Summary of Changes from Earlier Public Reports:

This summary contains a general description of the changes, if any, made by the developer since the last public report was issued. It is not necessarily all inclusive. Prospective buyers should compare this public report with the earlier reports if they wish to know the specific changes that have been made.

No prior reports have been issued by the developer.

Changes made are as follows:

1. The Important Notes relating to the "Special Attention" and Statutory Notice" were deleted.
2. The paragraph on Multi-Increment Phase on page 16 has been amended.
3. Due to typographical errors on Exhibit "B" attached to the Contingent Public Report, parking stalls 294, 295, 296 and 297 were identified as being regular size, and are now identified as being compact size.

IMPORTANT NOTES:

Multi-Increment Phase: The Developer has also reserved the right to develop the Community (meaning the entire project of 144 units and its common elements) in separate "increments" or "clusters", each consisting of a number of Apartments. Developer contemplates, however, that development shall proceed in four (4) increments—Phase 1 consisting of forty-eight (48) apartments, Phase 2 consisting of thirty-two (32) apartments, Phase 3 consisting of thirty-two (32) apartments and Phase 4 consisting of thirty-two (32) apartments. In the event that the phasing of increments departs from the foregoing, Developer shall in advance of the construction of such increment file an amendment to the Declaration identifying the Apartments in such increment. Only the first "increment" will be constructed initially. Subsequent increments will be constructed later. As each "increment" or "cluster" is constructed, it will likely be merged with previously developed phases described above. With the addition of such increment, the common interest allocable to such apartment will be adjusted as set forth in the Declaration and as noted in Exhibit "E". See Section EE of the Declaration.

Affordable Apartments: Pursuant to an agreement with the City and County of Honolulu, the Developer has proposed and expects that all of the apartments in the Community will be sold as part of a government-sponsored and administered program to provide "Affordable Income Purchasers" with the opportunity to purchase housing at prices below the market value of comparable housing. These apartments are sometimes described in this public report as "Affordable Apartment(s)". There will be one hundred forty-four (144) Affordable Apartments in the ViewPointe at Waialeale community. A complete description of the expected eligibility requirements for "Affordable Income Purchasers", and the required personal information, representations and agreements, is specifically contained in an "Owner-Occupant Affidavit" form and a "Housing Application". Copies of these forms, together with an instruction sheet, are attached to this public report as Exhibit "K".

General Information On Condominiums

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of the Condominium Property Act, Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, must be complied with. In addition, certain requirements and approvals of the County in which the project is located must be satisfied and obtained.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owner/tenants) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements at the lessee's expense. Leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

"Common elements" are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called "limited common elements" and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged, or encumbered, and they may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the project's Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without a vote of the owners. For example, the board may hire and fire employees, increase or decrease maintenance fees, borrow money for repair and improvements and set a budget. Some of these actions may significantly impact the apartment owners.

Until there is sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is important to all apartment owners that the transition of control from the developer to the apartment owners be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

II. CREATION OF THE CONDOMINIUM; CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS

A condominium is created by recording in the Bureau of Conveyances and/or filing with the Land Court a Declaration of Condominium Property Regime, a Condominium Map (File Plan), and the Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners. The Condominium Property Act (Chapter 514A, HRS), the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules control the rights and obligations of the apartment owners with respect to the project and the common elements, to each other, and to their respective apartments. The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

- A. Declaration of Condominium Property Regime contains a description of the land, buildings, apartments, common elements, limited common elements, common interests, and other information relating to the condominium project.

The Declaration for this condominium is:

Proposed
 Recorded - Bureau of Conveyances Document No. 98-117420
Book _____ Page _____
 Filed - Land Court Document Number _____

The Declaration referred to above has been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

Amended and Restated Declaration of Condominium Property Regime of ViewPointe at Waikele dated September 1, 1998, recorded in the Bureau of Conveyances of the State of Hawaii as Document No. 98-133147.

- B. Condominium Map (File Plan) shows the floor plan, elevation and layout of the condominium project. It also shows the floor plan, location, apartment number, and dimensions of each apartment.

The Condominium Map for this condominium project is:

Proposed
 Recorded - Bureau of Conveyances Condo Map No. 2779
 Filed - Land Court Condo Map No. _____

The Condominium Map has been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

- C. Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners govern the operation of the condominium project. They provide for the manner in which the Board of Directors of the Association of Apartment Owners is elected, the powers and duties of the Board, the manner in which meetings will be conducted, whether pets are prohibited or allowed and other matters which affect how the condominium project will be governed.

The Bylaws for this condominium are:

Proposed
 Recorded - Bureau of Conveyances Document No. 98-117421
Book _____ Page _____
 Filed - Land Court Document No. _____

The Bylaws referred to above have been amended by the following instruments [state name of document, date and recording/filing information]:

D. House Rules. The Board of Directors may adopt House Rules to govern the use and operation of the common elements and limited common elements. House rules may cover matters such as parking regulations, hours of operation for common facilities such as recreation areas, use of lanais and requirements for keeping pets. These rules must be followed by owners, tenants, and guests. They do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective. The initial House Rules are usually adopted by the developer.

The House Rules for this condominium are:

Proposed Adopted Developer does not plan to adopt House Rules

E. Changes to Condominium Documents

Changes to the Declaration, Condominium Map, and Bylaws are effective only if they are duly adopted and recorded and/or filed. Changes to House Rules do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective.

1. Apartment Owners: Minimum percentage of common interest which must vote for or give written consent to changes:

	Minimum Set by Law	This Condominium
Declaration (and Condo Map)	75%*	75%
Bylaws	65%	65%
House Rules	—	Majority Vote of Board of Directors

* The percentages for individual condominium projects may be more than the minimum set by law for projects with five or fewer apartments.

2. Developer:

No rights have been reserved by the developer to change the Declaration, Condominium Map, Bylaws or House Rules.

Developer has reserved the following rights to change the Declaration, Condominium Map, Bylaws or House Rules:

- A. Upon completion of the Project, the Developer may amend the Declaration and the Condominium Map (if necessary) to file the "as built" verified statement required by Section 514A-12 of the Condominium Property Act.
- B. Until all of the apartments have been sold, the Developer may amend the Declaration, the Bylaws and/or the Condominium Map to make such amendments as may be required by law, by the Real Estate Commission, by the title insurance company, by a mortgage lender, or by any governmental agency (including the VA, HUD, FNMA and/or FHLMC), provided that no such amendments change the common interest appurtenant to an apartment or substantially change the design, location or size of an apartment.
- C. Until all of the apartments have been sold and the "as built" verified statement is filed, the Developer may amend the Declaration and the Condominium Map to (i) reflect alterations in any apartment which has not been sold; and (ii) reflect minor changes in any apartment or in the common elements which do not affect the physical location, design or size of any apartment which has been sold.
- D. The Developer may, unilaterally or jointly with the owner of an adjoining parcel of land, effect a subdivision or consolidation and resubdivision of land ("Resubdivision") that will result in a boundary adjustment and a substantial reduction in area of the Project land, provided that (i) the Resubdivision does not affect the layout, location and structure of any apartments or other improvements of the Project as shown on the Condominium Map, (ii) the Resubdivision does not change or reapportion the common interest appurtenant to any apartment, (iii) the gross area of land removed from the Project shall not exceed 15+ acres, and (iv) the Resubdivision is completed on or before December 31, 2002. When the Resubdivision is completed, the Developer may amend the Declaration and Condominium Map to substitute a new description of the Project land (Exhibit "A") to the Declaration and, if deemed necessary or advisable, to substitute a new site plan as part of the Condominium Map. See Section R of the Declaration.
- E. As noted under the Important Notes, Page 2, Developer has reserved the right to develop the Community in increments and merge increments as developed. The Developer may also modify the product mix and apartment type in future phases. Upon merger of future planned phases, individual apartment undivided common interest in the Community will be altered accordingly. See Exhibit "E".

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON LEASEHOLD CONDOMINIUM PROJECTS

The information contained in this report is a summary of the terms of the lease. For more detailed information, you should secure a copy of the lease documents and read them thoroughly.

If you have any legal questions about leasehold property, the lease documents or the terms of the lease and the consequences of becoming a lessee, you should seek the advice of an attorney.

There are currently no statutory provisions for the mandatory conversion of leasehold condominiums and there are no assurances that such measures will be enacted in the future.

In leasehold condominium projects, the buyer of an apartment will acquire the right to occupy and use the apartment for the time stated in the lease agreement. The buyer will not acquire outright or absolute fee simple ownership of the land. The land is owned by the lessor or the leased fee owner. The apartment owner or lessee must make lease rent payments and comply with the terms of the lease or be subject to the lessor's enforcement actions. The lease rent payments are usually fixed at specific amounts for fixed periods of time, and are then subject to renegotiation. Renegotiation may be based on a formula, by arbitration set in the lease agreement, by law or by agreement between the lessor and lessee. The renegotiated lease rents may increase significantly. At the end of the lease, the apartment owners may have to surrender the apartments, the improvements and the land back to the lessor without any compensation (surrender clause).

When leasehold property is sold, title is normally conveyed by means of an assignment of lease, the purpose of which is similar to that of a deed. The legal and practical effect is different because the assignment conveys only the rights and obligations created by the lease, not the property itself.

The developer of this condominium project may have entered into a master ground lease with the fee simple owner of the land in order to develop the project. The developer may have then entered into a sublease or a new lease of the land with the lessee (apartment owner). The developer may lease the improvements to the apartment owner by way of an apartment lease or sublease, or sell the improvements to the apartment owners by way of a condominium conveyance or apartment deed.

Although the common elements are owned jointly by all apartment owners, those portions of the common elements which are designated as limited common elements (see paragraph 2 below) may be used only by those apartments to which they are assigned. The common elements for this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit C .

as follows:

2. Limited Common Elements: Limited Common Elements are those common elements which are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments.

There are no limited common elements in this project.

The limited common elements and the apartments which may use them, as described in the Declaration are:

described in Exhibit D .

as follows:

Note: Land areas referenced herein are not legally subdivided lots.

3. Common Interest: Each apartment will have an undivided fractional interest in all of the common elements. This interest is called the "common interest." It is used to determine each apartment's share of the maintenance fees and other common profits and expenses of the condominium. It may also be used for other purposes, including voting on matters requiring action by apartment owners. The common interests for the apartments in this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

described in Exhibit E .

as follows:

NOTE: Upon the construction and "merger" of future increments, common interests will be adjusted as reflected in Exhibit "E".

- E. Encumbrances Against Title: An encumbrance is a claim against or a liability on the property or a document affecting the title or use of the property. Encumbrances may have an adverse effect on the property or your purchase and ownership of an apartment in the project.

Exhibit F describes the encumbrances against the title contained in the title report dated September 1, 1998 and issued by First American Long & Melone Title Company, Ltd.

Blanket Liens:

A blanket lien is an encumbrance (such as a mortgage) on the entire condominium project that secures some type of monetary debt (such as a loan) or other obligation. A blanket lien is usually released on an apartment-by-apartment basis upon payment of specified sums so that individual apartments can be conveyed to buyers free and clear of the lien.

[X] There are no blanket liens affecting title to the individual apartments.

[] There are blanket liens which may affect title to the individual apartments.

Blanket liens (except for improvement district or utility assessments) must be released before the developer conveys the apartment to a buyer. The Buyer's interest will be affected only if the developer defaults and the lien is foreclosed prior to conveying the apartment to buyer.

Type of Lien	Effect on Buyer's Interest and Deposit If Developer Defaults or Lien is Foreclosed Prior to Conveyance
NONE	NONE

F. Construction Warranties:

Warranties for individual apartments and the common elements, including the beginning and ending dates for each warranty, are as follows:

1. Building and Other Improvements:

The Developer's sole warranty will be provided in the form attached to this Public Report as Exhibit "G".

2. Appliances:

The Developer makes no warranty as to any appliances or other consumer products that may be installed in any Condominium Home or in the common elements. If there are any applicable manufacturer's or dealer's warranties relating to such appliances or other consumer products, the Developer will endeavor to assign and pass on to each owner the benefit of such warranties.

G. Status of Construction and Date of Completion or Date of Completion:

Construction of the Project commenced in September 1998, and should be completed by approximately December 1999.

H. Project Phases:

The developer has has not reserved the right to add to, merge, or phase this condominium.

Summary of Developer's plans or right to perform for future development (such as additions, mergers or phasing):

Alteration of the Community: The Developer has reserved the right in its sole and absolute discretion:

1. To make alterations in the Community (and to amend the Declaration and the Condominium Map accordingly) which change the configuration of, alter the number of rooms of, decrease or increase the size of, or change the location of any Apartment (and the limited common elements appurtenant thereto) in the Community which is not sold and the conveyance thereof Recorded, including specifically the right to alter the mix of model home types (increase or decrease the number of model home types); and
2. To make other alterations in the community (and to amend the Declaration and the Condominium Map accordingly) which make minor changes in any Apartment in the community or in the common elements which do not affect the physical location, design or size of any Apartment which has been sold and the conveyance thereof recorded.

Multi-Increment Phase: The Developer has also reserved the right to develop the Community in increments. The Community will consist of one hundred forty-four (144) residential Apartments and no commercial apartments contained in eighteen (18) two-story buildings to be developed, in Developer's sole discretion, in as many separate increments as Developer shall determine. The Developer contemplates, however, that development shall proceed in four (4) increments-Phase 1 consisting of forty-eight (48) Apartments, Phase 2 consisting of thirty-two (32) Apartments, Phase 3 consisting of thirty-two (32) Apartments and Phase 4 consisting of thirty-two (32) Apartments. In the event that the phasing of increments departs from the foregoing, Developer shall in advance of the construction of such increment file an amendment to the Declaration identifying the Apartments in such increment. Only the first "increment" will be constructed initially. Subsequent increments will be constructed later. As each "increment" or "cluster" is constructed, it will likely be merged with previously developed phases described above. With the addition of such increment, the common interest allocable to such apartment will be adjusted as set forth in the Declaration and as noted in Exhibit "E". See Section EE of the Declaration.

Note: The Developer intends to pay all of the actual common expenses for the project until FEBRUARY 28, 1999. Accordingly, apartment owners shall not be obligated for the payment of their respective shares of the common expenses until MARCH 1, 1999. Including and from and after MARCH 1, 1999, apartment owners will be obligated to pay their respective shares of the common expenses allocated to their apartment, beginning with the budgeted monthly maintenance fees for the month of MARCH, 1999.

C. Utility Charges for Apartments:

yellow paper stock white paper stock pink paper stock green paper stock

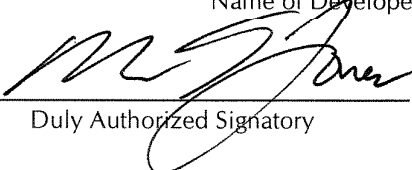

Note: The Developer advises that costs and expenses of maintenance and operation of a condominium community are very difficult to estimate initially and even if such maintenance charges have been accurately estimated, such charges will tend to increase in an inflationary economy and as the improvements age. Maintenance charges can vary depending on services desired by apartment owners and may increase significantly depending on the level of services eventually selected by the Association's Board of Directors. The Buyer should examine the maintenance charges schedule to see what services are included in the schedule and address these issues with its Board upon its formation.

C. Additional Information Not Covered Above

1. All prospective purchasers should also be aware that the Project is within and a part of the master planned community known as the Waikele Community, and is subject to certain conditions and restrictions contained in various documents that affect the Project, including: (i) the covenants, conditions, restrictions, reservations, agreements, obligations and other provisions contained in the Master Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions for the Waikele Community dated December 28, 1990, recorded at the Office of the Assistant Registrar of the Land Court of the State of Hawaii as Document No. 1791991, as amended; (ii) the reservations and exceptions contained in the Tenth Supplemental Master Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions for the Waikele Community, dated April 20, 1993, recorded as Bureau of Conveyances Document No. 93-061690; and (iii) certain other disclosures and waivers applicable to developments within the Waikele Community, as set forth in Section Q of the Condominium Declaration.
2. This project has been designed to receive private refuse collection and does not conform to City and County of Honolulu standards for service by municipal refuse collection vehicles.

- D. AFFIDAVIT OF INTENT TO PURCHASE AND RESIDE IN AN OWNER-OCCUPANT DESIGNATED CONDOMINIUM RESIDENTIAL UNIT

We, the undersigned "owner-occupants," on this _____ day of _____, 19____, do hereby declare that it is our intention to purchase and reside in a condominium residential unit designated for an "owner-occupant" in the ViewPointe at Waikele condominium project ("Project") proposed by Schuler Homes, Inc. ("Developer").

We understand, affirm, represent and agree by signing this Affidavit that:

1. It is our intent to reserve and purchase an owner-occupant designated residential unit ("designated unit") pursuant to section 514A-103 of the Owner-Occupant Law, and upon closing escrow, to reside in the designated unit as our principal residence for 365 consecutive days.

2. The term "owner-occupant" as used herein is defined in section 514A-101 of the Owner-Occupant Law as:

"...any individual in whose name sole or joint legal title is held in a residential unit which, simultaneous to such ownership, serves as the individual's principal residence, as defined by the state department of taxation, for a period of not less than three hundred and sixty-five consecutive days, provided that the individual retains complete possessory control of the premises of the residential unit during this period. An individual shall not be deemed to have complete possessory control of the premises if the individual rents, leases or assigns the premises for any period of time to any other person in whose name legal title is not held." (Emphasis added).

3. We understand that if two or more prospective owner-occupants intend to reside jointly in the same designated unit, only one owner-occupant's name shall be placed on the reservation list for either the chronological system or the lottery system.

4. Should we require financing from a financial institution to purchase the designated unit, the financing shall be an owner-occupant mortgage loan. The financial institution is required to take all reasonable steps necessary to determine whether the borrower intends to become an owner-occupant.

5. At any time after obtaining adequate financing or a commitment for adequate financing up until the expiration of this Affidavit (365 days after recordation of the instrument conveying the designated unit to us), we shall notify the Real Estate Commission immediately upon any decision to cease being an owner-occupant of the designated unit.

6. At closing of escrow, we shall file a claim for and secure an owner-occupant property tax exemption with the appropriate county office for the designated unit.

7. We have personally executed this Affidavit and we are all of the prospective owner-occupants for the designated unit. This Affidavit shall not be executed by an attorney-in-fact.

8. This Affidavit shall be reaffirmed by us no earlier than our receipt for the Project's Final Public Report and no later than the closing of escrow for the unit. The developer shall cancel our sales contract or reservation if we fail to make the reaffirmation. If the sales contract has become binding pursuant to section 514A-62 of the Condominium Property Act, we may be considered to be in default under our sales contract, and the Developer may exercise the default or other remedies provided for in the sales contract and any other remedies provided by law.

9. We shall not sell or offer to sell, lease or offer to lease, rent or offer to rent, assign or offer to assign, convey or otherwise transfer any interest in the designated unit until at least 365 consecutive days have elapsed since the recordation of the instrument conveying title to the designated unit to us. Furthermore, we understand that we have the burden of proving our compliance with the law.

10. We understand that it is the affirmative duty of any developer, employee or agent of a developer, and real estate licensee, to report immediately to the Real Estate Commission any person who violates or attempts to violate the Owner-Occupant Law. No developer, employee or agent of a developer, or real estate licensee shall violate or aid any person in violating the Owner-Occupant Law.

11. The Real Estate Commission may require verification of our owner-occupant status and if we fail to submit such verification, we may be subject to a fine in an amount equal to the profit made from the sale, assignment or transfer of the designated unit.

12. Any false statement in this Affidavit or violation of the Owner-Occupant Law shall subject us to a misdemeanor charge with a fine not to exceed $2,000, or by imprisonment of up to a year or both.
