General Information On Condominiums

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of the Condominium Property Act, Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, must be complied with. In addition, certain requirements and approvals of the County in which the project is located must be satisfied and obtained.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owners/tenants) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements at the lessee's expense. Leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

If you are a typical condominium owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

"Common elements" are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called "limited common elements" and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged or encumbered, and may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the project's Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without the vote of the owners. For example, the board may hire and fire employees, increase or decrease maintenance fees, borrow money for repair and improvements and set a budget. Some of these actions may significantly impact the apartment owners.

Until there is a sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is important to all apartment owners that the transition of control from the developer to the apartment owners be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

II. CREATION OF THE CONDOMINIUM; CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS

A condominium is created by recording in the Bureau of Conveyances and/or filing with the Land Court a Declaration of Condominium Property Regime, a Condominium Map (File Plan), and the Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners. The Condominium Property Act (Chapter 514A, HRS), the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules control the rights and obligations of the apartment owners with respect to the project and the common elements, to each other, and to their respective apartments. The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

- A. Declaration of Condominium Property Regime contains a description of the land, buildings, apartments, common elements, limited common elements, common interests, and other information relating to the condominium project.

House Rules may cover matters such as parking regulations, hours of operation for common facilities such as recreation areas, use of lanais and requirement for keeping pets. These rules must be followed by owners, tenants, and guests. They do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective. The initial House Rules are usually adopted by the developer.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON LEASEHOLD CONDOMINIUM PROJECTS

The information contained in this report is a summary of the terms of the lease. For more detailed information, you should secure a copy of the lease documents and read them thoroughly.

If you have any legal questions about leasehold property, the lease documents or the terms of the lease and the consequences of becoming a lessee, you should seek the advice of an attorney.

There are currently no statutory provisions for the mandatory conversion of leasehold condominiums and there are no assurances that such measures will be enacted in the future.

In leasehold condominium projects, the buyer of an apartment will acquire the right to occupy and use the apartment for the time stated in the lease agreement. The buyer will not acquire outright or absolute fee simple ownership of the land. The land is owned by the lessor or the leased fee owner. The apartment owner or lessee must make lease rent payments and comply with the terms of the lease or be subject to the lessor's enforcement actions. The lease rent payments are usually fixed at specific amounts for fixed periods of time, and are then subject to renegotiation. Renegotiation may be based on a formula, by arbitration set in the lease agreement, by law or by agreement between the lessor and lessee. The renegotiated lease rents may increase significantly. At the end of the lease, the apartment owners may have to surrender the apartments, the improvements and the land back to the lessor without any compensation (surrender clause).

When leasehold property is sold, title is normally conveyed by means of an assignment of lease, the purpose of which is similar to that of a deed. The legal and practical effect is different because the assignment conveys only the rights and obligations created by the lease, not the property itself.

The developer of this condominium project may have entered into a master ground lease with the fee simple owner of the land in order to develop the project. The developer may have then entered into a sublease or a new lease of the land with the lessee (apartment owner). The developer may lease the improvements to the apartment owner by way of an apartment lease or sublease, or sell the improvements to the apartment owners by way of a condominium conveyance or apartment deed.

- a. No variances to zoning code have been granted.
 Variance(s) to zoning code was/were granted as follows:

b. Conforming/Non-Conforming Uses, Structures, Lot

	Conforming	Non-Conforming	Illegal
Uses	 X
Structures	 X
Lot	 X

If a variance has been granted or if uses, improvements or lot are either non-conforming or illegal, buyer should consult with county zoning authorities as to possible limitations which may apply.

Limitations may include restrictions on extending, enlarging, or continuing the non-conformity, and restrictions on altering and repairing structures. In some cases, a non-conforming structure that is destroyed or damaged cannot be reconstructed.

The buyer may not be able to obtain financing or insurance if the condominium project has a non-conforming or illegal use, structure, or lot.

D. Common Elements, Limited Common Elements, Common Interest:

1. Common Elements: Common Elements are those parts of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. Although the common elements are owned jointly by all apartment owners, those portions of the common elements which are designated as limited common elements (see paragraph 2 below) may be used only by those apartments to which they are assigned. The common elements for this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit "E" .

2. Limited Common Elements: Limited Common Elements are those common elements which are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments.

There are no limited common elements in this project.

The limited common elements and the apartments which use them, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit _____ "F".

as follows:

3. Common Interest: Each apartment will have an undivided fractional interest in all of the common elements. This interest is called the "common interest." It is used to determine each apartment's share of the maintenance fees and other common profits and expenses of the condominium project. It may also be used for other purposes, including voting on matters requiring action by apartment owners. The common interests for the apartments in this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit _____ "D".

as follows:

E. Encumbrances Against Title: An encumbrance is a claim against or a liability on the property or a document affecting the title or use of the property. Encumbrances may have an adverse effect on the property or your purchase and ownership of an apartment in the project.

Exhibit _____ "G" describes the encumbrances against the title contained in the title report dated February 2, 2006 and issued by Title Guaranty of Hawaii, Inc.

Blanket Liens:

A blanket lien is an encumbrance (such as a mortgage) on the entire condominium project that secures some type of monetary debt (such as a loan) or other obligation. A blanket lien is usually released on an apartment-by-apartment basis upon payment of specified sums so that individual apartments can be conveyed to buyers free and clear of the lien.

[] There are no blanket liens affecting title to the individual apartments.

[X] There are blanket liens which may affect title to the individual apartments. *

Blanket liens (except for improvement district or utility assessments) must be released before the developer conveys the apartment to a buyer. The buyer's interest will be affected if the developer defaults and the lien is foreclosed prior to conveying the apartment to buyer.

Type of Lien

Effect on Buyer's Interest and Deposit if Developer Defaults
Or Lien is Foreclosed Prior to Conveyance

* The land underlying the Project is encumbered by that certain Mortgage and Fixture Filing by and between LA-Kapolei I, LLC, as Mortgagor, and Fremont Investment & Loan, as Mortgagee, filed in the Office of the Assistant Registrar of the Land Court of the State of Hawaii as Land Court Document No. 3209619, as amended by that certain instrument dated January 4, 2006, and recorded in said Land Court as Document No. 3379407 ("Mortgage"). Developer obtained the loan secured by the Mortgage to finance the construction and further development of the Project. The Mortgage will be a "blanket lien" on the entire project, including all apartments. Upon conveyance of an apartment to a buyer, however, the Mortgage will be released as to the apartment being conveyed. If there is a default and foreclosure of the Mortgage prior to conveyance, the buyer may lose the right to buy the apartment, but will receive its deposit back.

F. Construction Warranties:

Warranties for individual apartments and the common elements, including the beginning and ending dates for each warranty, are as follows:

1. Building and Other Improvements:

The Developer does not make any warranties for the Project, but merely passes on the warranties made to it by the general contractor to correct any work found defective within one (1) year after the date of substantial completion of the building of the Project where the defective work was found.

2. Appliances:

None.

G. Status of Construction and Date of Completion or Date of Estimated Completion

The Developer estimates that the Project will be completed by the end of the fourth quarter of 2006.

H. Project Phases:

The developer [X] has [] has not reserved the right to add to, merge, or phase this condominium.

Summary of Developer's plans or right to perform for future development (such as additions, mergers or phasing):

In accordance with Article XXI of the Declaration, the Developer has reserved the right to construct and annex additional apartments to the Project, and in accordance with Article XXVIII, the Developer has reserved the right to construct the project in two or more phases. Also, in accordance with the Developer's reserved rights in the Declaration, of which a summary is attached as Exhibit "A", there is no guaranty that any improvements in the Project will be developed.

IV. CONDOMINIUM MANAGEMENT

A. Management of the Common Elements: The Association of Apartment Owners is responsible for the management of the common elements and the overall operation of the condominium project. The Association may be permitted, and in some cases may be required, to employ or retain a condominium managing agent to assist the Association in managing the condominium project.

Initial Condominium Management Agent: When the developer or the developer's affiliate is the initial condominium managing agent, the management contract must have a term of one year or less and the parties must be able to terminate the contract on notice of 60 days or less.

The initial condominium managing agent for this project, named on page five (5) of this report, is:

not affiliated with the Developer the Developer or the Developer's affiliate.

The percentage Common Interest attributable to each Apartment in the Project was calculated by dividing the approximate net square footage of each individual Apartment by the total net square footage of all Apartments within the Project.

Note that the Common Interest percentages reflected in the chart above have been rounded to the sixth decimal place. Thus, the calculations herein are estimates and not exact figures. In order to permit the Common Interest for all Apartments to equal exactly one hundred percent (100%), the Common Interest attributable to Apartment No. 101D was increased by .000001%.

 3. Calculation of Number of Parking Stalls

Each Apartment, including Apartments 101E and 102E, shall have the nonexclusive use of the specific number of parking stalls indicated in the last column of the table above. The number of parking stalls for use by each Apartment was calculated by multiplying the percentage of common interest attributable to each individual Apartment by the total number of parking stalls which are common elements of the Project - one hundred ninety-eight (198) parking stalls. Note that the calculation of the number of stalls was rounded up to the nearest whole number.

* 4. Calculation of Number of Parking Stalls that are Limited Common Elements and Assigned to Apartments 101E and 102E

Apartments 101E and 102E shall have the right to use those parking stalls numbered 18-37 located within the private yard area depicted on the Condominium Map. Apartment 101E shall have the right to use seven (7) of the parking stalls located in such private yard area and Apartment 102E shall have the right to use thirteen (13) of such parking stalls. The allocation of parking stalls that Apartments 101E and 102E are each entitled to use within the private yard area was calculated by dividing the net square footage of each Apartment by the aggregate net square footage of both Apartments and multiplying the resulting percentage by the total number of parking stalls within the private yard area - twenty (20) parking stalls. Note that the calculation was rounded up to the nearest whole number.¹

 5. Total Number of Parking Stalls

The total number of parking stalls in the Project is two hundred twenty-eight (228). Subject to the limitations as to the number of stalls that each Apartment may use on a nonexclusive basis as indicated in the table above, one hundred ninety-eight (198) stalls are common elements for nonexclusive use of all Apartments, and twenty (20) stalls are designated as limited common elements for the use of Apartments 101E and 102E. Additionally, there are ten (10) handicap parking stalls in the Project.

¹ The total net square footage area of Building E is 9511 square feet. The calculation for Apartments 101E and 102E is as follows:
Apartment 101E: 3228 square feet/9511 square feet = 33.9396488%
33.9396488% x 20 = 6.7879298, rounded up to 7

Apartment 102E: 6283 square feet/9511 square feet = 66.0603511%
66.0603511% x 20 = 13.2120702, rounded up to 13

SUMMARY OF PURCHASE AGREEMENT

Capitalized terms have the same meaning as ascribed to such terms in the Purchase Agreement.

The specimen Sales Contract, filed with the State of Hawaii Real Estate Commission, provides for, among other things, a description of the Apartment to be sold, the purchase price, the closing costs, the time, manner and place of payment, the Purchaser's obligations regarding financing, the Seller's warranties and disclaimers regarding the Condominium Map and Project, and the remedies of the Seller and of the Purchaser in the event of a default under the Purchase Agreement.

Among other provisions the specimen Purchase Agreement provides:

1. That the Purchase Agreement shall become binding when (i) a true copy of the Contingent Final Public Report (or Final Public Report, if applicable) together with a return receipt form required by Hawaii Revised Statutes, Section 514A-62, as amended, is delivered to the Purchaser, (ii) the Purchaser has an opportunity to read the report(s), and (iii) a Deemed Acceptance of such report(s) by the Purchaser shall have occurred.

2. The Seller has entered into an Escrow Agreement, summarized in Exhibit "J" herein, with Title Guaranty Escrow Services, Inc. ("Escrow"), covering the deposit of all funds paid by Purchaser under the Purchase Agreement and the disbursement of funds by Escrow. In the event a purchase is cancelled, Escrow may charge a cancellation fee on account of escrow services performed.

3. The Purchase Agreement requires the Purchaser to pay the Purchase Price by a series of payments prior to Closing. Such payments include the amount due upon execution of the Purchase Agreement and the balance of down payment due in escrow prior to the Closing. Purchaser shall then deposit at or prior to Closing the remaining balance due.

4. The Purchase Agreement provides that Purchaser will not receive any interest on Purchaser's deposits. All interest on Purchaser's deposit, if any, shall accrue to Seller.

5. If the Purchaser indicates that a portion of the Purchase Price is to be financed by indicating so in the Purchase Agreement, then the Purchase Agreement shall be subject to the condition of Purchaser being able to obtain written final loan approval acceptable to Seller, in Seller's sole discretion. Financing by Seller of any portion of the Purchase Price is not available.

6. The Purchase Agreement provides that the Purchaser shall pay for the following closing costs: the escrow fee, cost of a preliminary title report, cost of preparation of the Apartment Deed, real property tax and other prorations, all acknowledgment fees, conveyance taxes, title insurance, if requested by Purchaser, cost of any lender's title insurance, appraisal fees, costs for drafting of any notes and mortgages, all recording costs or fees, loan fees, credit report costs and all other applicable mortgage costs. Purchaser shall pay a start-up fee equal to two (2) months of the estimated maintenance fees in advance, in the amount specified in Section C.1.c of the Purchase Agreement.

7. The Purchase Agreement provides that Seller shall complete construction of the Project so as to permit normal occupancy of the Apartment within two (2) years from the date this Agreement becomes binding, provided that such two (2) year period may be extended during any period during which Seller is actually and necessarily delayed in commencing or completing construction, if such delay is caused by fire, earthquake, or other acts of God, war or civil disturbance, litigation or threats of litigation, strikes or labor trouble, or other matters or conditions beyond Seller's control.

8. The Purchase Agreement provides that it shall not be construed as a present transfer of interest in the Property, but rather states that it is an agreement to transfer in the future in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Sale Contract.

9. The Purchase Agreement provides that it may not be assigned to Purchaser. Any such assignment by Purchaser shall be void. Seller may, without any consent of Purchaser, freely assign the Seller's interest herein.

10. The Purchase Agreement provides that any dispute by or between the Seller and Purchaser arising out of or incident to the Purchase Agreement, or the development or management of the Project, the sale of the Apartment or the occupancy thereof, or any other aspect of the relationship between Seller and Purchaser regarding the Project which is raised otherwise shall be submitted to mediation, and if necessary to arbitration in accordance with the terms, conditions and procedures set forth in the Purchase Agreement.

THE ABOVE SUMMARY IS NOT INTENDED TO BE A THOROUGH AND EXHAUSTIVE EXPLANATION OF ALL TERMS AND PROVISIONS CONTAINED IN THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT. WHILE A PURCHASER CAN USE THIS SUMMARY AS A GENERAL SUMMARY OF THE PURCHASER'S RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT, PURCHASER MUST REFER TO THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT TO DETERMINE PURCHASER'S ACTUAL RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS. IF ANY CONFLICT OR DIFFERENCE EXISTS BETWEEN THIS SUMMARY AND THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT, THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT WILL CONTROL.

SUMMARY OF ESCROW AGREEMENT

The Escrow Agreement for the Project contains the following provisions (which may be modified or otherwise limited by provisions which are not summarized hereinbelow):

A. As and when Seller shall enter into a Purchase Agreement for the conveyance of an apartment or other interest in the Project, it shall require the payments of deposits due thereunder to be promptly made to Escrow, and shall deliver an executed copy of the Purchase Agreement to Escrow together with the address of the purchaser. Seller shall also promptly pay over to Escrow all monies (including checks) received by Seller from or on behalf of the purchasers and all payments made on loan commitments from lending institutions on account of any apartment in the Project.

B. Escrow shall receive, deposit and hold in separate escrow accounts and disburse as herein set forth: (a) all payments received by it under Purchase Agreements, (b) such sums received by it hereunder from or for the account of Seller, and (c) all sums received by it from any other source with respect to the Project. Escrow shall not at any time commingle or permit the commingling of any purchasers' funds with funds belonging to or held for the benefit of Seller. All funds and instruments received from purchasers or prospective purchasers shall be held by Escrow in accordance with the provisions contained in the Condominium Property Act.

C. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Escrow shall make no disbursements of purchasers' funds or proceeds from the sale of such apartments (including any payments made on loan commitments from lending institutions), except by way of refunds thereof as provided hereinbelow, until (a) the Real Estate Commission has issued an effective date for Final Public Report for the Project, and (b) Escrow has received a letter from Seller stating that the purchasers have signed the required Receipt and Notice of Right to Cancel or are deemed to have accepted for the public reports and to have waived their right to cancel, and stating further that no subsequent events have occurred which would give the purchasers the right to rescind, the Purchase Agreements have "become binding" and "the requirements of Sections 514A-40, 514A-39.5 and 514A-63" of the Hawaii Revised Statutes have been met, as said phrases are used in Section 514A-65 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes, and further, that the requirements of Section 514A-62 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes have been met, as each of the foregoing sections may be amended on the date the Purchase Agreement becomes binding and effective. Seller agrees to inform Escrow promptly in writing of the development of any event or occurrence which renders the letter delivered by Seller pursuant to this paragraph untrue in any material respect.

D. Each purchaser shall be entitled to a return of his or her funds, without interest, and Escrow shall pay such funds to such purchaser, promptly after request for return by the purchaser, if one of the following has occurred:

(1) Escrow receives a written request from Seller to return to the purchaser the funds of the purchaser then being held hereunder by Escrow;

(2) Seller notifies Escrow in writing of Seller's exercise of the option to rescind the Purchase Agreement pursuant to any right of rescission stated therein or otherwise available to Seller; or

(3) The conditions providing for a refund under Section 514A-62 or under Section 514A-63 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes (as amended on the date upon which the Purchase Agreement becomes binding and effective) have been met, and written notice thereof has been provided by Seller to Escrow.

Upon the cancellation of any Purchase Agreement as specified above, Escrow shall be entitled to a $25.00 cancellation fee. Notwithstanding anything herein or in any Purchase Agreement provided to the contrary, said compensation of Escrow shall be the sole expense of the individual purchaser and shall not in any way be the obligation of Seller, unless cancellation is made pursuant to either Section 514A-62 or 514A-63 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes, whereupon Seller shall pay such fee.

D. Except as otherwise provided by law, Escrow shall give each purchaser entitled to a return of his or her funds notice thereof by certified or registered mail, addressed to such purchaser at his address shown on the Purchase Agreement or any address later made known to Escrow by such purchaser. If such purchaser shall not have claimed such refund within one hundred twenty (120) days from the date said notice is mailed, Escrow, shall deposit such funds into a special account in a bank or other depository selected by Escrow in the name of Seller, as trustee for the benefit of such purchaser. After having sent Seller written notice of the foregoing acts, Escrow shall thereupon be released from further liability hereunder with respect to such funds and such purchaser.

E. If the purchaser fails to make any payment on or before the due date thereof or if the purchaser does or fails to do any act which would constitute a default under the Purchase Agreement, Seller shall promptly give to such purchaser and to Escrow written notice of default. If purchaser has failed to cure the default after the delivery of notice by Escrow and such default continues after the expiration of any grace period, Escrow shall so advise Seller. If Seller shall thereafter certify in writing to Escrow: (1) that Seller has elected to terminate the Purchase Agreement and has notified the purchaser, or (2) that purchaser is otherwise in default, then, and in either event, Escrow, subject to the provisions relating to dispute and conflicting demands hereinafter set forth in paragraph 14, shall thereafter treat all funds of the purchaser paid under such Purchase Agreement, less Escrow's cancellation fee, as funds of Seller and not of the purchaser. Thereafter, such funds shall be held free of the escrow established by this Agreement and shall be held by Escrow for the account of Seller. Upon written request by Seller, Escrow shall pay such funds [less Escrow's cancellation fee] to Seller or order and shall return to Seller a copy the Purchase Agreement of such purchaser.
