ESTIMATE OF MAINTENANCE FEES AND ESTIMATE OF MAINTENANCE FEE DISBURSEMENTS

The regular maintenance and repair of each apartment and appurtenant limited common element Yard Area is the sole responsibility of each respective apartment owner. Hawaii Revised Statutes Sec. 514A-86 requires that the association purchase fire insurance to cover the Project's improvements. The association may, at some point in the future, elect to require each apartment owner to obtain separate fire, flood and hurricane insurance and liability insurance policies for his or her respective apartment pursuant to Article 7 of the Bylaws. However, at least initially, the association will obtain master fire, flood and hurricane insurance policies for the Project and the premiums for such fire, flood and hurricane insurance are included in the maintenance fees that the apartment owners are required to pay to the association. The maintenance fees will also include premiums for liability insurance covering the project's common elements. However, premiums for homeowners insurance (i.e., insurance covering personal property and upgrades or revisions to the apartments) and for liability insurance for the individual apartments are the responsibility of each apartment owner and are not included in the maintenance fees below.

ESTIMATE OF MAINTENANCE FEES: Ewa Oceanside (23 Apartments)

22	190.78	2289.36
23	217.11	2605.32

*These figures include the premiums for liability insurance for the project's common elements, but not for personal contents of individual owners. These figures also include premiums for fire, flood and hurricane insurance covering the structures of the various apartments. However, such fire, flood and hurricane insurance does not cover the contents of the various apartments. Apartment owners are advised to consult with an insurance agent to determine whether they should or need to obtain additional fire, flood and hurricane insurance to cover upgrades to their apartment and all of the contents of their apartment.

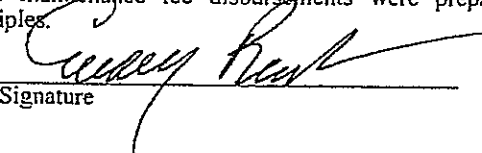

Especially in today's insurance market, it is difficult to ensure with any certainty how long estimated insurance premiums will remain in effect. The buyer must be aware that the above-referenced amounts are only estimates and may change for reasons beyond the control of the Developer and the Association, and, by taking title to an apartment, the buyer accepts and approves any such changes.

The Real Estate Commission has not reviewed the estimates of maintenance fee assessments and disbursements for their accuracy or sufficiency.

1. AGENCY: The Buyer and/or Seller in a real estate transaction in Hawaii may retain a real estate Brokerage Firm as their agent. In such case, the Buyer and/or Seller is represented by the Brokerage Firm and all of its licensees. Hawaii law requires real estate licensees to disclose orally or in writing to Seller and/or Buyer whom the licensee represents. The form of representation may be one of the following:
(a) Seller's Agent. Brokerage Firm represents Seller only unless a disclosed dual agency exists. Seller's Agent owes the highest duties to Seller, including confidentiality, loyalty, and utmost care.
(b) Buyer's Agent. Brokerage Firm represents Buyer only unless a disclosed dual agency exists. Buyer's Agent owes the highest duties to Buyer, including confidentiality, loyalty, and utmost care.

In such event, the Brokerage Firm and all of its licensees represent both Buyer and Seller and are dual agents. Dual agents must remain neutral in negotiations and must not advance the interest of one party over the other. A separate written Dual Agency Agreement is required under Hawaii law.
Seller [X] agrees [] does not agree to Dual Agency

Customer. Seller's Agent can also assist Buyer as a customer. As a customer, Buyer is not represented by Seller's Agent. There is also a specific law in Hawaii (Chapter 508D, Hawaii Revised Statutes) requiring disclosure of material facts in the sale of any residential property. Under Hawaii law, the Seller is obligated and hereby agrees to give a written disclosure statement to a Buyer containing any fact, defect, or condition, past or present, that would be expected to measurably affect the value of the Property to a reasonable person. Such disclosure statement shall be prepared in good faith and with due care and shall disclose all material facts relating to the Property that: (i) are within Seller's knowledge or control; (ii) can be observed from visible, accessible areas; or (iii) are required by Section 508D-15 of the Hawaii Revised Statutes.

Seller understands that purposely or negligently failing to comply with this disclosure law may result in liability for damages. Seller further understands that if a written disclosure statement is not provided, or if inspection of the Property by a third party reveals facts inconsistent with or contradictory to Seller's disclosure statement, Hawaii law requires that Brokerage Firm disclose those facts to Seller, Buyer and Buyer's agent. This obligation of disclosure limits Brokerage Firm's agency duty of confidentiality. Seller also understands that if, after Seller's disclosure statement has been delivered to Buyer and prior to closing, Seller becomes aware of information which was not previously disclosed or which makes any statement in the disclosure statement inaccurate and said information directly, substantially, and adversely affects the value of the Property, then Seller shall provide an amended disclosure statement, in writing, to Buyer within ten (10) days after the discovery and in no event later than twelve noon on the last business day prior to the recorded sale of the Property.

(h) Leasehold Disclosure. If the Property is leasehold, Seller agrees to provide, at Seller's expense, a current leasehold disclosure as required by Hawaii State law. Seller authorizes Brokerage Firm to order such a disclosure from a qualified professional, if such professional service is available.

14. SELLER'S AFFIRMATIONS:

- (a) Property Information. To the best of Seller's knowledge, the information on EXHIBIT A is correct. If any information on EXHIBIT A is known to Seller to be incorrect or incomplete, Seller shall be fully responsible for any actions and costs to cure.
- (b) Fair Housing Laws. Seller understands that it is illegal to discriminate against prospective Buyers on the basis of race, sex, including gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, color, religion, marital status, familial status, ancestry, disability, age, or human immunodeficiency virus infection.

Such withholding may not be required if Seller obtains and provides Buyer with an authorized exemption or waiver from withholding. Seller must complete the authorized exemption or waiver form, or Escrow will withhold/collect from Seller the required amount at closing and forward it to the IRS.

16. HARPTA: Withholding Required if Seller is A Non-Resident Of The State Of Hawaii. Under Hawaii law, if Seller is a non-resident person or entity (corporation, partnership, trust or estate) of the State of Hawaii, Buyer must withhold a specified percentage of the "amount realized" by Seller on the sale of the Property and forward the amount with the appropriate form to the State Department of Taxation.
