GENERAL INFORMATION ON CONDOMINIUMS

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of Hawaii's "Horizontal Property Act" (Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes) must be followed.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

Common elements are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called limited common elements and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged, or encumbered, and they may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the land, building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owner/tenant) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements. The leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without a vote of the owners. Some of these actions may significantly impact the quality of life for all apartment owners.

Until there is a sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is vitally important to all apartment owners that the transition from developer to owner control be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

II. CREATION OF THE CONDOMINIUM; CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS

A condominium is created by recording in the Bureau of Conveyances and/or filing with the Land Court a Declaration of Condominium Property Regime, a Condominium Map (File Plan), and the Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners.

- A. Declaration of Condominium Property Regime contains a description of the land, buildings, apartments, common elements, limited common elements, common interests, and other information relating to the condominium project.

The Declaration for this condominium is:

- Proposed
 Recorded – Bureau of Conveyances – Book _____ Page _____
 Filed – Land Court – Document Number _____

Amendment date(s) and recording/filing information:

- B. Condominium Map (File Plan) shows the floor plan, elevation and layout of the condominium project. It also shows the floor plan, location, apartment number, and dimensions of each apartment.

The Condominium Map for this condominium project is:

- Proposed
 Recorded – Bureau of Conveyance Condo Map No. _____
 Filed – Land Court Condo Map No. _____

Amendment date(s) and recording/filing information:

- C. Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners govern the operation of the condominium project. They provide for the manner in which the Board of Directors of the Association of Apartment Owners is elected, the powers and duties of the Board, the way in which meetings will be conducted, and other matters which affect how the condominium project will be governed.

The Bylaws for this condominium are:

- Proposed
 Recorded – Bureau of Conveyances – Book _____ Page _____
 Filed – Land Court – Document Number _____

Amendment date(s) and recording/filing information:

D. House Rules. The Board of Directors may adopt house rules to govern the use and operation of the common elements and individual apartments. House rules may cover matters such as parking regulations, hours of operation for common facilities such as recreation areas, use of lanais, keeping of pets, and occupancy limits. These rules must be followed by owners, tenants, and guests. They do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective. The initial house rules are usually adopted by the developer.

The House Rules for this condominium are:

Proposed       Adopted

Developer does not plan to adopt house rules.

E. Changes to Condominium Documents

Changes to the Declaration, Condominium Map, and Bylaws are effective only if they are duly adopted and recorded and/or filed. Changes to House Rules do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective.

1. Apartment Owners: Minimum percentage of apartment owners who must vote for or give written consent to changes:

	Minimum Set by Law	This Condominium
Declaration (and Condo Map)	75%	75%
Bylaws	65%	65%
House Rules	—	                    

The percentages for individual condominium projects may be more than the minimum set by law.

2. Developer: The developer has reserved the following rights to change the Declaration, Condominium Map, Bylaws, or House Rules: The Developer has reserved the right to make any changes to said documents, and any other documents affecting this Project, as may be required by law, any title insurance company, or as Developer decides is necessary, all without the consent or approval of the Purchaser, provided that the changes do not substantially impair the prospective use and enjoyment of the apartment. materially alter the arrangement of the rooms or reduce the useable space within the apartment; render unenforceable the Purchaser's mortgage loan commitment; increase Purchaser's share of common expenses or reduce the obligations of the Seller for common expenses on unsold apartments; Developer also reserves the right to file the as-built verified statement required by Section 514A-12 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes, as amended, and also to make any changes to the documents necessary in connection with the merger of this Project as set forth in paragraph K, page 17 of this report.

The Condominium Statute (Chapter 514A, HRS), the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules control the rights and obligations of the apartment owners with respect to the common elements, to each other, and to their respective apartments. The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

III. THE CONDOMINIUM PROJECT

A. Interest to be Conveyed to Buyer:

Fee Simple: Individual apartments and the underlying land will be in fee simple.

Leasehold or Subleasehold: Individual apartments and the underlying land will be leasehold.

The leases for the individual apartments and the underlying land usually require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee (tenant) deliver to the lessor (fee property owner) possession of the leased premises and all improvements, including improvements paid for by the lessee.

Exhibit _____ contains further explanations.

5. Special Use Restrictions:

The Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules may contain restrictions on the use and occupancy of apartments. Restrictions for this condominium project include but are not limited to:

- Pets: Dogs, cats and other household pets limited to two in number and subject to compliance with provisions of House Rules.
- Number of Occupants: No more than two per bedroom, excluding children under five, except no more than three per bedroom under any circumstances, inclusive of children under five.
- Other: Apartment cannot be used for transient or hotel use. The apartment cannot be sold rented or used for "time share", "time interval", "vacation license" or "travel club membership".
- There are no special use restrictions.

6. Interior (fill in appropriate numbers):

*Net Living Area is the floor area of the apartment measured from the interior surface of the apartment perimeter walls.

**Note: Lanai sizes vary even between the same apartment types. Other documents and maps may give floor area figures which differ from those above because a different method of determining floor area may have been used.

Boundaries of Each Apartment: Each apartment includes the walls and partitions which are not load bearing within its perimeter or party walls; glass windows or panels; doors (except for exterior surface of any door located on perimeter walls); inner decorated or finished surfaces of all walls, floors and ceilings, door frames and window frames; air space within the perimeter and any fixtures and appliances originally installed. The apartment does NOT include undecorated or unfinished surfaces of perimeter or party walls or interior load-bearing walls, floors and ceilings; any pipes, wires or other utility lines running through the apartment and utilized for more than one apartment. The apartment also does not include the adjacent lanai which is considered a limited common element.

Permitted Alterations to Apartments: Additions, alterations or improvements solely within an apartment or within a limited common element appurtenant to and for the exclusive use of the apartment may be made by the apartment owner with only the approval of the Board of Directors of the Association of Apartment Owners and any other apartment owner directly affected.

Each apartment will have the exclusive use of at least 2 parking stall(s).
Buyers are encouraged to find out which stall(s) will be available for their use.

Commercial parking garage permitted in condominium project.

Exhibit A contains additional information on parking stalls for this condominium project.

8. Recreational and Other Common Facilities:

There are no recreational or common facilities. *

Other: _____
_____

*As discussed in Paragraph 7 on Page 5, there are no recreational amenities within this Project; however, the Developer intends to construct recreational facilities in a future increment of the Palm Court Project.

9. Present Condition of Improvements

(For conversions of residential apartments in existence for five years):

- a. Condition and Expected Useful Life of Structural Components, Mechanical, and Electrical Installations

Not Applicable

- b. Compliance with Building Code and Municipal Regulations; Cost to Cure Violations

Not Applicable

10. Conformance to Present Zoning Code

- a.  No variances to zoning code have been granted.

Variance(s) to zoning code was/were granted as follows:

- b. Conforming/Non-Conforming Uses, Structures, Lot

In general, a non-conforming use, structure, or lot is a use, structure, or lot which was lawful at one time but which does not now conform to present zoning requirements.

	Conforming	Non-Conforming	Illegal
Uses	  X  	      	      
Structures	  X  	      	      
Lot	  X  	      	      

If a variance has been granted or if uses, improvements, or lot are either non-conforming or illegal, buyer should consult with county zoning authorities as to possible limitations which may apply.

Limitations may include restrictions on extending, enlarging, or continuing the non-conformity, and restrictions on altering and repairing structures. In some cases, a non-conforming structure that is destroyed or damaged cannot be reconstructed.

The buyer may not be able to obtain financing or insurance if the condominium project has a non-conforming or illegal use, structure, or lot.

D. Common Elements, Limited Common Elements, Common Interest:

1. Common Elements: Common Elements are those parts of the condominium project intended to be used by all apartment owners. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners.

Exhibit  B  describes the common elements.

2. Limited Common Elements: Limited Common Elements are those common elements which are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments.

[ ] There are no limited common elements in this project.

[ x ] The limited common elements and the apartments which may use them are:

[ ] described in Exhibit _____

[ x ] as follows:

- (a) The mailbox bearing the same designation as the apartment;
- (b) The fenced yard area adjoining the apartment (for apartments on the ground floor);
- (c) The lanai area adjacent to second story apartments;
- (d) The storage closet located on the lanai (except for Apartment Type 874 which has no exterior storage closet).
- (e) Two or more automobile parking stalls assigned to each apartment upon the original conveyance thereof shall be appurtenant to and for the exclusive use of such apartment.

3. Common Interest: Each apartment will have an undivided fractional interest in all of the common elements. This interest is called the "common interest." It is often used to determine each apartment's share of the maintenance fees and other common profits and expenses of the condominium. It may also be used for other purposes, including voting on matters requiring action by apartment owners.

[ x ] Exhibit  A  describes the common interests for each apartment.

[ ] as follows:

E. Encumbrances Against Title: An encumbrance is a claim against or a liability on the property.

Exhibit  C  describes the encumbrances against the title contained in the title report dated  October 4, 1988 .

Blanket Liens:

A blanket lien is a mortgage on a condominium project that secures a construction loan. It is usually released on an apartment-by-apartment basis upon payment of specified sums so that individual apartments can be conveyed to buyers free and clear of the lien.

[ ] There are no blanket liens affecting title to the individual apartments.

[ x ] There are blanket liens which may affect title to the individual apartments.

Blanket liens (except for improvement district or utility assessments) must be released before the developer conveys the apartment to a buyer. Buyer's interest will be affected only if the developer defaults prior to conveying the apartment to buyer.

Type of Lien	Effect on Buyer's Interest If Developer Defaults
Mortgage	Lender has priority over Purchaser's rights under a Sales contract, and has a right to terminate sales contracts upon foreclosure of its mortgage before apartment sale is closed.

F. Management of the Common Elements: The Association of Apartment Owners is responsible for the management of the common elements and the overall operation of the condominium project. The Association may be permitted, and in some cases may be required, to employ or retain a managing agent to assist the Association in managing the condominium project.

Initial Managing Agent: When the developer or the developer's affiliate is the initial managing agent, the management contract must have a term of one year or less and the parties must be able to terminate the contract on notice of 60 days or less.

The initial managing agent for this condominium is:

[ ] not affiliated with the Developer.

[ ] the Developer or the Developer's affiliate.

[ x ] other Not selected yet.

G. Estimate of Initial Maintenance Fees:

The Association will make assessments against your apartment to provide funds for the operation and maintenance of the condominium project. If you are delinquent in paying the assessments, your apartment may be liened and sold through a foreclosure proceeding.

Initial maintenance fees are difficult to estimate and tend to increase as the condominium ages. Maintenance fees may vary depending on the services provided to each apartment.

Exhibit  E  contains a schedule of maintenance fees and maintenance fee disbursements.

Exhibit E is only an estimate.

H. Utility Charges for Apartments:

Each apartment will be billed separately for utilities except for the following checked utilities which are included in the maintenance fees:

- |                                      |   |
|--------------------------------------|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Electricity | <input type="checkbox"/> Television Cable         |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Gas         | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Water & Sewer |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Other _____ |   |

I. Construction Warranties:

Warranties for individual apartments and the common elements, including the beginning and ending dates for each warranty, are as follows:

1. Building and Other Improvements: The Developer warrants against defects in the apartment due to faulty material or workmanship which are discovered and brought to the attention of Developer within one year from the date of conveyance of title to the apartment owner or the date of occupancy, whichever occurs first. In addition, the Developer warrants the common elements against all defects for a period of two years from the date of completion of the common elements or two years from the date the first apartment is conveyed to a purchaser other than the Developer, whichever is later. For purposes of this warranty, the Developer agrees to repair, renovate, restore or replace any defective material or workmanship within the respective warranty periods. ROUTINE MAINTENANCE WORK IS NOT COVERED BY ANY WARRANTY.

2. Appliances: Warranties on appliances furnished with an apartment are not provided by the Developer. The execution and delivery of the Apartment Deed will operate as an assignment from the Developer to the purchaser of the respective manufacturers' or dealers' warranties, if any.

J. Status of Construction and Estimated Completion Date:

Construction on the project is expected to be completed in the Fall of 1989.

K. Project Phases:

The developer  has  has not reserved the right to add to, merge, or phase this condominium.

Summary of Developer's Present Plans for Future Development: The Developer has reserved the option to develop, in addition to this Project, additional increments of Palm Court and to merge the projects for administrative use after they have been completed into an overall project to consist of approximately 400 apartments to be known as Palm Court. Upon merger of all increments, the merged increments will become one condominium project and will be governed by one Declaration and By-Laws, at which time all apartment owners in the increments will be entitled to use the common elements of the other increments.

The Developer has reserved the right to administratively merge all of the increments of Palm Court for the purposes of administration and use only. This administrative merger will NOT affect the percentage common interests of the owners in their respective increments.

The apartment in each increment shall be substantially similar in design and construction, and none of the increments shall contain particular facilities or amenities which could substantially increase the upkeep or maintenance of the entire project except for the recreational facilities which will be developed in a future increment. Palm Court, Increment II is the first increment of the proposed Palm Court project.

L. Sales Documents Filed with the Real Estate Commission:

Sales documents on file with the Real Estate Commission include but are not limited to:

Notice to Owner Occupants

Specimen Sales Contract

Exhibit  E  contains a summary of the pertinent provisions of the sales contract.

Escrow Agreement dated  Effective September 11, 1988.

Exhibit  F  contains a summary of the pertinent provisions of the escrow agreement.

IV. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION NOT COVERED ABOVE

The Developer has not yet determined whether the access road to the overall Palm Court project will be a private road or a public road.

If the access road to the project is a private road, the various Palm Court Associations of Apartment Owners, as well as the owners of the condominium project to be developed to the east of the access road, will share in the cost of maintaining the road. It has not yet been determined whether ownership of the private road will be held by the various condominium projects using the road, by the Ewa-by-Gentry Community Association, or some other appropriate entity. If ownership of the road is held by some other private entity other than the condominium associations, access easements will be given to each condominium project.

If the access road remains private, the Developer will reserve the right to make changes to the road in the future, such as widening and extending the road beyond the railroad right-of-way to Renton Road (north of the Project). If these changes are made, the access road will probably be dedicated to the City and County of Honolulu for public use.

Buyer's Right to Cancel Sales Contract:

A. Rights Under the Condominium Statute:

Preliminary Report: Sales made by the Developer are not binding. A prospective buyer who cancels the sales contract is entitled to a refund of all moneys paid, less any escrow cancellation fee up to $250.00.

Supplementary Report to a Preliminary Report: Same as for Preliminary Report.

Final Report, Supplementary Report to a Final Report: Sales made by the Developer are binding if:

1. The Developer delivers to the buyer a copy of:
  - a. Either the Final Public Report OR the Supplementary Public Report which has superseded the Final Public Report;
AND
  - b. Any other public report issued by the Commission prior to the date of delivery, if the report was not previously delivered to the buyer and if the report has not been superseded;
2. The buyer is given an opportunity to read the report(s); and
3. One of the following has occurred:
  - a. The buyer has signed a receipt for the report(s) and waived the right to cancel; or
  - b. Thirty (30) days have passed from the time the report(s) were delivered to the buyer; or
  - c. The apartment is conveyed to the buyer within 30 days from the date the report(s) were delivered to the buyer.

Material Change: Binding contracts with the Developer may be rescinded by the buyer if:

1. There is a material change in the condominium which directly, substantially, and adversely affects (a) the use or value of the buyer's apartment or its limited common elements; or (b) the amenities available for buyer's use; and
2. The buyer has not waived the right to rescind.

If the buyer rescinds a binding sales contract because there has been a material change, the buyer is entitled to a full and prompt refund of any moneys the buyer paid.

B. Rights Under the Sales Contract:

Before signing the sales contract, prospective buyers should ask to see and carefully review all documents relating to the condominium. These include but are not limited to the:

1. Condominium Public Reports issued by the Hawaii Real Estate Commission.
2. Declaration of Horizontal Property Regime and Condominium Map.
3. Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners.
4. House Rules.
5. Escrow Agreement.

EXHIBIT "E"

Summary of Sales Contract

The Sales Contract contains the price and other terms and conditions under which a purchaser will agree to buy an apartment in the Project. Among other things, the Sales Contract says:

1. What the obligations are of the purchaser if the purchaser wants a mortgage loan to cover part of the purchase price.
2. That a purchaser's money will be held in escrow, under the terms of the Escrow Agreement.
3. That a purchaser will not receive interest on deposits made under the Sales Contract.
4. That the apartment will be subject to various other legal documents which the purchaser should examine.
5. That the Project will be subject to ongoing construction and sales activities which may result in certain annoyances to purchaser.
6. That under certain circumstances where the apartment is ready for occupancy and the purchaser has not completed his financing arrangements for the purchase of the apartment, the Developer may require purchaser to take possession of and rent the apartment prior to closing. However, this provision does not apply to purchasers who are financing their purchase with an FHA or VA mortgage loan.
7. That the Developer has reserved the right to administratively merge the increments of Palm Court.

EXHIBIT "F"

Summary Of Escrow Agreement

The Escrow Agreement sets up an arrangement under which the deposits which a purchaser makes under a Sales Contract will be held by a neutral party ("Escrow"). Under the Escrow Agreement these things will or may happen:

1. Escrow will let purchasers know when payments are due.
2. Escrow will arrange for purchasers to sign all necessary documents.
3. The Escrow Agreement says under what conditions a refund will be made to a purchaser.
4. The Escrow Agreement says what will happen to a purchaser's funds upon a default under the Sales Contract.
5. The Escrow Agreement contains various other provisions and establishes certain charges with which the purchaser should become acquainted.
