges that he should investigate these and other relevant risks prior to committing to buying Unit. At closing, Seller shall disclaim any and all warranties with respect to the foregoing or any other matters relating to the Project, other than title.

If an owner within the Project intends to construct a residence or other improvements (including the replacement of a shed) after closing on his purchase, then such is likely to cause disruption, dust, noise and debris within the Project, and such could affect the comfort and use of the Project by its owners. Each Owner shall assume the risk of such occurrence.

The Summary contained in this Exhibit is merely a summary and is not intended to be a substitute for the Buyer's careful review of the Sales Contract.

Mr. Robert A. Borofsky

Dear Mr. Borofsky:

Re: Condominium Conversion Project
705 Kaha Street
Tax Map Key: 4-2-016: 008

This is in response to your letter dated August 24, 2005, requesting verification that the structures on the above-referenced property met all applicable code requirements at the time of construction.

Investigation revealed that the two-story single-family detached dwelling with two (2) all-weather-surface off-street parking spaces met all applicable code requirements when it was constructed in 1990 on this 31,130 square foot R- 5 Residential District zoned lot.

Investigation also revealed the following:

1. On April 24, 1986, consolidation and resubdivision (File No. 83/SUB-15) was approved for a portion for Royal Patent 7983, Land Commission Award 4452, Apana 12 to H. Kalama and the whole of Lot 54 of Kihapai Parcels (File Plan 784) into nine (9) residential lots: Lot 1 of 11,182 square-feet (TMK 4-2-082:025); Lot 2 of 7,346 square-feet (TMK 4-3-082:028); Lot 3 of 7,603 square-feet (TMK 4-3-082:092); Lot 4 of 8,266 square-feet (TMK 4-3-082:030); Lot 5 of 10,115 square-feet (TMK 4-2-082:031); Lot 6 of 8,781 square-feet (TMK 4-3-082:032); Lot 7 of 7,466 square-feet (TMK 4-3-082:033); Lot 8 of 7,560 square-feet (TMK 4-3-082:034); Lot 10, a 60-foot-wide roadway (TMK 4-3-082:036); for the extension of Kaha Street for park access purposes, and a remainder area (Lot 11) of 0.714 acre (TMK 4-2-016:008), together with an 80-foot-wide right-of way (Lot 9) (TMK 4-3-082:035), for the extension of Kainui Street; and designation of Easements 1 to 7. Presently, the dwelling is on Lot 11 (TMK 4-2-016:008).
2. The 16 square-foot storage shed at the rear of property is permitted as an accessory use. One-story accessory storage sheds with an aggregate floor area not exceeding 120 square-feet and meeting zoning code requirements do not require building permits.

November 8, 2005

3. An affidavit was issued with building permit No.305816 on August 1, 1991, stating, "The entire structure shall be maintained as a single family dwelling containing only one kitchen. An interior connection shall be provided as shown on the approved plans."

For your information, the Department of Planning and Permitting cannot determine all legal nonconforming uses or structures, as a result of the adoption or amendment of any ordinance or code.

No variances or other permits were granted to allow deviation from any applicable codes.

Conversion to a condominium property regime (CPR) is not recognized by the City and County as an approved subdivision. CPR delineates ownership; it does not create separate lots of record for subdivision and zoning purposes.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact Mr. Ivan Matsumoto of our Commercial and Multi-Family Code Enforcement Branch at 527-6341.

Very truly yours,

Henry Eng, FAICP, Director
Director of Planning and Permitting
