

COUNTY CHARTER

COUNTY OF HAWAI'I

FOREWORD

In 1963, the legislature of the State of Hawai‘i enacted Act 73 enabling the counties of the State of Hawai‘i to establish charter commissions to study their existing governments and to recommend and draft charters upon determination that a charter form of government was fit and desirable. Accordingly, the County of Hawai‘i created a charter commission whose study and work began in 1964.

The initial charter, which became effective on January 2, 1969, served as the “constitution” of the government of the County of Hawai‘i, and provided the basic framework for its organization and operation. It also provided for the orderly transition to the new form of government and for amendments or revisions by ordinance or petition and by mandatory review every ten years.

The first mandatory charter review was conducted in 1979 at a special election held on November 3, 1979. Ten of the thirteen proposed charter amendments were adopted by the Hawai‘i County electorate. The second mandatory charter review was conducted in 1990. The charter commission proposed eighteen charter amendments. At the general election on November 6, 1990, fifteen of the eighteen proposed charter amendments were adopted by Hawai‘i County voters. The third mandatory charter review, conducted in 2000, resulted in sixteen proposed charter amendments. Voters adopted all sixteen amendments during the general election held on November 7, 2000. The most recent charter review, as conducted by the 2010 Charter Commission, resulted in nineteen proposed charter amendments. On November 2, 2010, the electorate approved eighteen of the nineteen proposed charter amendments.

This edition incorporates the above series of amendments as well as additional changes proposed by the county council and adopted by Hawai‘i County voters during general elections held during the interim periods between charter reviews. This 2010 edition of the charter, therefore, replaces all previous editions and contains all those charter provisions in effect at the time of its publication. This edition also includes an approved charter amendment that had yet to take effect at the time of publication: The new Section 10-15, relating to an Open Space, Public Access, and Natural Resources Preservation Fund, which takes effect on July 1, 2011.

Should the council fail to fill any vacancy within sixty days after its occurrence, the chairperson of the council shall appoint a successor to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. The person appointed shall serve until a successor is duly elected and seated.

(1974, Ord. No. 59, sec. 2; 1990, Prop. 7, sec. 1; 1990, Prop. 14, sec. 1; 2000, Prop. 1, sec. 3.)

The affirmative vote of a majority of the entire membership shall be necessary for council action. A majority of the entire membership of the council shall constitute a quorum, but a smaller number may adjourn from time to time and may compel the attendance of absent members. - (b) Every ordinance of the council shall embrace but one subject, which subject shall be expressed in its title. If an ordinance embraces a subject not expressed in its title, only that subject shall be void.
- (c) Bills embracing:
 - (1) The fixing of special assessments for the cost of improvements;
 - (2) The appropriation of public funds or authorization of the issuance of general obligation bonds; or
 - (3) The imposition of a duty or penalty on any person, shall pass first reading by a vote taken by ayes and noes, and digests of such bills shall be advertised once in at least two daily newspapers of general circulation in the county and shall also be distributed via an electronic medium, such as the Internet, with ayes and noes, at least three days before final reading by the council. Not less than three copies of such bills shall be filed for use and examination by the public in the office of the county clerk at least three days prior to the final reading thereof.

- (d) A bill shall not be amended to change its original purpose. An amended bill shall, upon a one-third vote of the entire membership, be laid over for at least one week before final reading.
- (e) A motion to reconsider made at the time any bill fails to pass final reading shall not be voted upon until after twenty-four hours.
- (f) Ordinances shall become effective upon approval by the mayor or at such later date as may be specified therein.
- (g) A bill may incorporate therein any standard technical code or portions thereof by reference. The code, or portions, need not be published in the manner required for ordinances, but not less than three copies thereof shall be filed for use and examination by the public in the office of the county clerk, and notice of the availability of said copies shall be published by the clerk.
- (h) After enactment, ordinances shall be published once in at least two daily newspapers of general circulation in the county and shall also be distributed via an electronic medium, such as the Internet. Such publication shall be by title only and shall specify the ayes and noes.

(1990, Prop. 10, secs. 1 and 2; 2010, Prop. 7, sec. 5; 2010, Prop. 19, sec. 1 and sec. 2.)

Section 3-11. Emergency Ordinances.

The county council may adopt emergency ordinances to meet public emergencies affecting life, health or property. Such ordinances may not be used to levy taxes, authorize the borrowing of money or to grant, renew or extend franchises. Emergency appropriations may be made pursuant to Section 10-8.

Emergency ordinances shall be plainly designated as such and shall contain a declaration describing the emergency in clear and specific terms. Any emergency ordinance may be considered and adopted after one reading, with or without amendment, or be rejected at the meeting at which the same is introduced. The affirmative vote of all council members present or by two-thirds of the entire membership shall be necessary for adoption of such ordinances. Emergency ordinances shall be published in the same manner prescribed for other adopted ordinances and shall become effective upon approval by the mayor or at such later time, preceding automatic repeal, as the same may specify.

Amendments to any emergency ordinance shall be adopted in the same manner prescribed for adoption of emergency ordinances.

Every emergency ordinance, including any amendments made after adoption, shall automatically stand repealed as of the sixty-first day following the date of adoption of the original ordinance.

(1979, Prop. 13.)

Section 3-12. Submission of Bills to the Mayor.

Every bill adopted by the council shall be duly authenticated by the clerk and the presiding officer and thereupon presented to the mayor for approval. Such bill shall become effective as an ordinance upon its approval or such later date as specified therein. If the mayor disapproves a bill, the mayor shall return the bill together with any objections in writing to the clerk within ten days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays) after receipt. If the mayor does not act within such ten-day period, the bill shall become effective as an ordinance as if the mayor had approved it. The objections of the mayor shall be entered in the journal of the council and the council may, after five and within thirty days after the bill has been so returned, reconsider the vote upon the bill. If the bill, upon such reconsideration, is again passed by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the entire membership the presiding officer shall verify that fact on the face of the bill and such bill shall become effective as an ordinance with like effect as if approved by the mayor. A bill failing to pass upon such reconsideration shall be deemed lost.

If any appropriation bill is presented to the mayor, the mayor may veto any item or portion thereof by striking out or reducing the same. The mayor shall append any objections and the reasons therefor to the bill at the time of signing, and the item or portion thereof so vetoed shall not take effect unless the council shall reconsider the vote on the bill and, upon such reconsideration, the bill is again passed by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the entire membership.

(1990, Prop. 14, sec. 1)

Section 3-13. Adoption of Pay Plan.

All persons employed by the county or any of its boards or commissions, whether as officers or otherwise, except those whose pay is otherwise provided for shall be paid in accordance with a pay plan enacted by ordinance. The pay plan for persons holding positions in the position-classification plan shall be in accordance with Section 7-1.5 of this charter. Interim amendments to the ordinance establishing the pay plan for the county may be by resolution of the council provided a revised salary ordinance is enacted at least once annually.

Section 3-14. County Code.

There shall be a county code containing all county ordinances, as may be amended from time to time, and copies thereof shall be available for inspection at the office of the county clerk.

(1979, Prop. 13.)

Section 3-15. General Plan.

The county council shall adopt by ordinance a general plan which shall set forth the council's policy for long-range comprehensive physical development of the county. It shall contain a statement of development objectives, standards and principles with respect to the most desirable use of land within the county for residential, recreational, agricultural, commercial, industrial and other purposes which shall be consistent with proper conservation of natural resources and the preservation of our natural beauty and historical sites; the most desirable density of population in the several parts of the county; a system of principal thoroughfares, highways, streets, public access to the shorelines, and other open spaces; the general locations, relocations and improvement of public buildings, the general location and extent of public utilities and terminals, whether publicly or privately owned, for water, sewers, light, power, transit, and other purposes; the extent and location of public housing projects; adequate drainage facilities and control; air pollution; and such other matter as may, in the council's judgment, be beneficial to the social, economic, and governmental conditions and trends and shall be designed to assure the coordinated development of the county and to promote the general welfare and prosperity of its people.

- (a) The council shall enact zoning, subdivision, and such other ordinances which shall contain the necessary provisions to carry out the purpose of the general plan.
- (b) No public improvement or project, or subdivision or zoning ordinance, shall be initiated or adopted unless the same conforms to and implements the general plan.

- (c) Amendments to the general plan may be initiated by the council or the planning director.

(1979, Prop. 3.)

Section 3-16. Mandatory Program Review.

At least once every four years, the council shall critically review every program supported wholly or partially by county funds, and unless the council shall favorably authorize its continuation at current or modified levels, the program shall be terminated. The council shall adopt procedures and details to implement this section.

(1979, Prop. 4.)

Section 3-17. County Redistricting Commission.

- (a) There shall be a county redistricting commission which shall establish the boundaries of the council districts.

The adopted capital budget shall be in effect on and after the first day of the fiscal year.
- (e) At any time during the fiscal year, the council, by ordinance adopted by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the entire membership, may amend the capital budget for that year. Such appropriations may be made by ordinance effective immediately upon adoption.

To meet a public emergency affecting life, health or property, the council, may make emergency appropriations. Such appropriations may be made by ordinance and must be approved by all council members present or by two-thirds of the entire membership. To the extent that there are no available unappropriated revenues to meet such appropriations, the council may by ordinance authorize the issuance of emergency notes. These notes may be renewed from time to time, but the emergency notes and renewals of any fiscal year shall be paid not later than the first day of the fiscal year next succeeding that in which the emergency appropriation was made. The total of emergency appropriations in any fiscal year shall not exceed one-half of one percent of the total operating appropriations, excluding those for debt service made in the operating budget for that year.

(1979, Prop. 13; 1990, Prop. 4 sec. 1; 2010, Prop. 7, sec. 42.)

Section 10-9. Appropriations: Reduction and Transfer.

If at any time during the fiscal year it appears probable to the mayor that the revenues available will be insufficient to meet the amount appropriated, the mayor shall report to the county council without delay, indicating the estimated amount of the deficit. For that purpose the council may by ordinance reduce one or more appropriations; but no appropriation required for debt service may be reduced and no appropriation may be reduced by more than the amount of the encumbered balance thereof or below any amount required by law to be appropriated.

The mayor may at any time during the fiscal year transfer part or all of any unencumbered appropriation balance between classifications of expenditures or programs within an agency or executive agency; and if at any time the mayor so requests in writing, the council, by resolution effective immediately upon adoption, may transfer, part or all of any unencumbered appropriation balance from one agency or executive agency to another. But no transfer shall be made from appropriations for debt service or for estimated cash deficit; and no appropriation may be reduced below any amount required by law to be appropriated. The mayor shall notify the county council of any transfer of funds within an agency or an executive agency no later than thirty days after authorizing such a transfer.

Section 10-10. Lapse of Appropriations.

General appropriations, except an appropriation for a capital expenditure, shall lapse at the close of the fiscal year to the extent that the same has not been expended or encumbered. An appropriation for a capital expenditure that is not encumbered shall lapse at the end of two fiscal years following the fiscal year that the appropriation was made.

(1979, Prop. 13.)

Section 10-11. Payments and Obligations Prohibited: Verifications; Penalties.

No payment shall be authorized or made and no obligation incurred against the county except in accordance with appropriations duly made. No payment shall be made against any allotment or appropriation unless the director of finance first verifies that there is sufficient unencumbered balance in the allotment or appropriation and that sufficient funds therefrom are available to cover the claim concerned; nor shall any obligation be incurred against any allotment or appropriation unless the agency head first verifies that there is sufficient unencumbered balance in the allotment or appropriation and that sufficient funds therefrom will be available to meet the obligation concerned when it becomes due and payable. Every obligation incurred and every authorization of payment in violation of the provisions of this charter shall be void. Every payment made in violation of the provisions of this charter shall be illegal; and all county officers who knowingly authorize or make such payment or any part thereof shall be jointly and severally liable to the county for the full amount so paid or received. If any county officer or employee knowingly authorizes or makes any payment or incurs any obligation in violation of the provisions of this charter or takes part therein, that action shall be cause for their removal.

Nothing contained in this section or other sections of this charter shall be construed to prevent the making or authorizing of payments or making of contracts for capital improvements to be financed wholly or partly by the issuance of bonds; nor shall it prevent the making, when permitted by law, of any contract or any lease providing for the payment of funds at a time beyond the end of the fiscal year in which the contract or lease is made. But any contract, lease or other obligation requiring the payment of funds from the appropriations of a later fiscal year or of more than one fiscal year shall be made or approved by resolution.
(1979, Prop. 13; 1990, Prop. 14, sec. 1.)

Section 10-12. Special Funds.

The county council shall provide at least once every year for an independent audit of the accounts and other evidences of financial transactions of the county and of every county agency and executive agency. The audit shall be made by a certified public accountant or firm of certified public accountants, designated by the council, who have no personal interest, direct or indirect, in the fiscal affairs of the county or of any of its agencies or executive agencies. The audit shall include both financial accountability and adequacy of the financial and accounting system. If the State makes such an audit, the council may accept it as satisfying the requirements of this section.

Either the council or the mayor may at any time order an examination or audit of the accounts or program of any county agency or executive agency. Upon the death, resignation, removal or expiration of the term of any county administrative officer, the director of finance shall cause an audit and investigation of the accounts maintained by the officer and the officer's agency or executive agency to be made and shall report the results thereof to the mayor and the council. In the case of the death, resignation or removal of the director of finance, the council may cause an audit to be made of the accounts of all agencies and executive agencies. If, as a result of any such audit, an officer be found indebted to the county, the mayor shall proceed forthwith to collect the indebtedness.

state procurement policy office thereto. Any such rule or regulation may be modified by the director of finance, in accordance with Chapter 91, Hawai'i Revised Statutes, provided that such modifications shall be consistent with the requirements of state law.

- (d) The director of finance shall, from time to time, secure from all agencies estimates of their needs for articles of common use and shall, when practicable, consolidate requisitions in order to secure the benefits of quantity purchases, and may enter into cooperative buying arrangements with other public agencies.
- (e) The director of finance may by rules and regulations, not inconsistent with state law, provide for:
 - (1) Emergency purchases which might be required.
 - (2) Petty cash funds or blanket purchase orders or both.

Section 11-4. Initiative and Referendum Process

- (a) The clerk shall provide the committee with a sample petition form upon request.
- (b) Prior to circulating an initiative or referendum petition, the committee shall give notice to the clerk of the following:
 - (1) The names and residence addresses of the committee members as they appear on the general county register, the committee's designated representative, and the address to which all notices shall be sent;
 - (2) For an initiative, a completed petition form identifying the ordinance to be modified or introduced, along with the proposed language for the petition;
 - (3) For a referendum, a completed petition form identifying the ordinance or part of an ordinance to be repealed; and
 - (4) A proposed ballot title, ballot question, and an objective ballot summary.
- (c) For purposes of this article, notice shall be in writing and sent via United States mail, return receipt requested or delivered in person, provided both the sender and receiver sign and date a receipt. The date of receipt will be the date the recipient's signature was affixed or ten days after the postmarked date, whichever occurs first.
- (d) Within ten working days of receipt of the notice in subsection (b), the clerk shall give notice to the committee that the proposed petition form, ballot title, ballot question, and ballot summary are acceptable or shall propose alternative language.
- (e) If the proposed language is acceptable, the clerk shall give the committee notice of acceptance and the language shall be final.
- (f) If the clerk proposes alternative language, the clerk shall give the committee notice of the proposed language within ten working days of receipt of the alternative language. If the committee objects to the alternate language, the committee shall send a notice to the clerk of its objections and submit a revised petition form, ballot title, ballot question and ballot summary to the clerk within ten working days of receipt of the alternative language. The clerk shall accept the proposed revision as the final language.
- (g) If the language of the proposed ordinance is found to be within the power of initiative or referendum of the county, within five working days of finalization of the petition form, ballot title, ballot question and ballot summary, the clerk shall:
 - (1) Submit them to the council for informational purposes utilizing the council's rules and procedures; and
 - (2) Give notice to the committee of:

- (i) As soon as a certificate is completed, the clerk shall notify the committee of the contents of the certificate. If a petition is certified sufficient, the clerk shall present the certificate to the county council at the first council meeting where it can be legally placed on the agenda.

- (j) If the clerk certifies a petition insufficient, the certificate shall show the particulars wherein the petition is defective. If a majority of the committee chooses to continue to collect signatures, then the committee shall within twenty working days after receipt of the clerk's certificate of insufficiency, file a supplemental petition. The supplemental petition shall be governed by the same requirements as the original petition.
- (k) Within fifteen working days from the filing of a supplemental petition, the clerk shall complete a second certificate as to the sufficiency of the supplemental petition. Thereafter, the procedural requirements for the supplemental petition shall be the same as that for the original petition.
- (l) If a majority of the committee does not choose to amend a petition or collect additional signatures, the clerk shall present the certificate to the county council at the first council meeting where it can be legally placed on the agenda. A petition is approved for consideration through council action upon the clerk's certificate of sufficiency.
- (m) The clerk shall present the certificate to the council at the earliest meeting at which the certificate can be legally placed on the agenda. The council shall review the latest clerk's certificate, upon the committee's request, and shall approve or reject the certificate or may substitute its own determination of sufficiency of the petition by resolution. The review actions of the council shall be final but shall not preclude the filing of a new petition for the same purposes.
- (n) The council shall proceed immediately to consider an initiative or referendum petition which has been determined sufficient in accordance with the provisions of this article. If an initiative petition is concerned, the ordinance it proposes shall at once be introduced subject to the procedures required for ordinances under this charter; however, not more than sixty days shall elapse between the time of first reading of the initiative proposal as a bill and completion of consideration to adopt, amend, or reject the same. If a referendum petition is concerned, the ordinance to which that petition is directed shall be reconsidered by the council; and not later than thirty days after the date on which the petition was determined sufficient, the council shall by resolution repeal or sustain the ordinance.
- (o) If the council fails to adopt an initiative proposal or adopts a proposal with an amendment unfavorable to a majority of the committee, or if the council fails to repeal an ordinance reconsidered pursuant to a referendum petition, the clerk shall submit the final language approved by the petitioner's committee with its appropriate ballot title and ballot language to the voters of the county at the next general election. The ballot for such measures shall contain the final ballot summary and shall have below the ballot title designated spaces in which to mark the ballot FOR or AGAINST the measure.
- (p) The clerk shall publish the ballot title, ballot question, ballot summary and arguments for and against the measure in the Sunday paper of two Hawai'i island daily papers with the largest circulation, for the three Sundays preceding the election. The ballot title, ballot question, ballot summary and arguments for and against the measure shall also be distributed via an electronic medium, such as the Internet at least three weeks prior to the election. The committee shall be given the opportunity to write the argument in favor of the measure. If a group of five qualified voters of the county give notice to the clerk that they wish to write the arguments against the measure, the clerk shall publish their arguments. Both sets of arguments shall be published in the same papers, on the same page, on the same days, utilizing the same size print. The names and addresses of the committee and the opposing group as they appear on the general county register for the County of Hawai‘i shall appear in the publication.

 - (7) Each page of the completed petition form shall be numbered consecutively.
- (c) For purposes of certification, any petition shall be found insufficient that:
 - (1) Is signed by registered voters of the county equal in number to less than fifteen percent of the number of persons who voted for the office of Mayor in the last Mayoral election.
 - (2) Proposes, or requests appeal of, an ordinance not subject to the powers of initiative or referendum.
- (d) Signatures are invalid and petitions insufficient:
 - (1) If signers are not given an opportunity to read the full text of the proposed ordinance under an initiative petition, or the designation and description of the ordinance in question under a referendum petition, and if the full text of a proposed ordinance or ordinance under question is not contained in or attached to each signature paper or set of signature papers of an initiative or referendum petition, respectively, throughout circulation.
 - (2) If written statements, executed by the circulators for each set of signature papers, are not attached to the papers at the time of filing of a petition with the clerk. Each written statement shall attest that: a particular individual personally circulated an identifiable set of signed petitions; each signed petition bears a stated number of signatures; each signature on a petition was affixed in the petition circulator’s presence; each signature is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be; and the full text of the proposed measure was made available to petition signers.

- (e) Individuals may withdraw their signatures by submitting a written request to the clerk within fifteen days after the filing of an initiative or referendum petition.
(2008, Ord. No. 08-80, sec. 2; 2010, Prop. 7, sec. 49.)

Section 11-6. Withdrawal of Petition.

A petitioners' committee may withdraw a petition at any time, but not later than the thirtieth day immediately preceding the day scheduled for a vote in the county on a measure concerned. A petitioners' committee shall be requested to withdraw its petition and the committee must comply, if the aims of the petition are resolved by intermediate council action to the satisfaction of the committee such that the initiative proposal is adopted as an ordinance, or that the ordinance reconsidered by the referendum petition is repealed. (2010, Prop. 7, sec. 65.)

ARTICLE XV CHARTER AMENDMENT OR REVISION

Section 15-1. Initiation of Amendments or Revisions.

Amendments or revisions of this charter may be initiated only in the following manner:

- (a) By ordinance of the council adopted after three readings on separate days and passed by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the entire membership.
- (b) By petition presented to the council, signed by qualified electors equal in number to at least twenty percent of the total ballots cast in the last preceding general election, setting forth the proposed amendments or revisions. Such petition shall designate and authorize not less than three nor more than five of the signers thereto to approve any alteration or change in the form or language or any restatement of the text of the proposed amendments or revisions which may be made by the corporation counsel.

Each elector signing such petition shall print their name, which shall be reasonably similar to their name as it appears on the general county register for the County of Hawai‘i, residence address, and add their signature, month and day of their birth date, and the last four digits of their social security number on said petition. Signatures may be on separate sheets but each sheet shall have appended to it the affidavit of some person that to the best of the affiant’s knowledge and belief the persons whose signatures appear on the sheet are registered electors of the county, that they signed with knowledge of the contents of the petition and that their residences are correctly given.

Upon filing of such petition with the council, the county clerk shall examine the same to see whether it contains a sufficient number of apparently genuine signatures of registered voters. The clerk may question the genuineness of any signature appearing on the petition or affidavit. If the clerk finds that any such signature on the petition or affidavit is not genuine, the clerk shall disregard such signature. The clerk shall eliminate any sheet of the petition which is not accompanied by a valid affidavit. The invalidity of any sheet shall not affect the validity of the petition if a sufficient number of signatures remain after eliminating such invalid sheet. The clerk shall complete the examination of the petition within thirty working days.

Section 15-2. Elections to be Called.

Upon adoption of an ordinance proposing amendments or revisions of this charter, or upon the determination by the clerk that a petition for proposed amendments or revisions of this charter contains the required number of signatures, the council shall by resolution provide that the proposed amendments or revisions be submitted to the electors of the county for approval at the next general election. Any such resolution shall provide for the publication of the full text of the proposed amendments or revisions in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the county at least forty-five days prior to submission to the electors of the county as well as via an electronic medium, such as the Internet.

(2010, Prop. 19, sec. 7.)

Section 15-3. Mandatory Charter Reviews.

The charter shall be reviewed in 1989 and every tenth year thereafter. Not later than the first day of July prior to the charter review year, the mayor with the confirmation of the council, shall appoint a charter commission composed of eleven members to study and review the operation of the government of the county under this charter. Commission members, no more than a majority of whom shall belong to the same political party, shall be representative of the various geographical areas of Puna, Ka‘ū, Kona, Kohala, Hāmākua, and Hilo. The council shall appropriate funds to enable the commission to carry out its duties, including the hiring of necessary staff.

The commission shall hold at least one public hearing in each of the geographical areas. The commission may propose amendments to the existing charter or a draft of a new charter which shall be submitted to the county clerk. Upon receipt of the amendments or charter in the form as proposed by the commission, the county clerk shall provide for the submission of such amendments or charter to the electors of the county at either a special election as determined by the commission or at the first general election following the charter review year. The commission shall prepare the language of the question to be submitted to the voters for each of the amendments it proposes.

The commission shall publish not less than forty-five days before any election, at least once in at least two daily newspapers of general circulation within the county, as well as via an electronic medium, such as the Internet, a brief digest of the amendments or charter and the purpose thereof and a notice to the electorate that copies of the amendments or charter are available at the office of the county clerk.

Members of the commission shall hold office until the amendments or charter is ratified or rejected.

If the majority of the voters voting upon a charter amendment votes in favor of it or a new charter, if a new charter is proposed, the amendment or new charter shall become effective at the time fixed in the amendment or charter.

(1979, Prop. 13; 1990, Prop. 10, sec. 6; 1990, Prop. 15, sec. 1; 2010, Prop. 7, sec. 66; 2010, Prop. 16, sec. 1; 2010, Prop. 19, sec. 8.)

Section 16-7. Department Heads Continued in Office.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, each department head, including elected department heads and department heads appointed by boards or commissions, holding office when this charter takes full effect shall continue in office until a successor takes office or until removed pursuant to the provisions of this charter.

(2000, Prop. 9, sec. 4.)

Revision History

The County Charter provides three means for proposing charter amendments: ordinance, petition, and by mandatory commission review every ten years. The commission review process has produced sixty-six proposals, of which fifty-nine were approved by the voters. The first mandatory charter review was conducted in 1979 and it was culminated by a special election held on November 3, 1979, at which ten of the thirteen proposed amendments were approved. The second mandatory charter review was conducted in 1990. At the general election on November 6, 1990, fifteen of the eighteen proposed amendments were approved by the voters. On November 7, 2000, voters approved all sixteen of the amendments proposed by the 2000 Charter Commission. On November 2, 2010, voters approved eighteen of the nineteen amendments proposed by the 2010 Charter Commission.

The other two means for proposing charter amendments have also been employed. The county council has passed twenty-four ordinances and submitted them to the electorate, nineteen of which were approved. In one instance, a provision was deleted pursuant to an amendment proposed via a citizens' petition. This revision incorporates the eighteen amendments proposed by the 2010 Charter Commission and approved by the voters during the 2010 general election.

Source Notes:

For those sections of the charter that have been amended, a note indicating the year, the proposition and/or ordinance, and the section of that proposition or ordinance that amended that section of the charter is provided. For example:

(2000, Prop. 12, sec. 2) means that the corresponding section of the charter was amended at the 2000 general election with the amendments contained within section 2 of Proposition 12; or (1996, Ord. No. 06-60, sec. 3) means that the corresponding section of the charter was amended at the 1996 general election with the amendments contained within section 3 of Ordinance Number 06-60.

Source Notes indicating the year 1979 refer to the special election held that year on November 3, 1979. The Charter Commission elected to hold a special election for the consideration of charter amendments, rather than proposing amendments to the electorate during the 1980 general election.
