Summary of Changes from Earlier Public Report

This summary contains a general description of the changes, if any, made by the developer since the last public report was issued. It is not necessarily all inclusive. Prospective buyers should compare this public report with the earlier reports if they wish to know the specific changes that have been made.

No prior reports have been issued by the developer.

Changes made are as follows:

SPECIAL ATTENTION

This is a Condominium Project, not a subdivision. The land area beneath and immediately appurtenant to each unit is designated as a LIMITED COMMON AREA and is NOT a legally subdivided lot. The dotted lines on the Condominium Map bounding the designated number of square feet in each limited common element land area are for illustrative purposes only and should not be construed to be the property lines of legally subdivided lots

This Public Report does not constitute approval of the Project by the Real Estate Commission, or any other governmental agency, nor does it ensure that all applicable County codes, ordinances, and subdivision requirements have necessarily been complied with

The only buildings on the property are a Farm Dwelling and a Storage Shed, each of which may be defined as an "apartment" under the condominium property act.

THERE ARE RESTRICTIONS ON THE NUMBER OF RESIDENTIAL DWELLING UNITS, OR OTHER STRUCTURES, WHICH MAY BE BUILT ON THE PROPERTY. THERE IS NO ASSURANCE THAT THE PURCHASER WILL BE ABLE TO BUILD A RESIDENTIAL DWELLING UNIT ON THE PROPERTY. THERE IS ALSO NO ASSURANCE THAT THE PURCHASER WILL BE ABLE TO CONVERT AN EXISTING NON-RESIDENTIAL STRUCTURE TO A RESIDENTIAL USE. ANY DWELLING CONSTRUCTED ON THE PROJECT MUST COMPLY WITH CHAPTER 25 OF THE HAWAII COUNTY CODE AND RULE 13 OF PLANNING DEPARTMENT RULES, AS THOSE RULES MAY BE ALTERED, AMENDED OR REPLACED. THE PURCHASER IS URGED TO CONSULT WITH THE APPROPRIATE COUNTY AGENCIES TO DETERMINE WHETHER THE PURCHASER MAY BUILD A RESIDENTIAL DWELLING UNIT, OR ANY OTHER TYPE OF STRUCTURE, ON THE PROPERTY.

The condominium declaration and bylaws for this project were initially recorded on 5-30-00. They named Mauka Holualoa IV as fee owner and Pangola, Inc. as developer. These documents were amended of record on 11/29/05

Though the Notice of Intention to sell was not filed with the Real Estate Commission until April 9, 2007, this report is issued under HRS Section 514A because the project documents were recorded before July 1, 2006.

Facilities and improvements normally associated with County approved subdivisions, such as fire protection devices, County street lighting, electricity, upgraded water facilities, improved access for owners and emergency traffic, drainage facilities, etc., may not be provided, and services such as County street maintenance and trash collection may not be available for interior roads and driveways.

Based on directives issued by the Hawaii County Planning Office, without the Developer first satisfying certain county requirements, the purchaser may not be able to develop, replace, expand, or construct other structures for this condominium project in the future. Prior the purchase, the prospective purchase is advised to review this condominium project with the respective Hawaii county Planning Office to receive the most recent directive on this issue.

THE PROSPECTIVE PURCHASER IS CAUTIONED TO CAREFULLY REVIEW THE CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS REFERENCED IN THIS PUBLIC REPORT FOR FURTHER INFORMATION WITH REGARD TO THE FOREGOING

General Information On Condominiums

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of the Condominium Property Act, Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, must be complied with. In addition, certain requirements and approvals of the County in which the project is located must be satisfied and obtained.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owners/tenants) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements at the lessee's expense. Leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

"Common elements" are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called "limited common elements" and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged or encumbered, and may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the project's Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without the vote of the owners. For example, the board may hire and fire employees, increase or decrease maintenance fees, borrow money for repair and improvements and set a budget. Some of these actions may significantly impact the apartment owners.

Until there is a sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is important to all apartment owners that the transition of control from the developer to the apartment owners be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

II. CREATION OF THE CONDOMINIUM;
CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS

A condominium is created by recording in the Bureau of Conveyances and/or filing with the Land Court a Declaration of Condominium Property Regime, a Condominium Map (File Plan), and the Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners. The Condominium Property Act (Chapter 514A, HRS), the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules control the rights and obligations of the apartment owners with respect to the project and the common elements, to each other, and to their respective apartments. The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON LEASEHOLD CONDOMINIUM PROJECTS

The information contained in this report is a summary of the terms of the lease. For more detailed information, you should secure a copy of the lease documents and read them thoroughly.

If you have any legal questions about leasehold property, the lease documents or the terms of the lease and the consequences of becoming a lessee, you should seek the advice of an attorney

There are currently no statutory provisions for the mandatory conversion of leasehold condominiums and there are no assurances that such measures will be enacted in the future.

In leasehold condominium projects, the buyer of an apartment will acquire the right to occupy and use the apartment for the time stated in the lease agreement. The buyer will not acquire outright or absolute fee simple ownership of the land. The land is owned by the lessor or the leased fee owner. The apartment owner or lessee must make lease rent payments and comply with the terms of the lease or be subject to the lessor's enforcement actions. The lease rent payments are usually fixed at specific amounts for fixed periods of time, and are then subject to renegotiation. Renegotiation may be based on a formula, by arbitration set in the lease agreement by law or by agreement between the lessor and lessee. The renegotiated lease rents may increase significantly. At the end of the lease, the apartment owners may have to surrender the apartments, the improvements and the land back to the lessor without any compensation (surrender clause).

When leasehold property is sold, title is normally conveyed by means of an assignment of lease, the purpose of which is similar to that of a deed. The legal and practical effect is different because the assignment conveys only the rights and obligations created by the lease, not the property itself.

The developer of this condominium project may have entered into a master ground lease with the fee simple owner of the land in order to develop the project. The developer may have then entered into a sublease or a new lease of the land with the lessee (apartment owner). The developer may lease the improvements to the apartment owner by way of an apartment lease or sublease, or sell the improvements to the apartment owners by way of a condominium conveyance or apartment deed.

11. Conformance to Present Zoning Code:

- a. No variances to zoning code have been granted.
 Variance(s) to zoning code was/were granted as follows:

	Conforming	Non-Conforming	Illegal
Uses	 x

If a variance has been granted or if uses, improvements or lot are either non-conforming or illegal, buyer should consult with county zoning authorities as to possible limitations which may apply.

Limitations may include restrictions on extending, enlarging, or continuing the non-conformity, and restrictions on altering and repairing structures. In some cases, a non-conforming structure that is destroyed or damaged cannot be reconstructed.

The buyer may not be able to obtain financing or insurance if the condominium project has a non-conforming or illegal use, structure or lot.

D. Common Elements, Limited Common Elements, Common Interest:

1. Common Elements: Common Elements are those parts of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. Although the common elements are owned jointly by all apartment owners, those portions of the common elements which are designated as limited common elements (see paragraph 2 below) may be used only by those apartments to which they are assigned. The common elements for this project, as described in the Declaration are:

described in Exhibit C

It is used to determine each apartment's share of the maintenance fees and other common profits and expenses of the condominium project. It may also be used for other purposes, including voting on matters requiring action by apartment owners. The common interests for the apartments in this project, as described in the Declaration are:

described in Exhibit _____

as follows:

Apartment "A" : Fifty Percent (50%)

Apartment "B" : Fifty Percent (50%)

Each apartment has an equal undivided fractional interest in all of the common elements. The common interests are equal and not related to or determined by the size of the apartments.

E. Encumbrances Against Title: An encumbrance is a claim against or a liability on the property or a document affecting the title or use of the property. Encumbrances may have an adverse effect on the property or your purchase and ownership of an apartment in the project.

Exhibit "D" describes the encumbrances against the title contained in the title report dated 3/6/2007 and issued by TITLE GUARANTY ESCROW SERVICE, INC.

Blanket Liens:

A blanket lien is an encumbrance (such as a mortgage) on the entire condominium project that secures some type of monetary debt (such as a loan) or other obligation. A blanket lien is usually released on an apartment-by-apartment basis upon payment of specified sums so that individual apartments can be conveyed to buyers free and clear of the lien.

There are no blanket liens affecting title to the individual apartments.

There are blanket liens which may affect title to the individual apartments.

Blanket liens (except for improvement district or utility assessments) must be released before the developer conveys the apartment to a buyer. The buyer's interest will be affected if the developer defaults and the lien is foreclosed prior to conveying the apartment to buyer.

Type of Lien	Effect on Buyer's Interest and Deposit if Developer Defaults or Lien is Foreclosed Prior to Conversion
---------------------	--

F. Construction Warranties:

DESCRIPTION OF COMMON ELEMENTS
AND LIMITED COMMON ELEMENTS

All of the property is Fee Simple.

In the various documents relating to this project, the term "Common Element" means the same thing as the term "Common Area", and the term "Limited Common Element" means the same thing as "Limited Common Area".

Common Elements are those portions of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. Common Elements are owned jointly by all apartment owners. The owners of each apartment own an undivided one-half (1/2) interest (undivided 50% interest) in all of the Common Elements for all purposes, including voting. This means that the ownership does not depend on the size of an apartment or the use to which an apartment is put. The Common Elements include the land upon which the project is located, in fee simple, and all other portions of the project, other than the Apartments, including, specifically, but not limited to, the Common Elements mentioned in the Act that are actually constructed on the land, and all other portions of the Project necessary or convenient to its existence, maintenance and safety or normally in common use and which are not included as part of an apartment, including but not limited to following:

- (a) The land in fee simple;
- (b) All ducts, electrical equipment, wiring, pipes and other central and appurtenant transmission facilities and installations over, under and across the project, if any, which serve more than one (1) apartment for services such as power, light, water, gas, sewer, telephone and radio and television signal distribution, if any.
- (c) The roof and all load bearing perimeter walls that serve more than one apartment, if any;
- (d) Any and all other elements and facilities rationally in common use or necessary to the existence, upkeep and safety of the Project.
- (e) The common elements shall remain undivided, and no right shall exist to partition or divide any part thereof, except as provided in the Condominium Property Act.
- (f) Any such partition or division shall be subject to the prior consent thereto by the holder(s) of all mortgage(s) of any condominium Apartment(s) which are filed of record.
- (g) All the rights, benefits and privileges, if any, inuring to the land or to the Condominium from all easements shown on the File Plan or listed in Exhibit "A", or acquired subsequent to the creation of those documents.
- (h) Any and all other portions of the land and improvements that are not specifically designated for use by one or more specific Apartments, but which are intended for common use, including any directory facilities that may be established, and all other apparatus and installations the use of which exists for, is rationally allocated to or is necessary to the existence, upkeep and safety of more than one Apartment of the Condominium Project or which may otherwise be of common use.
- (i) There are no Common Areas on the project.

Unless clearly repugnant to the context thereof, the term "Common Elements" also means and includes the limited common elements hereinafter described.

Limited Common Elements are those portions of the Common Elements which are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. They are often referred to as Limited Common Area.

Limited Common Elements for Apartment "A". The Limited Common Elements for Apartment A are the approximately 2.791 acres of land appurtenant to Apartment "A". A dashed line on the Condominium File Plan indicates the land appurtenant to Apartment "A". The dashed line, metes and bounds, courses and distances, and statement of a land area on Condominium File Plan do not indicate that the land has been subdivided. They only define the Limited Common Area for Apartment "A".

Limited Common Elements for Apartment "B". The Limited Common Elements for Apartment "B" are the approximately 1.000 acres appurtenant to Apartment "B". A dashed line on the Condominium File Plan indicates the land appurtenant to Apartment "B". The dashed line, metes and bounds, courses and distances, and statement of a land area on the Condominium File Plan do not indicate that the land has been subdivided. They only define the Limited Common Area for Apartment "B".

Each apartment has an equal undivided one-half (1/2) interest (undivided 50% interest) in all of the common elements for all purposes, including voting.

c. The Purchaser may be required to pay a loan fee in order to get a loan.

d. The Seller has no obligation to arrange for the Purchaser's mortgage or other financing.

9. That the apartment and the Project will be subject to various legal documents which Purchaser should examine, and that the Developer may change these documents under certain conditions.

10. That the Developer makes no warranties regarding the apartment, the Project or anything installed or contained in the apartment or the Project.

11. That the Purchaser must close the purchase at a certain date and pay closing costs, in addition to the purchase price. The closing date will be set by the Seller, but it will not be sooner than sixty (60) days after the Deposit, Receipt and Sales Contract becomes binding.

EXHIBIT "G"

SUMMARY OF ESCROW AGREEMENT

The Escrow Agreement sets up an arrangement under which the deposits a Buyer makes pursuant to the Sales Contract will be held by a neutral party ("Escrow"). Under the Escrow Agreement, these things will or may happen:

1. Escrow will let the Buyer know when payments are due.
2. Escrow will arrange for the Buyer to sign all necessary documents.
3. The Buyer will be entitled to a refund of his or her funds only under certain circumstances as set forth in the Sales Contract. Those circumstances include the following:
 - a. If the Seller is not able to provide the Buyer with clear title at the time of closing;
 - b. The Buyer has a right to cancel the Deposit, Receipt and Sales Contract before the apartment has been transferred to him or at any time within thirty (30) days after delivery of the Public Report, whichever is earlier and to have all money paid into escrow refunded less any escrow cancellation fees and other costs, up to $250, by giving notice to the Seller as provided by HRS § 514A-62 (d), as amended.
4. Subject to the conditions set forth below, the Buyer of a condominium unit under a sales contract shall be entitled to a refund of all payments made to date thereof, less such fee as hereinafter enumerated, if any, and without interest. Escrow agrees to make such refunds to Buyer out of funds then on deposit with Escrow, if Buyer shall so request in writing and any one of the following events shall have occurred.
 - a. Escrow has received a written request from Developer to return to the buyer the funds of such buyer then held by Escrow; or
 - b. Developer shall have notified Escrow of Developer's exercise to cancel or rescind the sales contract pursuant to any right of cancellation or recession provided therein or otherwise available to Developer; or
 - c. With respect to a buyer whose funds were obtained prior to the issuance of the Final Public Report, the buyer has exercised his right to cancel the contract pursuant to § 514A-62, Hawaii Revised Statutes, as amended; or
 - d. A buyer has exercised his right to rescind the contract pursuant to § 514A-63, Hawaii Revised Statutes, as amended; or
 - e. If, in accordance with Part VI of Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, as amended:
 - i. No sales contract is offered to a buyer who was placed on the Developer's reservation list of owner-occupant applicants; or
 - ii. The buyer has been unable to obtain adequate financing, or a commitment for adequate financing, for his unit within thirty (30) calendar days following the end of the ten (10) calendar day period during which the developer is limited to selling to owner-occupants; or
 - iii. The buyer desires to cancel the contract on account of hardship circumstances such as those set forth in § 514A-104(1) Hawaii Revised Statutes, as amended; or
 - iv. The buyer indicates an intent not to become an owner-occupant of such unit.
5. The Escrow Agreement also establishes the procedures for the retention and/or disbursement of a Buyer's funds, and says what will happen to the funds upon a default under the Sales Contract.

a. Retention of Buyer's funds. The Escrow will retain the Buyer's funds until the escrow is ready to close. When the Escrow is ready to close, the Escrow will disburse the Buyer's funds according to the terms of the Escrow Agreement.

b. Disbursement of Buyer's funds. If for some reason the escrow cannot close, either because of the fault of the Seller or the Buyer, then the Escrow will disburse the Buyer's funds, less escrow costs and fees of up to $250.00, as follows:

(a) To the Buyer if the Buyer is entitled to a refund;

(b) To the Seller if the Buyer is in default (see below); or

(c) In accordance with any subsequent agreement signed by both the Seller and the Buyer.

6. Indemnification of Escrow. In the Sales Contract the Seller and the Buyer agree that they will be jointly and severally liable to Escrow for all losses, costs, damages or money owed, including reasonable attorneys' fees, that Escrow must pay as a result of this Sales Contract. If Escrow has the right to collect these amounts from any other person, then that right shall belong to the Seller after the Seller pays Escrow. However, neither the Seller nor the Buyer has to pay to Escrow any losses, costs, damages, money owned or attorneys' fees if Escrow has done something wrong or doesn't do something it is supposed to do and that act or failure to act is not reasonable or responsible.

The Escrow Agreement contains various other important provisions and establishes certain charges with which a Buyer should be familiar. It is incumbent upon Buyers and prospective Buyers to read with care the executed Escrow Agreement on file with the Real Estate Commission.
